Pantry Shelf-Boon to Homemakers

mother's day has moved upstairs to the kitchen and now holds an eminent position in the modern home as a pantry shelf. Here the change which the years have wrought is great. While grandmother necessarily prepared most of her own food for storage, the modern homemaker has only to make an occasional trip to the market to keep her shelf well stocked—and with a wide assortment of packaged and canned foods that would have made grandmother's eyes pop with wonderto the kitchen and now holds an mother's eyes pop with wonder-Modern homemakers have found this pantry shelf not only a con-venience, but almost a necessity. With so many activities outside of their homes, quickly prepared foods are important to the preparation of good and well balanced meals. No matter how busy you are, meals need not suffer when there's a well stocked pantry shelf to nick from

> Chicken Sub Gum 11/3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice 11/2 cups water 1/2 teaspoon salt

1 can cream of chicken soup 1 can cream of celery soup 1/3 cup milk

2 teaspoons soy sauce 1 cup slivered cooked chicken Dash of pepper 4 cup toasted almonds

Combine rice, water, and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 min-

Meanwhile, combine soups, milk, and soy sauce in saucepan. Mix well to blend. Heat, stirring occasionally. Add chicken and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Arrange rice in serving dish. Top with chicken and sauce.
