

Baker's Kids Get Sweet Revenge, 55-37

Bulldogs Without FG in First Quarter

When the O'Neill high Eagles and Ainsworth Bulldogs squared off Tuesday night on the O'Neill court, Coach Paul Baker's Blues were out for revenge—and got it.

The Bulldogs handed O'Neill a 49-44 setback in pre-Christmas play at Ainsworth. This put the "Dogs at the top of the North-Central Nebraska conference heap.

But a subsequent defeat at the hands of Basset deflated the Bulldogs, and Tuesday night's punishment at O'Neill, 55-37, knocked the Scarlet from the running and restored the Blues to the top rung.

O'Neill denied the visitors a field goal in the first quarter and built a 14-4 lead. O'Neill led 33-15 at the half and 41-24 at the end of the third.

Blevins was best for Ainsworth with 13 but Gary Buckmaster's 14 overshadowed the Ainsworth artist. Dave Eby racked up 10 and George Kilcoin potted three fielders after coming into the game to rev up the Blues.

O'Neill and Ainsworth bands and cheer sections created a noisy setting.

Russell Miner was the big gun in the O'Neill reserves' 45-43 win over the Ainsworth seconds. Miner controlled both backboards.

The Eagles will go into the annual Holt county tourney with a 54-points-per-game average compared to 36 for their opponents.

Bovins was best for Ainsworth with 13 but Gary Buckmaster's 14 overshadowed the Ainsworth artist.

St. Mary's Tops St. Ludger's, 44-29

Creighton Parochial No Match

Coach Joe George's Hilltoppers invaded Creighton Tuesday night and put to sleep the St. Ludger's academy quintet, 44-29.

It was St. Mary's ball game from the outset, building a 10-6 first quarter lead, stretching the margin to 27-11, at the halftime, and enjoying a 33-23 advantage going into the final frame.

Jerry Wanser was the big gun in the Hilltoppers' attack with 17 points. Wayne Donohoe was second high with 10. Meuret, St. Ludger's forward, hit 11 points for the losers.
