Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Bright . . . newlyweds will reside in O'Neill.—The Frontier Photo by John H. McCarville.

Miss Muriel Niles Weds Ardell Bright

Arrangements of yellow jonquils, Japanese iris and violets banked the altar at the Methodist church in O'Neill for the 2:30 o'clock wedding on Sunday afternoon, February 1, of Miss Muriel Niles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Niles of Scottsbluff, and Ardell Bright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Bright.

Rev. Wallace B. Smith officiated in a single-ring ceremony. Nuptial music was played by A. E. Bowen who also accompanied his son, John Bowen, as a vocal soloist. He sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Alven Peterson, of Neligh, wore an orchid suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. She carried a white Bible.

Mrs. Darel Bright of Atkinson, the bride's only attendant and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, wore an aqua suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Darel Bright of Atkinson.

John C. Watson and Archie Bright, brother of the bridegroom, served as ushers.

Mrs. Richard Hovey had charge of the guest book.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Town House. A three-tier cake trimmed in white roses centered the table. Mrs. Walter Allen served the cake and Miss Marion Niles and Miss Ardis Grenier poured. Mrs. Alvin Peterson and Mrs. Archie Bright had charge of the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of the Scottsbluff high school and has been employed at the Lee store here.

The bridegroom, a graduate of O'Neill high school is associated with his father in the Bright's Red and White store.

Following a short honeymoon the couple will reside in an apart-

Out-of-town guests included the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. Louis Niles, and daughter, Miss Marion Niles, and her aunt, Mrs. Walter Allen and small son, all of Scottsbluff. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Peterson and three children of Neligh; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bright of Orchard; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keckhafer and son of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Milnor Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole and family, all of Star.

A family dinner was served Sunday evening for 32 close relatives and friends at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Guests were seated at one large table decorated in pink and white and centered with a large three-tier pink and white decorated cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was baked by Mrs. Richard Hovey.

Mrs. Ed Bright, Mrs. Archie Bright, Mrs. Harry Milnor, Mrs. Darel Bright and Mrs. Richard Hovey assisted in the serving.
