At 8 p. m. the pastor brought us a telling message on the present world conditions, and how the church world is being affected by it. Sunday we are having a coal Rally, we hope all of the members may be present, and get in on the Rally. We are always glad to see our friends in our services. The Standard Bearers met at the home of Mrs. Charley Pankey, 2424 Blondo, Monday evening. ### BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH

29th and T Streets
Rev. J. H. Jackson, Pastor
On last Sunday Morning at 11 o'clock, a most inspiring message was brought to us by Dr. H. Q. Morton, Executive Secretary of the Nebraska Baptist Convention. Using as a text St. John 17:19, "And For Their Sakes" Dr. Morton made a strong appeal for the Kingdom of God. Quite a large audience heard him. Many visitors were present, among them being Mrs. Morton, the wife of the minister who spoke. They both expressed their appreciation for the visit and the work being done by the members of our church.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, about 600 people heard Miss Willa Hayes, in a piano recital given in our church auditorium. Miss Hayes is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hayes of 625 So. 18th St. To say that she is a talented pianist is to put it mildly. She showed skill and technique throughout the program. Those who heard her readily agree that she is an accomplished young artist. Although her rendition of "Juba Dance", by Dett was perfect, she received the most hearty encore when she so beautifully played, "Valse Arabesque" by Lack. Miss Hayes made a very beautiful picture as she was seated at the "Grand" piano, donated through the courtesy of the Schmoller & Mueller Co. She was assisted by Miss Ethel Hughes, of our church. Miss Hughes possesses a sweet soprano voice, and Sunday evening she seemed at her best. Her master pieces, "The Voice In The Old Village Choir" and "Sing! Sing! Birds On The Wing," were most successfully done. Miss Hughes was accompanied by the pianist of our church, Miss Addie Foxall. The ease and grace which are always with Miss Foxall at the piano were demonstrated by her Sunday evening.

Grace Newsome, Bride
Following the Recital, two of our young people were joined in wedlock. The bride before her marriage was Miss Grace Newsome. The groom, Mr. J. C. Collins is at present the Recording Secretary of our church. Miss Addie Foxall, as Maid of Honor, and Mr. Ellis Herbert, as Best Man were the only attendants. The bridal party marched into the church as Miss Mildred Alston softly played the wedding march. The pastor officiated.

BOOSTERS NOTES

M. E. Webb, reporter

The St. John's Booster Club has ever to live up to its name. Boosting, through the fourteen years of its existence, has been its chief business. In season and out, the Club has stuck religiously to the task of putting St. John Church on the map financially, intellectually and otherwise. Nor has it forgotten its spiritual and moral obligations to the Church and the Community. One of the Club's most cherished hobbies is that of making happy the Ministers and their wives who have served the Church. Last Wednesday night, October 19th, when the Reverend and Mrs. Wilson were the Club's honored guests at a farewell party, was no exception to the rule. We are just fashioned that way. To be on hand when things are going well is not enough. The Booster club has come to the rescue of each Pastor at its darkest hour. The Home of Miss Lucas and Mrs. Bailey has always been open for our affairs. In his remarks, Reverend Wilson recalled that his welcome and farewell parties were held under the same roof. The evening was spent in glorification and the presentation of a program consisting of remarks by Mrs. Rachel Woods, our Vice-President, solos by Mesdames Houston and Starns and Miss Cuma Watson, readings by Mesdames Bailey and Shackelford. Desiring not to be left off the program, a quintet consisting of Messrs Shackelford, Strawthers, Anthony, McVay and Webb, harmonized some old, familiar melodies. Mrs. Woods aptly put it that we did not come to celebrate the departure of Rev. and Mrs. Wilson, but rather to pay tribute to them for the work they had done while stationed here. And this we believe is the spirit which should characterize every club and member of St. John Church. For after all we serve God, not the minister. We are putting the program over for the Church not the Pastor. In their remarks, Rev. and Mrs. Wilson thanked the Boosters for the cooperation given them and extended an invitation to the club to visit them at their new appointment. The menu was chicken, salad, potato chips, hot rolls, coffee, ice cream, and cake. Besides the regular club members those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Starns, Mesdames Georgia Cropp, Willie Green, McVay, and Butler, Mr. Anthony and little Louise Sampson and Lawrence Parker. By suggestion of Mrs. L. L. McVay all present joined hands and sang, "God be with you till we meet again", and the party was over. M. E. Webb, reporter.

NINE CANDIDATES APPROVED BY BAR ASSOCIATION FOR DISTRICT JUDGESHIPS

Seventy-five prominent lawyers of the fourth district held a dinner meeting at the Rome Hotel Friday night to make final plans for the election of the nine candidates endorsed by the Lawyers Recommendation committee, after a referendum taken by lawyers of the fourth judicial district, several months ago.

The candidates who were endorsed are Judges Redick, Hastings, Leslie, Rhoades, Thomsen, Fitzgerald, Dineen, Deputy County Attorney Yeager and J. T. Dysart. Most of the candidates were present at the meeting.

Louis J. TePoel, manager of the Lawyers' Recommendation campaign presided at the dinner and the speakers were Paul L. Martin, Frank H. Gaines and former Judge Fred A. Wright.

"Good judges of proven ability are a protection to the people," said Gaines. "It is necessary for the voter to know the qualifications of those contact with judges and fellow lawyers, seeking judicial office, every day. For the protection of their clients and to assure justice in the courts, lawyers should inform the general public of whom they consider best judicial calibre. We as lawyers have no selfish motive in urging that the voters select the best fitted judicial candidates."

"Undermine our courts and you undermine the very foundations of our government," said Judge Wright. "I believe lawyers have the right and duty to tell the public what they know regarding judicial candidates. Some men are naturally poor judges because of temperament or bias. I believe the community at large has enough faith in the reputable lawyers of the community to heed their advice regarding the best fitted candidates for judge."

Paul L. Martin, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce executive committee, explained how the lawyers of the district arrived at the selection of the Lawyers' Recommendation slate, after a secret ballot. He told of the campaign being carried on to elect these nine candidates.

While the dinner was in session, those present heard Harley Moorhead, treasurer of the campaign committee, speak over KOIL. He said in part: "In proposing these nine candidates, we are not attempting to dictate to the voters. We only wish to perform a service to the public to bring about more intelligent voting for candidates for district judge."

"I can say without reservation that lawyers of the district in passing the information on to voters regarding these nine candidates are doing so with the unselfish desire of obtaining the election of the best possible judges. In defining the word best, I mean those who have the qualifications of honesty and integrity, fair learning in the law, common sense, experience in the practice of law, impartiality, patience, and willingness to work. Freedom from politics and from political friends seeking favors is another prerequisite."

Moorhead warned voters of the district against "guessing as to qualifications and voting on a name that sounds familiar."

EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW A REALITY

Robert R. Troyer as Public Defender has made Equality Before the Law a reality, and not just a theory, for the people entitled to the services of his office. That is the opinion of national investigators who made a survey of Public Defender's offices and other legal agencies throughout the country.

The legal aid committee of the Chicago Bar Association in their nationwide survey reported to the association that "The Nebraska (Douglas County) office has proven highly satisfactory, and stands in high repute among all factions of the community. Troyer entered the Public Defender's office four years ago, when the office was little known in the county. He has made citizens realize the importance of such an office, especially during times of economic depression. His success has been earned at a cost of days and nights of hard work in fulfillment of his duties. The only guarantee that voters have that these policies will be continued is through his re-election, Troyer believes.

"I want to be re-elected on my past record," Troyer declares. "I believe that is far more convincing to the voters of Douglas County than mere election promises."

Monday night, Oct. 31, Atty. Thos. A. Hollister addressed a large and appreciative audience of 200 at No. Side Republican Headquarters, urging the election of Republican Ticket County, State and National, Dr. J. A. Singleton and Atty. J. Adams candidates for State Legislature from 9th and 10th Districts spoke. Joe Rosenbloom candidate for State Senate, Mr. R. Shea and Jack Baldwin spoke for Congressman Mac Baldrige.

EDW. R. BURKE FOR CONGRESS

EDWARD R. BURKE

Indications are that the colored voters of Omaha are voting for Governor Roosevelt for President, Governor Bryan for Governor and Edward R. Burke for Congress in large numbers. Burke has an outstanding record as a public servant of Omaha and even right now, he is endorsing the Omaha Guide's fight to get proper representation of the Colored tax payers on the public pay roll.

Burke contends that colored employees should have the same percentage of public jobs as they pay taxes.

Burke also believes that the ex-soldier who fought for the country when the country needed them and who are now hungry, should now be allowed to borrow money on their insurance policies. Burke says that needy soldiers should be given their soldiers bonus. Big business gets all the money it wants from the government when it is in want and now when the soldiers who risked their life for the government, make a request for help, it is denied them by the republican president and the republican congressman.

Burke is also for the repeal of the 18th amendment. He says that the only way prosperity can be returned is by giving the farmer better prices for their products and more work to the working man and that the only way this can be done is to use the farmers grain for making liquors and give the working man a job in the factory which will open up as soon as the 18th amendment is repealed.

Burke has a record of being particularly fair to colored voters. He has an excellent record as president of the Omaha School Board, president of the Omaha Bar Association and president of the Omaha ten year plan. Many believe he will lead the democratic ticket.

"Maxie Miller Writes"

(for advice, write to Maxie Miller, care of The Literary Service Bureau, 516 Minnesota Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas. For personal reply send self addressed, stamped envelope.)
(The Literary Service Bureau)

Maxie Miller: Do you think a husband has the right to open and read his wife's letters? If so, hasn't she the same right to read his? My husband says it is different. He opens my letters but raises the devil if I open his. Please tell me what you think about it. I have submitted to this for quite a while, but I'm tired of it now, and I told him so. What is your opinion concerning this?—Indulgent Wife.

Indulgent Wife: Justice and fair play are on your side of the question. I am on your side, too. Neither should open and read the letters of the other without knowledge and consent. There should be nothing in a husband's mail or in a wife's mail, that the other could not read, but it is a personal affair, and neither one has the right to impose on the other. I advise that you give your husband due warning. Tell him you will not stand it any longer, and that you will open his letters if he continues to open yours. Give him this dose of his own medicine, and I warrant you it will "cure him from sucking eggs".

Communist to Meet

The communist party will hold a mass meeting in Ahamo Hall, 21st & Cuming St., Monday, Nov. 7th at 8 P. M. To celebrate the 15th anniversary of the Russian Revolution and the successful building of socialism under the famous "Five Year Plan" of planned economy where unemployment, illiteracy, race prejudice, and most of the ills of the tyrannical capitalist rule of the Tsar have been eliminated.

Under the rule of the Soviets all national minorities are on an equal footing, irrespective of color, race, or creed. There equality is not only preached but practiced. There the standard of living of the toiling masses are rapidly rising, while here in the richest country in the world the workers and farmers are being reduced to absolute slavery and serfdom.

We hope that the workers and sympathizers, Negro and White who see in the Soviet Union a shining hope for a future world when race prejudice, discrimination, jim-crowism, and all the other ills of a money mad society will be banished from the face of the globe, and all nationalities will live in harmony just as they do in the Soviet Union.

Come to this meeting Monday night and learn more about Soviet Russia and the Communist Movement. The speakers will link this up with the election campaign, and emphasize the necessity of unity between the Negro and White Workers in the Desperate struggles confronting us this winter.

Don't let this word Communist scare you. Come and find out what it is all about. We have just as much right to be Communists as Hoover and Roosevelt have to be Republican or Democrat.

Admission is 15c but don't let that keep you away either, because no one will be turned away.

George Stalker, Organizer.
