21 Attend Garden Club Meet

CHAMBERS—The Chambers Garden club met Wednesday, November 5, at the home of Cleone Wintermote, Betty Wintermote being assistant hostess. Twenty-one members, two visitors and seven children were present. Response to roll call was made by Thanksgiving verses. Bette Mitchell, Eulalia Sexton, Betty Wintermote and Pearl Neilson were appointed a committee to plan for the annual Christmas party which will be held at the home of Jennie Gillette. Jessie Kiltz and Mildred Wandersee being assistant hostesses. It was decided to draw names for the gift exchange this year, and the drawing was made at the close of the business session.

A get-well card was sent to Mrs. Irving, former state president of Federated Garden clubs, who is recuperating from a major operation. All present signed the card. This being the annual meeting, the constitution was read. It was voted to declare all officers eligible for re-election unanimously chosen to continue their present positions. Jennie Gillette was elected secretary. Genevieve Gillette gave a most interesting report from the state convention which was held in Norfolk recently.

Donna Hubbard demonstrated Christmas decorations for doors by showing two samples she had made. Betty Wintermote gave a brief talk on "Rabbit Repellent for Trees." Lizzie Renninger, Cora Wyant and Cleone Wintermote were given door prizes. After a lunch the meeting adjourned.
