Dear Editor, C. C. Galloway:—

The current issue of your paper has been read with a great deal of pleasure by me. I was deeply interested in your editorial under the caption, "Good Investment" and I hope that every Negro will read it. I was also interested in "Why the Negro should divide his vote on National issues" by Kelley Miller. This is what he should have done all along.

The Negro is disfranchised in the south for no other reason than he did not have political sense like the Jew the Irishman and other people. He constantly voted against the people with whom he had to live, so I am not arguing the right and wrong of this but I am accounting for why it was done. The Negro has never had any real political sense. He can be counted upon to be an asinine fool in politics and religion. In religion he wants everything after death. In politics he wants a cigar, a drink of bad liquor and the privilege of running a pool room or gambling den. The Jew and the Irishman are just as religious as the Negro, but they want something on earth, therefore they vote for whoever is in power, until that party refuses to give them the things they desire, then they vote against that party, and for another party.

I was particularly interested in your editorial "Lest We Forget". I think it was timely and shows that your paper is beginning to teach the Negro some political sense. The NAACP questionnaire, asking for and laying down the demand for eleven distinct and definite things was also good.

I was particularly interested in the platform of the Omaha Guide, "locally" and I am in agreement with the floor threw a few bombshells at the opposing party—their hood-wink policies—the attitude of the Districts disillusioned Republicans (as he calls them)—scoffed at those who believed that Roosevelt would not live his term out, about Garner—then asked if Curtis wasn't a Southerner? Told of the Republican Party being contaminated by Lily White's of the South, segregation—the attempt to appointment of Judge Parker, etc. Praised Ed. R. Burke. Praised Bryan for reducing the taxes in the State. A stone at Griswold. After this obnoxious speech, he introduced Francis P. Matthews, chairman of the D. C. C. C. headquarters. Matthews praised Owen, Woods, and Leland and members. Promised fair play—Burke. Then came Siamon A. Simon from the executive Men's League, asked the members to vote for Roosevelt and Burke. Then came Joseph Bren, Candidate for State Senator, saying a lot in a few words. The Literary Digest straw vote shows that Franklin D. Roosevelt has carried 41 states with 474 Electoral to Hoover 7 states and fifty-seven electoral votes.

Race Relations In Georgia

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 24.—The Negroes of the South are making encouraging gains in education, health, increase in life span, provision of public benefits, protection by the courts, and political recognition, but probably losing in the field of employment and economic security, according to a survey of recent trends in race relations just issued for general distribution by the Commission on Interracial Cooperation, with headquarters here. Among the favorable trends observed, the improvement of educational facilities is noted as the most important and encouraging, indicating, according to the Commission, "a growing sense of responsibility for Negro education and of confidence in its value."

The inclusion of the needs of Negroes in community chest budgets and their participation in chest campaigns illustrate another important trend, according to the Commission—the increasing recognition of Negroes as an essential element in the community, both as assets and as liabilities. The same trend is indicated also in better service to Negroes at the hands of official welfare agencies.

The health of Negroes, according to the survey, has shown remarkable improvement in recent years, with a substantial decrease in the death rate and a gain of five years in the average life span. However, it is pointed out that Negro mortality is still abnormally high. Hospital facilities are showing some improvement, but are still sadly inadequate, particularly in smaller towns.

The survey indicates that the Negro's general standing in the courts is steadily improving and his chance of getting justice becoming "less spasmodic and uncertain." The fall in the lynching record, from an average of one hundred victims a year for the forty-year period ending in 1921 to the recent annual level of ten or twelve, is pointed out as another great gain and as indicating a determined purpose to end mob violence. It is stated, however, that there are still sections in which the Negro has little standing in the courts and little protection at the hands of the law.

The principle of interracial cooperation, according to the Commission, is being widely and spontaneously adopted in many forms of community and group activity. This method, first demonstrated by the cooperative agencies set up by the Commission, is being accepted widely, it is said, as the normal way of dealing with situations involving the interest of both races.

The most unfavorable trend pointed out in the report is in the economic field, where Negroes of late apparently have been losing ground. This, according to the Commission, appears to be chiefly the result of general economic conditions which have sharpened the competition for jobs. The Negro, constituting the marginal industrial group, has apparently been the greater sufferer, with group competition along racial lines added to personal competition. In spite of the seriousness of this situation for Negroes the Commission points out as notable the fact that industrialist communist propaganda among them has had so little apparent effect. This conservative attitude on the part of Negroes and the comparative absence of hysteria on the part of white people in the face of communist activity are both distinctly encouraging, according to the report.

TO DO IT RIGHT

A few words concerning our two State Representatives, Dr. John A. Singleton and John Adams Jr., Atty., these Republican candidates should be elected from their districts as state representatives for this term, because I think that these two candidates will gain more inspiration and learn more about the conditions of the People and State affairs. They Should Be Elected this term—So We Should Sidetrack on Tribe Ways. Wake up out of our sleep and not be as the heathen, use common sense as true born civilized American Citizens, and inhabitants of a city which has full municipal and Political privileges, for its qualified citizens. Now we must unite our politics to one solid foundation in a true Christian religious way, for the trials to come in the future. Stand up for what is right if you want to do something for your candidates. Do It Right. Give good and honest work it never pays to shirk, vote the right way for these two candidates.

WHO IS SENATOR JAMES C. RODMAN?

(By O. J. Burckhardt)

The Nebraska Legislature has had at least two substantial friends to the Race Group, in her halls for the past dozen years. In the person of Senator James C. Rodman and John W. Cooper. These two men have stood on the right side of all problems that have come up in the legislature regarding the rights of the race. Senator Rodman fought for the rights of the race in the Constitutional Convention. He and Senator Cooper stood back of the late Fred Barnett on the Anti-Lynch Bill and helped him put it over big. Mr. Rodman, candidate for Senator has proven his friendship in the past by his conduct. When our Mr. Barnett ran for the Legislature, was "counted out" by the Election Board a couple years ago, Mr. Rodman voluntarily came to Barnett's rescue and put up the cash to pay for Barnett's contest. Both of these men have for years seen to it that the Senate had her pro-rata of employees during the Legislature periods. Every thoughtful Race Man in their respective Districts will give them a vote. I am sure.

RADIO Stage AND Screen

AT THE RITZ, NOV. 1, 2, 3.

TIGER THE VILLAIN OF "BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE"

Frank Buck, author, adventurer and wild animal maestro whose camera record of his own book, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," is the latest screen sensation, claims that the man-eating tiger who is the villain of his jungle drama will make all the hard-working badmen of the movies green with envy when they see him fight his way through the RKO. Radio picture made by the Van Beuren Expedition.

This ferocious jungle beast whose sole concern is today's dinner, acts and fights with rare unconcern. He has no managers, no publicity men, no assistants and no doubles. He wrote the piece, plays the star part, and directs himself. All his lines are impromptu, with no regard for the cameraman's feelings. During the course of the picture he lists among his adversaries a giant crusher python, a twenty-foot crocodile, a neat but not gaudy black panther and a bull water buffalo.

Before he was run down and brought to book by Buck and his assistants he had attempted homicide four times, suicide twice and murder, mayhem and highway robbery too many times to try to keep track of. "Bring 'Em Back Alive," directed by Clyde E. Elliott, comes to the RITZ THEATRE, on NOV. 1, 2, 3rd.

to him in a world which jostles him about unmindful of his tender years.

In addition to these features the boys' band which is always a favorite with friends, and the boys' chorus present several numbers each Sunday. More than 35 boys take part in the program. Every Sunday at 1 o'clock over Station KFAB in Omaha.

POLITICIANS STAGE FIGHT

(By C. Homer Burdette)
Rev. Geo. Kitchen free lance preacher, Republican leader, and head of the Republican headquarters at 1210 So. 13th St., was claimed to have been displeased with the obedience of a lower official in the headquarters. On Saturday, Oct. 15, Herbert McGee's servitude became a bit involuntary after Rev. Kitchen refused to give him his share of the income. Seeking, both revenge and pay, McGee took his case to the Republican Central Committee, here he received pay. On the day after, when Hubert arrived at the headquarters, Rev. Kitchen told him in that harsh way, that his services were no longer desired, McGee speaking still harsher claimed that Kitchen couldn't discharge him. One word led to another, then came the war. Kitchen timidly struck McGee on the arm. "What's this, McGee jumped behind an elderly spectator, foul words are flying in all directions. Kitchen is trying to get at McGee. Bong, Bong, the bell, the end of round, "Here comes the law" some one yelled and Rev. Kitchen made a record breaking dash up an alley in nothing flat. Kitchen's trail was elusive and our honorable police force couldn't find him. The aftermath of the row brought about the appointment of the honest and ever competent Ed. Turner as the skipper of the Thirteenth Street Elephant Club. Kitchen showed physical supremacy over a Democrat here not so long ago.
