GILKERSONS WIN OVER SIOUX CITY STOCK YARDS

The Gilkerson Union Giants of Chicago defeated the Sioux City Stock yards team, Sept. 12, adding another name to their long list of victories. This game turned out to be one of the best seen about Omaha in a long time. The famous Suitcase Mason failed to get a hit in his 6 trips to bat. In the 11th inning Gill singled to right field, Akers bunted a ball to 3rd base advancing Gill to second base and holding 1st base for himself. Brown received 3 balls one wild that advanced Gill to 3rd base Brown then fouled or lost 6 balls, then struck out Crespo, then sacrificed to right field, scoring Gill, Hick singled to right field scoring Akers. Healy hit a double that scored Hicks.

Daniels singled to right field, scoring Healy. Suitcase Mason struck out. Sioux City failed to score in this last half of this important inning.

"You know you are not telling the truth," and some are rash enough to say, "You are cranky, that's all." Sometimes parents are mistaken in their views and their statements, but it would be better to say, "Well, father, you think you are right, but I am convinced that you are mistaken." Or, "other, you are sincere in your convictions, but you will find that you are mistaken." The famous "backhanded lick" the strap and the switch of a few decades ago are considered cruel today; but it is incontrovertible that they were productive of greater respect for parents. Restraint in earlier years will obviate disrespect in later years. Then, children should remember that retribution is certain, and sometimes swift. All such children would do well to read Gal. 6:7, Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that also shall he reap.

Read the Omaha Guide Every Week

To the Editor of the Omaha Guide, Omaha, Nebraska. Dear Sir: My attention has been called to an article appearing in the September tenth, issue of the Guide, the title of the "The Negro" appearing at the end of which is "The Republican Party and the article is my name. I wish to publicly state, that I did not write, sign or have I authorized any other person to write or sign my name to said article. Respectfully, Ray Lawrence Williams, Attorney at Law.

A CORRECTION The Omaha Guide wishes to make the following correction. On page three of the September tenth issue of the Guide, there appeared an article titled, "The Republican Party and the Negro" appearing at the end of the article was the name Ray Lawrence Williams, Attorney. The Omaha Guide wishes to state, that the name Attorney Ray L. Williams, was incorrectly placed to appear that he was the writer of the article. The name should have appeared as heading the legal notice, which followed the above article. C. C. Galloway, Acting Editor. Sept. 14, 1932.

The Omaha Guide. 2418 Grant Street, Omaha, Nebraska. Gentlemen: Replying to your inquiry as to the purpose of the Executive Committee of the Douglas County Republican Central Committee.

The Executive Committee is charged with the same functions as it has always been charged with. The Campaign Committee is a small committee made up of active workers who have agreed to help the Chairman and Vice Chairman on certain work with the officers are charged with. In other words they need assistants and the members of this Committee are assistants to the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Central Committee. Some of the members of the Campaign Committee are working among certain groups with definite assignments. Others are working with the Ward Chairmen in such cases where the Ward Chairmen request their service. There is absolutely no conflict between the Campaign Committee and the Executive Committee. If the Campaign Committee did not assist the work done by them would largely be thrown on the shoulders of the several officers who are working at

Activities of the Omaha Guide's Working Men's Commissioners

The Omaha Guide's Working Men's Commissioners, held their regular noonday meeting Tuesday, Sept. 12th in the OMAHA GUIDE building. The following members were present: Dr. G. B. Lennox, Rev. J. R. Young, Mr. H. Spriggs, Rev. Stevenson, Rev. Burckhardt, Rev. Bell, Dr. T. C. Ross, Dr. Milton Johnson, Mr. C. C. Galloway. Many important matters were discussed. A committee was appointed by the president to prepare a constitution and by laws for the organization. A motion was made that each member late without a plausible excuse, donate 10c for the organization. The following members agreed to deposit with the treasurer of the organization the sum of $5 for running expenses by Sept. 25th. Some of the members present were not ready to state a definite date to make their first deposit with the treasurer, but would state in the next meeting when they would be able to do so. It was commonly

HABITS By A. B. Mann

(The Literary Service Bureau) Some people seem to think that it is commendable and even incumbent upon them to match any and every lie told in their hearing. Often there is an actual lying contest, but no credit is due and no advantage accrues to those who practice this habit. A little boy and his sister decided to fast and pray, as did their elders. The boy would ask, "Sister, how many times you prayed?" If she said two times, he said four; if she claimed six times his record was eight; he was always ahead of her—in lies, at least. So there are individuals who have seen something more startling, done something more commendable, or had far better luck than others. And the habit grows, becomes chronic and almost unconquerable, as the years pass.

Headquarters. Yours very truly, Douglas County Republican Central Committee. Jackson B. Chase, Chairman. 2514 Corby Street, Omaha, Nebraska, September 7, 1932. Omaha Guide Pub. Co., 24th and Grant Sts., Omaha, Nebraska.

"The Bride of Achilles"

by Henry Bertram Lister L. L. M. (Christopher Publishing House Boston, Mass.) Readers who enjoy reading the Iliad of Homer; Odyssey; the drama of Euripides, etc., will also enjoy reading the little volume, "The Bride of Achilles", which, in abridged form, covers the salient features of the above works.

One little sentence, "No man either coward or hero has ever escaped from his fate," well describes the action found in the book, for it is one continual expose of both cowards and heroes attempting to dodge a fate that proves their undoing.

By reading this abridged work of an old master one is reminded that there really is, "Nothing new under the Sun", for today we witness the same ruling passions greed, avarice, ill-advised ambitions, injustices, wars and rumors of wars, plots and counter plots, slayings, love-trysts, unfaithfulness and the myriad weaknesses of individuals, both high and low ranks of society, as the world experienced many many centuries ago, as evidenced by the knowledge handed down to us by the ancient historical writers.

HOT NEGRO JAZZ NOW PARIS RAGE

Paris, France.—(CNS)—Tiger Rag, Minnie The Mocher, or any of a score of other popular jazz pieces by Negro composers can be heard frequently here of late, as result of a wave of enthusiasm for "le jazz hot" which has swept Paris. Unknown a year ago, the snappy rhythms and phonograph records of Duke Ellington, Louis Armstrong, the Blue Rhythm Boys and other famous Negro bands, are now the rage of the French Capital. At the rate things are going now, there will be hardly a single French school boy unfamiliar with "Kicking the Gong Around" and other jazz classics out of "Hot Harlem."

thought by all concerned that the organization will be in full sway of organizing not later than October 1st with an office, executive secretary and telephone for the purpose of securing correct data as to our pro-rata of employment, as a group from the organizations that we support by taxation and are forced to support by the right of franchise. The president, Dr. G. B. Lennox, and the Chairman of the Executive Board, Mr. C. C. Galloway expect to begin work on getting our pro-rata for employment from the Utilities Board and the Board of Education at the earliest possible convenient time. This group of men are asking all loyal red-blooded citizens to cooperate with them in providing a propaganda that will educate the above concerns as to the injustice done our group in not giving our girls and boys an opportunity to earn an honest living from the sources where we are forced to pay in operating expenses.

Book Review

"NICODEMUS AND HIS LITTLE SISTER" by Inez Hogan

(E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc. N. Y. City) This little book is for the kiddies. In story form and illustrations it is prepared especially for them. Each story and incident is amusingly illustrated in black and white sketches with a goodly portion of red, presumably the favorite color of Negroes, worked in. Nicodemus is a raggedy, barefoot little boy, and his little baby sister, who is also raggedly and barefoot, with hair that seems to sprout from her head like needles, is turned over to Nicodemus to watch, while the mother is busy with her tubs and clothes. According to the illustrations both of these youngsters are coal-scuttle brunettes.

Nicodemus has quite a time taking care of his little sister. As long as he holds her hands she is all right but the moment he lets go of her she is constantly getting into some trouble and Nicodemus is forever busy freeing his little sister from the ire of billy goats; runaway go-carts; wild bears; and old-fashioned country well-sweeps.

Of course, Nicodemus loves his little sister, which is clearly shown by the chances he takes in rescuing his sister after he invariably lets her get away from his control at odd moments. The antics of these two kids as told and illustrated by Inez Hogan will bring much laughter and amusement to many other little kiddies.

WOMEN'S INSURANCE COMPANY LICENSE REVOKED IN MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss.—(CNS)—George D. Riley, Mississippi State commissioner of insurance last week revoked the license of the Columbian Woodmen Union Life Insurance Company of Hot Springs, Arkansas, to do business in the State. Commissioner Riley said he had cancelled the company license and those held by its agents in the State because of unsatisfactory judgments now existing in the State against the company. These totaled $30,000 he estimated. A reinsurance agreement has been entered into by the concern with the Universal Life Insurance Company of Memphis to protect the interests of policyholders. The agreement, already approved by the Arkansas insurance commissioner is subject to the approval of the Tennessee commissioner. This 164 page book consists of

Respect for Parents Another "Lost Art" by R. A. Adams

(The Literary Service Bureau) It is sad enough for children to neglect their parents, impose on them, use what they need for their old age, but it is infinitely sadder and more contemptible for them to be lacking in respect for them and insult and humiliate them. Yes, mother is illiterate. She will persist in saying "I done it" and "I had went", but the best in her was given to and for your education. Perhaps father has not yet overcome the habit of eating with his knife, but those old habits are calloused from holding the plow, the saw, or some other implement, or from carrying the hod, in order that his children might make advancement. In these cases, sneering, mocking ridicule are worse even than neglect. Often children say to their parents, "You did," "I didn't,"
