Say Natives Would Welcome Sun

EWING—Mrs. Alice Crellin, who is spending the winter months on the West coast, writes Ewing friends that she has spent the past two weeks at Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash., visiting relatives and friends. The rainy weather has not interfered with sightseeing trips but some Nebraska sunshine would be appreciated. Mrs. Crellin plans to go to Oakland, Calif., in the near future. Other Ewing folks seeking warmer climate for this time of year are Mr. and Mrs. Sis Ebengaard, who are at Seaside Park, Boynton Beach, Fla. They too, write that the weather has been chilly in this winter vacation land.

Ewing has had many beautiful days of bright sunshine during the month of January with temperatures in the 40's and 50's during the day.

THRIFTY HAM AND CORN CASSEROLES

Second-day ham takes on wonderful new flavor in these casseroles which include corn, green pepper and onion in a well-seasoned white sauce. With crusty rolls, a green salad and zesty beer, they're perfect for a family or party meal.

Your family may not be large enough to consume a whole ham, or even a half, in one meal, but you'll find that it's smart planning to bake a ham occasionally. It's such a decorative asset to any table and it is delicious hot or cold.

With the portion left after the first meal, you will want to save some for slicing and serving in sandwiches or with the breakfast eggs. For a dinner menu, you might grind the meat for a ham loaf or cut it in cubes for a casserole combination such as this one:

Baked Ham and Corn

1 No. 2 can kernel corn
1 small onion, grated
1/2 cup minced green pepper
2 cups cubed cooked ham
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour

1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup fine bread crumbs
1/2 cup grated cheese

Combine corn, onion, green pepper and ham; mix lightly. Place in 4 to 6 individual casseroles. Melt butter in saucpan over low heat; blend in flour. Gradually stir in milk and cook, stirring constantly, until sauce is thickened (about 2 minutes). Stir in mustard, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper; pour over mixture in casseroles. Combine crumbs and cheese; sprinkle over casseroles. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees) 25 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes 4 to 6 servings.
