Anderson is president; Mrs. M. Burns, reporter.

ALOHA CLUB

Members of the ever popular Aloha club are this week boasting of the delightful dance they staged last Thursday evening at the beautiful Dreamland ballroom. That the affair was every bit enjoyable was the sentiment of 300 or more guests who topped the light fantastic toe until the wee hours of morning.

The gaiety and genial hospitality always felt at the Aloha club dances, has never been more pronounced than that displayed by members of the Aloha club on last Thursday evening.

With the ballroom aglow with soft lights and green ferns, which made a beautiful setting the guests of the Aloha club danced to the swing tunes of Harrolds orchestra.

The out-of-town guests introduced by the president, Mr. Black, during the intermission were as follows: Wm. Stewart, Red Oak, Ia.; Maurice Keene, Red Oak, Ia.; Miss Eula Johnson, Des Moines, Ia.; Mr. W. E. Clark, Greensboro, N. C.; V. Washington, Lincoln, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. West, Lincoln, Neb.; Miss D. E. Stewart, Ashville, N. C.; Mr. Rimmer, Chicago, Ill.; Miss Wade, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. Thos. Wilson, St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Rucker, Mineral Wells, Tex.; William Roberts, New York City; and Mrs. Tug Wilson, Des Moines, Ia.

The junior boys of Albright were organized into a baseball league. There are six teams with 12 boys on each team, making a total of 72 boys in all. The teams are as follows: Gold Ware Boosters, Albright Boosters, Albright Cardinals, Brown Park Sluggers, Omaha Aces, Highland Hill Wildcats and Albright Pirates. The Highland Hill Wildcats is an all-Negro team and the Albright Pirates is composed of both Negroes and whites. These teams are, in reality, organized gangs, which provide a means to place the wild bunch of boys under supervision. There are certain age limits too. There are two distinct groups of children, one of which is made up of the boys who are fourteen years old, and the other made up of the boys who are seventeen years old. The older group is not allowed to play with the younger group. Mr. Charles Stewart, Scout Master, of So. Omaha, stated the organization of our boys into such a group would enable them to appear on the high school teams. It has been quite noticeable that the high schools are closing the doors to baseball to the Negroes, and it is possible that the Negroes have not been altogether ready to play on the teams but through these organized gangs, Mr. Stewart hopes that the boys will become prepared to play on their high school teams.

Miss Ersie Mae Hayden was honored at a party on her fifteenth birthday given by her twin brothers at the home of her parents, 2509 Burdette street. Arrangements for the party were made by Mrs. Hayden, Misses Emma McCants, Leeta Ellington, and Harriet Morton. Of the games played, monopoly was the most enjoyed. Refreshments were served. The guest list included Winifred Williams, Thelma Page, Charlotte Crowley, Auverne and Colleen Kincaid, Mary Session, Dorsy and Katherine Nelson, Betty Moore, Leona Edwards, Jane Ruth Stebbelfield, Delores Williams, Herbert White, Joe Ellington, Robert White, Alfred and Alfonso Hayden, Fred Crowley, John Glass, Wilbert Williams, Jack Williams, Eugene Rice, Manuel Johnson and John Autrey.

Dr. Brevis of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting in Omaha for an indefinite period of time.
