Surprise Birthday Party Given

Mrs. Clara Robinson of 2008 N. 27th St., was honored with a lovely surprise birthday party Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wiley, 2226 Miami St., given by her husband and son.

The lovely table was centered with a beautifully decorated cake inscribed with "happy birthday mother". The many guests present enjoyed watching the surprised, excited mother as she received her many gifts. She was very appreciative and grateful to her relatives and friends; especially to Phillip Robinson Sr. and Jr., who made the party possible.

OFFICERS' BRIDGE CLUB TO ENTERTAIN BRIDGE ASSN.
LOCKBURN A R M Y A I R BASE, Columbus, Ohio—Mrs. Benjamin O. Davis Jr., chairwoman of the Lockbourne Officers Bridge Club, announced last week that the Air Base Club would play host to approximately forty members of the American Bridge Association in a regional tourney to be held at Lockbourne on the 2nd and 3rd of November. Competing teams will come from the Central State communities of Chicago, Detroit; Pittsburgh; Cleveland and St. Louis. Also represented will be Kansas City, Mo., and Xenia, Ohio.

Numbering more than forty members, Lockbourne's club is the new addition to the American Bridge Assn., having joined last July. The number of members is growing rapidly as officers and wives at the Ohio Base become devoted to America's favorite indoor sport. Assisting Mrs. Davis in planning for reception of the visitors are Mrs. Francis Collier and Samuel Lynn. The latter two carried Lockbourne colors into first competition last August when they won fifth honors in the Association's national meet in Pittsburgh. Keen rivalry exists in the club. Mrs. Davis teams with her husband, Col. O. Davis Jr., base commander, to figure prominently in the running for top honors.

According to Mrs. Davis the guests will be housed in officers' quarters and match play will be carried out in Lockbourne's lavish Officers' club.
