Conoco Dealers Hear Spring Plans

Approximately 25 Continental Oil company dealers, jobbers and agents from the O'Neill vicinity met on Tuesday evening at the Golden hotel to see and hear a preview of Continental's spring advertising campaign.

The campaign, which has been pretested in several major cities, will use newspapers, radio, television, outdoor posters and magazines to feature Conoco Super Motor Oil and advocate changing oil at proper intervals and cleaning oil and air filters regularly, it was announced by K. L. Powell of Lincoln, assistant division manager, who presided at the meeting.

Newspapers will continue to be the backbone of Conoco advertising in 1953, but will be supplemented by liberal use of other

Worst Storm of Winter at Deloit

DELOIT — After a couple of weeks of spring-like weather the third and worst blizzard of the winter hit this community. There are snow banks four or five feet high and all roads were still blocked Saturday. Feeding of livestock was very hard work. Those who were moving found it difficult to get out. Deloit high school students were unable to get home from O'Neill or Bartlett.

Other Deloit News Mrs. Sylvester Bauer visited her brother, Clarence Day, in a Norfolk hospital Monday, February 16. He died Friday. Mrs. Anna Sehi and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Sehi and family visited relatives here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rosow called at the Henry Reimer home Sunday afternoon.

A number of ladies attended a party at the Carl Thiele home Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Taylor are visiting Mrs. Taylor's mother and relatives in California. Mrs. Stanley Huffman and daughters attended a family dinner in Elgin on Sunday. There was a card party at St. John's Tuesday evening, February 17.

Hospital Says 'Thanks' for Assist-

St. Anthony's hospital acknowledges with gratitude those employees who remained for 48 hours duty during the storm. They wish to thank also those who were responsible for clearing the sidewalks and the roads and who saw that hospital supplies were not depleted.

Continental's plans call for use of advertising in 989 daily and weekly newspapers; commercials on 53 radio stations and 16 television stations; ads in the Saturday Evening Post and farm publications, and the use of outdoor posters in 1,179 cities and towns, Mr. Powell revealed. A basic outline of the company's plans was presented to the Conoco marketers in the form of a skit based on the traditional theme of, "Spring Tonic - Just What the Doctor Ordered."

Assisting Mr. Powell at Tuesday's meeting were R. D. Kugler, merchandiser of Scottsbluff, Cal C. Solem, merchandiser of Lincoln and R. R. Bonse, district manager of Ainsworth.
