CLAIR CHAPEL M. E. CHURCH
 Rev. W. C. Oonwell, Pastor
 G. Goesby, Reporter

The Sunday School was well attended and the lesson on "Life" was very interesting; both teachers and pupils gave some wonderful thoughts. The pastor followed this lesson with a beautiful sermon from James 4-14. Subject: "What Is Your Life?" He admonished us to let God come into our lives and we would understand life more clearly. Life is as vapor, it will appear for a little while and soon vanish; therefore it is given to us to work out our soul salvation so that we may enter into the eternal joys of His love.

The captains are working very hard in our financial drive to raise $1,000. This week on the church lawn will be a carnival sponsored by two of the captains. They will appreciate seeing you.

Visitors are always welcome.

CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST

The Church of God in Christ just closed a successful convention which was in session for three days. Some of the out-of-town guests were: Bishop Musgrove and family of Tulsa, Okla.; Bishop Scott and family of Oklahoma, City; and Rev. Finer and family of Oklahoma, City. Bishop Musgrove's daughter and Miss Sparks were the pianists during the convention. Mrs. E. Smith of Tulsa, Okla., the national president of the Mission Circle, was present and organized a State Mission Board, of which Mrs. M. Wright is president. Both bishops and their families left Omaha for Kansas City for a few days visit and also to other points in the East.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

28th and Decatur Streets
 Rev. M. B. Bilbrew, Pastor
 Mrs. Minnie Bryant, Reporter

Services were very good Sunday at Salem.

The Sunday School was well attended and is growing very rapidly under the able leadership of our superintendent, Mr. John Rosebaugh.

Salem enjoyed a rare treat Sunday. The son of Mrs. M. Henderson of Dallas, Tex., and the daughter of Mrs. Carrie Wright were christened during the 11 o'clock services. Rev. Bilbrew then brought to us a powerful gospel message. His text was found in I Peter 3:27.

The B.Y.P.U. is planning an outdoor meeting some time in August. A picture will be taken of the group.

The Missionary Society will meet Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock. The lesson will be taught by our pastor.

The sick of the church are Mrs. Pearl Hunter, Mrs. Barker and Mother Kennedy. Our sympathy is with them.

Visitors are always welcome at Salem.

THE UNITED SABBATH DAY CHURCH
 Rev. M. M. Boodle, Pastor

The Sabbath school service opened at its usual time, 9:45; many were present and on time. The sermon preached by Elder Burdin was truly interesting and inspiring. Come and hear this man of God and let your soul be refreshed. Come and worship with us.

MT. NEBO CHURCH
 Rev. J. G. Gates, Pastor
 Dolly Dixon, Reporter

Mt. Nebo Sunday school opened with a large attendance. The lesson was studied for thirty minutes, and reviewed by Rev. Gates, our pastor. Morning services were enjoyed by all. A wonderful message was brought to us by our pastor. Text Eph. 6:11, "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." Subject, "If You Call Him, He Will Hear You." One visitor was present, Mrs. Evans, Church of God. Three o'clock service at Calvary Baptist church, Council Bluffs, Ia. was enjoyed by all. The Mission sisters rendered a very lively program. Evening services were omitted.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL
 Elder W. I. Irving, Pastor
 Abner Irving, Reporter

Sunday was Women's day; Sis. Gorum was in charge of the services. Sister Ester Dickson delivered the message. Subject, "Building." The message was very arousing and interesting. The rainy weather prevented evening services.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH
 Rev. M. K. Curry, Pastor

Sunday school was represented with a large number in attendance. Much interest was manifested by each group in the discussion of the lesson. The intermediate department led in both attendance and finance. At 11 o'clock, the pastor gave a wonderful message. Subject, Prov. 6:16, which was enjoyed by a large audience. The following visitors worshipped with us: Mrs. B. Johnson, Dallas, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Low, Wichita, Kas.; S. E. Jefferson, South Omaha; and many others. Due to the heavy rain which began in the early afternoon, there was neither BYPU or evening service. If you wish to hear some real inspirational sermons, come to Zion and hear Rev. M. K. Curry.

METROPOLITAN CHURCH
 Rev. R. W. Johnson, Pastor
 Mrs. W. Williams, Reporter

Sunday school opened at 9:30 Mr. Porter, our president, invites you to come to school on Sunday. Rev. Johnson is the teacher of the adult class, and he is asking that you come and be in school with the Master. At 11 o'clock, Rev. Johnson preached from St. Mark 8:34, subject: "Self Denial." At night each soul testified to the honor and glory of God. You miss a blessing when you fail to worship at the Metropolitan. On August 13th, there will be a great musical feast at the Pleasant Green Baptist church sponsored by the Metropolitan choir. The choir will sing all special numbers. Members don't fail to be present. Don't forget the date, Friday, August 13th at 8 p. m. Come early and get a seat.

Josies Summer School

Woodson Center announces the close of its eleventh annual vacation summer school Friday evening, July 23rd, beginning at 6 o'clock p. m. Games will be played on the playgrounds at 27th and U street. There will be an exhibit of classwork at 7:30 p. m. on 30th and R street. School enrollment included 61 boys and girls under the age of fourteen. The average daily attendance was forty-five.

Sing! Swing! Dance!

That Swing, Sing and Dance Orchestra will be in town soon featuring Anna Mae Winburn, the Mid-west's most popular entertainer.

BETHEL AME CHURCH
 Rev. A. Phillips, Pastor

Bethel had its usual uplifting services Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Rev. A. Phillips preached a very inspiring sermon at 11:00 o'clock. One was added to the church, and also one on last Sunday. We had no league, owing to the rain, however, we are planning a program for next Sunday evening during the league hour. We are inviting a prominent speaker for the evening; the subject will be "The Congress of the AME Youth," which met in Memphis, Tenn., in June. Come out and enjoy yourself with us. Rev. D. A. Campbell preached at 8 o'clock. We were so pleased to have him with us. Don't forget the lawn social given by the Junior Stewardess on the 28th, at 2428 Franklin street. Visitors are always welcome to Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bershears gave a cocktail party Monday evening, July 12th, honoring Mrs. Julia Johnson of Kansas City, Mo.
