

Eagles Seek Second Consecutive Crown

Pairings were completed here Saturday for the 16th annual Holt county high school basketball tournament to be staged on the O'Neill high rink next week—Tuesday through Friday, January 20-23.

Coach Paul Baker's O'Neill high school Eagles, defending champions, will be gunning for their second consecutive title.

First game of the meet will begin at 5:45 p.m., on Tuesday with Inman going against Atkinson. In the second match, O'Neill will face the St. Mary's Cardinals, starting at 7:15 p.m. In the nightcap, the Ewing Tigers will face the Chambers Coyotes.

On Wednesday evening, St. Joseph's of Atkinson will square off against the Inman-Atkinson victor at 7 p.m. The Page Eagles will clash with Stuart Broncos at 8:30 p.m.

Page and St. Joe, seeded teams in the upper bracket, are expected to collide in semifinal play Thursday at 7 p.m. and O'Neill and Chambers are lower bracket clubs seeded to gain the semis.

The third place game will start at 7 p.m., on Friday with the title match scheduled to start at 8:30.

Baker's kids have by far the most impressive record to date and are expected to roll through the tourney without too much difficulty.

Naper Tops Stuart in Non-Loop Game

STUART—The Broncos journeyed to Naper Tuesday evening, January 6, and dropped a non-conference game to Naper high school with a 46-43 score. It was a rough and tumble affair with 45 fouls called. The pre-game game also went to Naper, 37-30.

Friday evening, January 9, found the Broncos on the Long Pine floor.

This game was poorly played by both teams, the first quarter ended with 2 points in the bag for Long Pine, both free throws. At the half Stuart had 14 to Long Pine's 11, but the third quarter put Long Pine ahead 21-17 and the finish showed Stuart had dropped one more game, 31-27.

The pregame game was won by Stuart, 27-12.

Make Extended Southwest Tour

CHAMBERS—Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Alderson returned Friday, January 9 from an extended trip through Colorado, New Mexico and California.

They had Christmas dinner with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brotherton at Greeley, Colo., and spent New Year's with another daughter, Rosalie, Mr. and Mrs. Mulford, at Ontario, Calif.

Leaving Greeley, Colo., the day after Christmas they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Brotherton and two sons, Don and Jim, to San Diego, Calif., by way of New Mexico and Arizona. There was snow on the ground practically all the way to Phoenix, Ariz. In passing through the mountains of the coastal range they encountered a heavy snowstorm. They were surprised to meet hundreds of cars, some with sleds tied on, going into the mountains to see the snow.

At San Diego, they were joined by Dale Brotherton, who accompanied them to Ontario to see the Mulford's. The following day Don and Jim Brotherton left for home in their brother, Dale's, car. Dale Brotherton was leaving January 8, on his second cruise in the Pacific. He expects to be gone until next October.

On the day after New Year's the Alderson's and the Brotherton's returned to San Diego, passing through Pasadena to see the floats of the parade of roses tournament. The floats were all on exhibition in Victory park, Pasadena. At Long Beach they drove along the route by the ocean.

The following morning they visited Balboa park. Dale Brotherton left them at this time to report back to his ship the USS Salyer.

On the return trip they stopped at El Paso, Tex., to visit Mr. Alderson's sister, Miss Ruth Alderson. They were surprised to find another sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Griz, of Alaska there. Mrs. Griz was formerly Minnie Alderson.

After a short visit with the Alderson's son, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Don Alderson and family at Colorado Springs, Colo., they reached Greeley and from there Mr. and Mrs. Alderson returned to their home at Chambers.

Leah Claire Iler Bride of Dakotan

The marriage of Miss Leah Claire Iler to Donald E. Brehm was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church in O'Neill Saturday, January 10. Before the altar banked with pink and white gladioli Rev. Samuel Lee read the doubling marriage vows in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends.

Miss Iler is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Downey of O'Neill. Mr. Brehm's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Brehm of Watertown, S.D.

Given in marriage by her uncle, the bride appeared in a two-piece street length dress of silver-blue tie silk. With it she wore pale blue accessories and carried a bouquet of light pink roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. William C. Artus served as her sister's matron-of-honor. She wore a dark aqua blue taffeta street length dress with navy blue accessories and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses.

Glen Brehm of Watertown, S.D., brother of the bridegroom, was bestman.

Mrs. John Harbottle played the nuptial selections on the organ during the ceremony.

Following a reception, which was held after the ceremony at the Downey home for immediate relatives and a few friends, Mr. and Mrs. Brehm left on a two-weeks' trip.

A graduate of St. Mary's academy in 1945, the bride attended the University of Nebraska and for the past few months, has been employed in California.

The bridegroom graduated from the South Dakota school of mines, in Rapid City, majoring in engineering, and has spent three years in the army, part of that time in Korea.

Out-of-town relatives here were Mr. and Mrs. George Brehm and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brehm and son, Dean, all of Watertown; Mrs. Robert Axtell of Hamburg, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pound of Blair.
