

Satisfactory prices at 3-Church Sale

Large Crowd Attends Event

CHAMBERS — A community sale sponsored by the Amelia Methodist, Chambers Methodist, and the Bethany Presbyterian churches was held Wednesday, October 29, at the Mark Gribble place, southeast of Chambers. The sale was well attended and "satisfactory" prices were received for cattle, corn, poultry, produce and a building—all of which were sold. The Bethany ladies served the lunch. Ed Thorin was auctioneer and the Chambers State bank clerked.
