Clubs--

HAPPY HOUR BRIDGE CLUB

The club met with Mrs. M. Bailey. The evening was spent in playing Bridge. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. M. Griffin and Mr. C. Davis. Visitor Mr. Frank Moore. The hostess served a delightful repast.

THE MYSTERY CLUB

"The Mystery Club" seems to have that swing. It don't mean a thing for them to have a nice little sick committee with Mrs. Eva Thompson as chairman, Mrs. Lillie Thomas and Mrs. Pearl Farmer as her assistants. Hello World! keep your eyes open and watch for the startling announcement of the big floor show to be given by the talent, members of this great club. Perhaps you will see the "Inkwell Sisters", the "Rumba Queen" the little girl who tops on so many toes, Earl Hines, Snake Hips, and last but not least old king Zepa, himself.

Who's that club got that makes people think they are so hot? It's got me some and I can't stand it. If I do, Skippy. If your curiosity is stirred and your emotions beyond control, learn more and think nothing of it at the home of Mrs. Alma White, Saturday evening 2885 Ohio. Francis Patterson, Reporter.

THE FLAPPERETTE CLUB

The Flapperette Club met at the home of Miss Mable King, president, Friday afternoon, August 25th, at 2866 Corby Street, where the young hostess entertained other guests. Dainty refreshments were served and they played games danced and played cards. The club members are: Misses Mable King, Olive Willis, Mary Ellen Britt, Elizabeth Black, Edna Blair, Rowena Jones and Nellie Robertson, sponsor. The guests were: Messrs. Robert Hill, Edwin Riggs, Leonard Turner, honored guest, Chrisman Clark and Jimmy Madden, an honored guest of Chicago, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Millard Singleton.

Colored United Civic Club of South Omaha held a picnic for the benefit of the Community Home at Jetter's Grove last Friday, August 26. The picnic was a decided success. We wish to extend thanks to all of our friends and co-workers and especially do we appreciate the splendid cooperation shown us in this effort.

"Town Talk"

We are glad to see our model lovers showing some signs of reconciliation. "It is an ill wind that blows no good," isn't it David?

Will Gilfred King please tell us why he walked across 28th Street whistling "Sleepy Time Down South"? Willa didn't have anything to do with it did she?

Girls if you ever want a Soda, we recommend "Compy" Williams. He seems to make that a habit. But girls you will have to wait your turn and you all come after Helen.

We beg of Adolph to be more careful whose car he steals to take his favorite "Torch" for a ride. Especially if it is raining.

Whenever Joe L. has had a wee bit to much, he gets love sick ad croons to a lamp post. Sompin tells us that there must be a woman in the case. Am I right Joe?

"I don't like her, but she's on Rubber" didn't we hear Horace W. say something like that the other day? Who has Horace been rushing that's on Rubber? We wonder?

Will someone please ask Robert (Fluffy) Jackson who the queer person was that he came to the Matinee Dance with Sunday before last? Let us hope that association does not bring on assimilation. Or at least not in this case.

Someone told Lewis White that he was a good Tennis player. He is a tennis player, but after a fashion someone told us.

Leonard H. tries to make us think he was playing when he cuts in on his girl-friends dances on Sundays. But we know better. Don't we Chris?

Toots and Ralph should not play hide and go seek at parties. Especially if they are both going to hide.

George McGee has gone Juvenile and is seen making frequent visits at Omaha Tech. His interest in those young children is only in a brotherly way. That's what George told us.

Miss Margaret Dallas is back in town we notice and Mr. Richie is trying his hand again. That's right Marcellus, you know that saying about "If at first you don't succeed."

Who is the little Drug Store boy that insists upon turning flips for the young lady on Miami Street Ask the young lady?

Have they got Edward A., you know the preacher's son in between. Sophisticated lady is back in town and dizzy has never gone any place. So whats that young fellow to do?

We don't think Susie Whiteside like the idea of her boy-friend playing around so much. This is just a hint to the boy-friend.

The car was pretty Jabo, but the girls weren't so hot. And after all cars aren't everything. Are they Reda?

They tell us that Mabel King's party was a success. But Eddie Bid-die is still wondering why he wasn't invited.
