CLAIR CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH
Rev. W. C. Conwell, Pastor
Georgia Goosby, Reporter

Our sunrise Easter service, from 5:30-6:30, spiritually charged our very beings. Two joined hands with God and us. Happy to have welcomed Quack Girls' visit.

Our pastor reproved and admonished us through Prov. 22:6, text "Parents Duty to Children." We as parents or potential parents mean to put our shoulder to the wheel as never before, that our little ones may grow up as blessings rather than a curse. Five of our young girls were confirmed; three small children baptized and five of our little ones christened. We can't recall just now, a day like Easter Sunday. The children's lovely program at night and Mrs. Magnolia Hilly as our singing us with such hidden talent in our future church and community small folk. The pageant "Inheritance," played by twenty grownups, was very courteously received. Much credit was due Mrs. Goosby for her untiring efforts from time to time. Two more joined with us, adding the more to our joy, the day now being over.

Come often and worship with us: make yourself at home, always.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH

Mrs. Willie Varner, Reporter

Due to the absence of some of the main characters, the Easter play was omitted at 6:00 a. m. Easter morning. This was the first time such incident has occurred in the history of the church. Everyone seemed to enjoy the sermon brought to us by the pastor, whose subject was "The Risen Christ." At 11:00 a. m. the spirit-tide was high. The lesson was found in Genesis 45:7, "And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance," subject, "God's Life-Saver." After the sermon, two children were christened.

At 6:00 p. m., the Sunday school children held their program, program, which was enjoyed by all. At 8:00 p. m. the choir was marching down the aisles. A large attendance witnessed the night's lesson from Gen. 50:15, subject, "Love the List Station."

We are working hard to have the church in order for June 17th. We appreciate your cooperation and the wonderful help given us throughout the erecting of our new church.

Again we welcome you to any or all of our services.

CLEAVES' TEMPLE C. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. D. W. Bass, Pastor
Mrs. Henryetta Makins, Reporter

Now the weeping's over, He has been crucified, dead, buried and arisen; gone home to His Father for whom He came to earth to bring about a reconciliation. The arbitrator was made; the Arbitrator has gone, but promised to send us a Comforter, a keeping power. Are we in His keeping? Will not have Him with us now, but He will come back to judge the quick and the dead; to collect our talents; to receive those that have kept the faith. Will we be found doubting as Thomas who was called Didymus in last Sunday's lesson? Sunday school was well attended. Many new faces. Haywood Taylor, ass't. superintendent, in charge.

The pastor spoke for the Junior church. Robert Jackson was baptized and given the "hand of fellowship" in this service.

The 11:00 a. m. service was well attended. The pastor took his text from Cor. 15-21. The Junior choir sang.

At 3:00 p. m., the Sunday school had its Easter program with the Junior choir furnishing the music. Every class was well represented. Eggs were given to all.

To the sick we recommend Eph. 3:16, That He would grant you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man.

Our thought for the week: Matt. 8:17, "We unto the world because of offences, for it must needs be that offences come; but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh."

The Loyal Matron club met this week; with Mrs. Ludié Thomas, 2802 Ohio street.

Palms were used as a background. Easter eggs and potted plants were grouped to make a wonderful setting for the Light of Jesus, which was represented by the illuminated light, the sun, which showed through the the palms. The cross was placed in the center, giving out a soft light, making it a wonderful sight. Mr. Harold Reynolds was chairman of the Decoration Committee. We wish to thank Mr. Reynolds. This program was conducted entirely by the young people. Mrs. Hallie Johnson was the chairman of this program. Her assistants were Misses Carol, Sutherland, Height, Uptner and Warrick. Each class in the Sunday school had its bit to do also. We cannot express the beauty of this program. CHURCH OF GOD

Katie Johnson, Reporter

Sunday school opened at the usual hour, conducted by Supt. Joe Eddens. The lesson was "John's Recollection of the Risen Lord," John 20:1-21:25, after which a wonderful lecture was given by Elder Spaght. An Easter program, rendered by the school, conducted by Naomi Johnson, was enjoyed.

At evening worship, the sermon was preached by Elder Spaght, subject, "Are We Risen With Christ," Col. 3-1. Are we willing to suffer as Christians for Jesus, He being our example, and a perfect one, was accused, wore a crown of thirty-nine thorns upon his head, bore His own cross for our transgressions and died on the cross. He laid us an example that we should follow in His steps, who did sin, neither was aguilé found in His mouth. Let us, as Christians, not worship Christ on Easter alone, but worship Him every day in the beauty of Holiness. The question was asked in the sermon, "Are you risen with Christ?"
Come and worship with us.
