LINCOLN, NEBRASKA NEWS

Loretta Swannigan, Reporter
Mrs. Vashti Mosby entertained at a foursome last Wednesday afternoon at her beautiful home on Rose Street. Bridge was played with Mrs. Alma Wiley winning the highest score. Mrs. Mosby served a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Cicero Johnson entertained with a bridge foursome at her beautiful home last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Loretta S. Swannigan winning highest score. Mrs. J. Johnson served a delicious luncheon.

The play The Mother of Men given by Mrs. Marie Ruggs captain of Club No. 10 for Quinn Chapel Church was presented to a nice audience, Friday night at the Church. Too much can't be said of this play. It was dramatized by Mrs. Anna Ray and directed by Mrs. Blanche Johnson, assisted by her talented daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Dean. Each member of the cast was very good, because this talented Lady has really been places and knows how.

The Urban League was established last Thursday evening at the beautiful Elk's Rest. A group of prominent citizens met and temporarily established an Urban League. Mr. Millard Woods was elected temporary chairman and Mrs. Florence Blooah was elected temporary secretary. Mr. Millard Woods is a young man of splendid character, born and raised in Lincoln, graduated from the Lincoln

This participation has done much to stimulate interest on the part of householders to beautify certain neighborhoods, according to J. Harvey Kerns, Executive Sec'y. of the Omaha Urban League. The plans outlined Wednesday evening called for block captains in every neighborhood to see that some improvements were made on each yard project. The committee will also interest itself in ridding the community of dilapidated shacks and will put forth special efforts to have painting and cleaning done by householders.

The Urban League is distributing free literature on various phases of garden projects which were furnished by the University of Nebraska, Dep't. of Agriculture. Other members of the committee are: E. R. West, R. T. Jowers, E. C. Copeland, Ethel Diamond, Henry Bid- dix, Frank Cole, Rob't Jackson, H. G. Anderson and Walter Craig.

High also the State University, taught school two years in Phoenix, Arizona, and is surely qualified for this position. Lincoln looks forward to this young man doing great things in the future and I am sure Millard will make good if he gets the cooperation of each and every citizen. Mrs. Florence Blooah is a graduate of the State University, also North Western University at Chicago. She is a young lady of splendid character and just the young lady to assist Mr. Woods in carrying out his program. My prayer a loyal support goes with both these young people.

Mrs. Frank Swannigan entertained at an eightsome Saturday evening when Mrs. Gene Edwards is around. Mrs. Edwards has that way of winning friends by always being jolly and congenial.

Mrs. Gladys Miller is in a hospital for observation.

Mrs. Frank Parks who has been in the hospital quite ill, is now home.

The Rev. Mr. Burwell, pastor of Quinn Chapel, A. M. E. church, preached his last sermon of the conference year, Sunday, Oct. 2nd. Mr. Burwell has done splendid work since coming to our city and we hope to see him back for at least another year.

Rev. and Mrs. Farmer of Grand Island will start a fifteen day Revival beginning Monday night, Oct. 3rd, at the Numan Church, 23rd and S. The public is cordially invited to come out and take part in these meetings.

TOM LINCOLN'S WEDDING OUTFIT

ANCY HANKS, mother of Abraham Lincoln, had reason to feel proud of her well-groomed Junebridegroom, Thomas Lincoln, when the two were married by the Rev. Jesse Head in the home of Richard Berry in Elizabethtown, Ky. 126 years ago in June.

Thee has recently come to light, reports Dr. Louis A. Warren of the Lincoln National Life Foundation, the old account book of Slenky and Montgomery, merchants in Elizabethtown, where Thomas Lincoln did his trading in preparing for his wedding day. The book shows that he had to his credit in the store at the time he began buying material for his wedding apparel, about 49 pounds. While the pound may have been worth something less than $5 at that time, his credit with this firm "one must have amounted to about $200.

The year before he had paid $2.77 for a new hat, and $2.19 for a pair of suspenders. Then in May, 1823, the month before his wedding, he made purchases totaling $112.70, which included such items as "Cassimere," thread, buttons, tape, etc. As was the prevailing custom of his day, this merchandise was worked up for him by an Elizabethtown tailor into a pair of clothes made specially for his occasion.
