When You & I Were Young... Moses P. Becomes First GOP Winner Demos Get Little Holt Comfort

50 Years Ago
Hon. Moses P. Kinkaid wins the battle of votes to be the first republican congressman from the Big Sixth and also the entire republican ticket won. Booze and poe'die was the discussion among the citizens in regard to the election. The democrats received little comfort in Holt county this fall. Following the election on Tuesday, O'Neill is one of the most corrupt towns in the state politically. Miss Myrtle Embode accepted a position in Major Dwe's jewelry store.

25 Years Ago
A dance was held in the A. Boshart barn north of O'Neill. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Hagel on October 23. A marriage license was granted on November 2 to John F. Warren and Miss Gladys M. Rossman. Eight quarts of strawberries were picked from a patch on the farm of J. S. Johnson. Jack Hughes escaped death when the blacksmith shop and tool shed on the Muran ranch where he lives, burned. J. D. Cronin, while in Cork, Ireland, came across an Irish shillalah which he sent to O'Neill's policeman, Scott Hough. The shillalah is made of Irish Black Thorn, 20 inches in length and was used by Irish policemen many years ago. A petition is in circulation proposing the paving of six central city blocks in O'Neill.

10 Years Ago
Nebraska and Holt county is still strongly republican. For fall term of district court the jurors from O'Neill to serve are: Joe Peter, Mike Johnson, William Cuddy, T. J. Coyne and James Kelley. The Methodist parsonage was the scene of the wedding of Margaret Wyant and Donald Asher with the Rev. Dawson Park officiating. Registration for gas rationing will be taken at the O'Neill public school on November 12-13. Instead of celebrating Halloween in the usual manner, three little O'Neill girls, Beverly McCarthy, Dorothy Froelich and Shiela Taffe, dressed as Uncle Sams and Miss America and called at the homes selling war stamps and bonds. They sold $40 worth of stamps and $225 worth of bonds. Fred Watson, an oldtime prominent rancher, was an O'Neill caller. Owen Davidson, USN, arrived home Saturday on leave.

One Year Ago
Donald Donohoe and Miss Carolyn Lee were crowned king and queen at the St. Mary's homecoming activities. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sholes on November 1. At a meeting of the Holt county selective service board members, it was brought forth that a man getting into service via the draft the cost was $55 and by recruiting services it cost $564. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Widfeldt held a Halloween party at their home. O'Neill was defeated by the Valentine football team Friday night, 7-31. Betty Richter joined the Scott Community club.
