Coming to Texas the 19th of this month and next month and going to find a job as good as any I will help you and you spent in this.

My friend really is he going to give me a gift, although you have to worry about the way your money will be spent. You are spending her now sweetheart so.

N. R.—Please write in your column how I can write to Jack Sharkey as I am most interested in obtaining his address? I want also to know where I can get a marriage license?

Ans: Write to Jack Sharkey, Chestnut Hill, Brookline, Mass. In order to secure a marriage license it is necessary for you to go to the County Seat or Court House in the County where your girl friend lives. There is a small fee attached to same.

M. J.—Please tell me why boys don't pay me any attention and why is a sweetheart so hard to find?

Ans: They are plentiful, but you haven't been fortunate enough to meet any of the younger fellows in your city. There isn't any need of your worrying for by the time you are eighteen years of age you will have to turn down numbers of so-called sweethearts.

A. B. S.—I am very despondent over my circumstances. Will I secure a position that will pay a

MUSIC PROJECT

The schedules of the various units of the Federal Music Project in Nebraska during Christmas week were particularly heavy ones. The Civic orchestra in Omaha played a program of music appropriate to the season daily at the Burlington depot during the hours of heavy traffic. Other concerts were also given by this orchestra, all of which were well attended.

The Colored Concert and Dance orchestra rendered programs of music daily at community and welfare centers to large and appreciative audiences.

On Wednesday the 22nd, a group of girl carolers under the direction of William Seymour of the Omaha Federal Music Project, sang a program of carols over the KOIL "Man on the Street" broadcast. On Thursday the 23rd, these singers gave half hour performances at the following institutions: Florence Old People's Home, Methodist hospital, Fontenelle Old People's Home, Immanuel hospital and St. Joseph's hospital. Their efforts were vastly enjoyed by grateful patients and inmates. On Friday morning the 24th, this same group sang carols at the Salvation Army building during the distribution of Christmas baskets to the poor; and on Saturday the 25th, they performed at the Court House and City Hall, where they were enthusiastically received by large audience.

Students of the Hadam Herms, project vocal instructor, sang excerpts from "Hansel and Gretel" at the Good Shepherd Home on the night of the 21st before an audience of 500 persons.

Total attendance for the state during Christmas week was 42,021 persons.

Following is the schedule for the week beginning Monday, January 3:

Monday: Civic orchestra: Park school, 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.; Field Club school, 11:45 to 12:00 noon; Beals school, 1 to 1:45 p. m. Colored orchestra, South high, noon; County hospital, 7 to 8 p. m.

Tuesday: Civic orchestra: Notre Dame Academy, 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.; St. Bernard's school, 1 to 2 p. m. Colored orchestra: Florence Home, 7 to 8 p. m.

Wednesday: Civic orchestra: Florence school, 11 to 12 noon; St. Philip Neri school, 1 to 1:45 p. m. Rosehill school, 2:15 to 3:15 p. m. Colored orchestra: South high school, noon; Urban Center, 8 to 9 p. m.

Thursday: Civic orchestra: Jackson school, 1 to 2 p. m.; Comenius school, 2:15 to 3:15 p. m.

Friday: Civic orchestra: Saratoga school, 10:30 to 11:30 a. m. Sherman school, 1 to 2 p. m.; St. Theresa school, 2:30 to 3:15 p. m. Colored orchestra: South high, noon; Technical high school, 3:50 p. m.

In the County Court of Douglas County, Nebraska:

In the Matter of the Estate of Lovelac Campbell, deceased.

To Lovelac Campbell and all beneficiaries of his estate, and all other persons interested in said estate:

You are hereby notified that a petition has been filed in this Court on the 3rd day of November, 1937 by Morace Campbell, interested in said estate as sole beneficiary thereof, alleging that Lovelac Campbell, a resident of Douglas County, Nebraska, on or about the 1st day of November, 1929, without known cause absented himself from his usual place of residence and has ever since concealed his whereabouts from his family for a period of more than seven years last past; that said absentee has personal property to be administered in Douglas County, Nebraska.

Said petitioner prays that the Court prescribe the notice and return date therein which shall be given, addressed to and served upon said absentee and said beneficiary as provided by law, that the date of death of said Lovelac Campbell be determined and that administration of said estate be granted to Ray L. Williams. You are therefore notified that a hearing will be had on said petition on the 3rd day of January, 1938 at 9 o'clock a. m. at the County Court Room of Douglas County, Nebraska and that if you fail to appear at said time and place and contest the petition, the Court may grant the prayer thereof, appoint a representative for said absentee and make such other orders according to law, as may be necessary to the end that said estate and all things pertaining thereto may be finally settled and determined.

BEAUTY AND ROMANCE
SPONSORED BY LARIEUSE BEAUTY FOUNDATION

The Larieuse Beauty Foundation was established by the Godfrey Manufacturing Company to study methods of preserving women's natural beauty, and to make the results of this research available to the public.

SING YOUR WAY TO BEAUTY

Popular opinion notwithstanding, beauty is more than skin deep. A flawless skin, glossy hair, and perfection of feature are to no avail if lines of petulance, discontent and worry have etched their mark on your face. All your thoughts and emotions leave their traces on your face.

And, unfortunately, we don't see these marks until they have become too deeply graven for us to do much about them. We very rarely look in the mirror when we are on the verge of flying off the handle, or if we do, we are too busy with our private grievances to pay any attention to what we see. But each outburst of temper, each needless hour of worry or discontent contribute to the general run-down look of our faces. Serenity is the keynote of beauty and the wise woman will cultivate a peaceful frame of mind as assiduously as she goes about keeping scrupulously clean and well-groomed.

Avoid Frowning

Someone told me that when she had a disagreeable task to perform—and who hasn't at least two or three a day?—she made a point of singing a gay and cheerful song while performing the unpleasant duty. This may sound ridiculous, and in some cases impossible, but it has a sound psychological basis. Who could feel the corners of her mouth droop while singing a foolish, inconsequential ditty? It is an excellent suggestion for housewives, who have an aversion to washing dishes and mopping floors. Try it and see how much easier it is to preserve a feeling of tranquility. Even the prettiest mouth loses its beauty if it droops at the corners, and continual drooping brings about that down-in-the-mouth expression which is practically impossible to blot out.

Happiness and Beauty

So, if you can't have a new dress and must make the old white satin do for another season, or if the telephone didn't ring last night, even though the dashing young man you met at the party did promise to call at seven, or even if your best beloved turned around and married the other girl, dismiss it all. If you become grim about it, the white satin will look even more tired due to your look of dissatisfaction, the young man from the party will never call if he sees you with the corners of your mouth sagging, and no one else will give you a second glance if you are obviously despairing over the light of your life that went out so abruptly.

The moral of all this is that beauty is as beauty thinks. Happiness makes for beauty and you can't be happy if you devote all your energies to concentrating on your own personal grudge against the world. And if you find that those unlovely lines have already begun to show up around your eyes and mouth, get a good cream, made especially for that purpose, and massage it gently into the skin every night, until you have smoothed them all away, and then start all over again and face the world with a tranquil countenance.

Sale of Stamps Ends This Week

Nebraska has a young population with little overcrowding and has the second lowest death rate in the nation. Even so 253 people died of tuberculosis in this state last year. Since scientists claim each death means there are nine active cases, 2277 active cases resulting from 253 deaths, it can easily be seen that there is still much work to be done to eradicate the disease.

The outcome of the fight against tuberculosis in this state depends upon the interest shown by the citizens and their response to the Nebraska Tuberculosis Association's annual Christmas Seal Sale which closes this week.

Contributions for Christmas Seals that were distributed during December finance the year-round program of the association. Dr. John F. Allen, president of the association, urges all who have not already done so to send in their remittances for seals to assure the continuation of the battle against the white plague.

Dr. Allen also states that contributions toward this 31st annual Christmas Seal campaign are not altogether altruistic for the money is used to combat the spread of a disease to which all classes are subjected and that it benefits the donor as well as the public at large. In addition aid is given to those unfortunate individuals who are direct beneficiaries.

The job of conquering tuberculosis can be completed but it needs the support of every man, woman and child in the state, those in charge of this great health work in Nebraska assert. It is never too late to take part in this job and when you pay for Christmas Seals you participate in this year-round program of cure and prevention, including service of tuberculosis clinics, health work in the schools and the task of educating people against tuberculosis.

Refuse Colored Boy A Place in ROTC

Rockford, Ill., Dec. 23 (ANP)—Racial prejudice raised its ugly head in the school system here this week when Captain J. Haggard, U. S. Army instructor of ROTC refused to permit the enlistment of George R. James, a colored student and decreed that under no circumstance would he be allowed to drill with white boys in uniform. Principal H. Blue of the school has refused to intervene. Captain Grant who prates about being "a southern gentleman" was assigned to duty in the Rockford schools eight months ago.

Dr. Richard S. Gant, local physician, and president of the Rockford Branch of the NAACP made a personal appeal to Principal Blue regarding this discrimination and was informed that James would have to take a "special" physical examination. Immediately after Dr. Gant and the school physician, Dr. Quandt, put the boy through a severe physical test and pronounced him very well fit. Later, upon instructions from the school nurse, the student was disqualified for "fat feet," over the protests of both physicians.

Last Saturday, Dr. Gant and G. C. Richardson of the NAACP legal Redress Committee protested to Attorney C. K. Welch, president of the Rockford Board of Education. Mr. Welch informed the committee that he, during the World War, had been an officer and that whites and blacks were always kept separated. He agreed to "take the matter up" however and promised Dr. Gant a letter within the ten days.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

NEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a shrew for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up easier before marriage than after. Be wise. If you want to hold your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomfort from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."

Clarinda, Ia. News

Second Baptist Church

Sunday school opened at the usual hour with Miss Rachel Cason, presiding. The Christmas program Friday night was one of the greatest Christmas programs ever held in Clarinda. All enjoyed the young people as they played their parts. Morning service was in high with a large attendance. We were pleased to have Mrs. Irene Motion with us.

Evening service, the pastor brought forth an instructive sermon. One was added to the church.

The Pastor's Aid will have a Chattering Supper Wednesday. All have a mind to work.

Visitors are always welcome to come to the Second Baptist church. Rev. D. Nicholson, Pastor

WHISTLING WINDS

Prosperity covers a multitude of sins. Meekness is the weakest so-called virtue. Only a pretty woman can afford to scold. Be kind to all except those who are trying to gyp you. We may condone mistakes in our rulers—but not much. The authorized strength of West Point is 1,900 cadets. Never bring up a favor that you did a man. Let him do it. Some people turn their backs when forced to face facts. He who "swears off" has more money to spend on his other habits. One way to enjoy doing your best is to help some other fellow do better.

A political economist is one who cares nothing for men, but only for theories. The penalty of fame is the kind of people who name their children after you. Go-getter! One who presses a button and tells somebody else to go get it. Abject ignorance is rare, but there is plenty of the 80 per cent exasperating kind. Brainy people succeed somehow in eliminating the dumb from their environment. "A woman likes a man to remember her birthdays, but not to count them." No fool law ever survives, but it can make millions miserable for half a lifetime. A bad intention sooner or later finds its opportunity, while a good intention has to make one.

Grafter Gets $20

St. Louis, Dec. 30 (ANP)—Mrs. Margaret Wolfenberger, a widow, lost $20 last Tuesday in a new version of the policy racket. A colored man appeared at her home, said her son had won $600 on two policy tickets, but that $34 had to be paid to "complete the deal." When she turned her back the man planted the tickets, and when she returned he told her to look on the table in the living room, where she would find the tickets.

She did so, was thus convinced of the man's honesty. She gave him all the money she had—$20, after which he hurried away. That night returning home from work, her son told her he had not played policy, had been given no ticket. Mrs. Wolfenberger told police the caller walked with a limp, carried a cane and was about 50 years old.

MUSEUM VISITORS GIVEN FREE REIN

Levers were meant to be pressed and wheels to be turned directors of Munich's Deutsches museum believe. With this principle in mind, says a Munich, Germany, United Press correspondent, they permit visitors to touch every exhibit within reach, to start motors, press buttons that blow horns and clarinets, and even go down into a mine, which is part of the museum.

The Deutsches museum is one vast exhibit of the history of human progress. There is, for instance, the transportation display, which begins with a camel and ends with pictures of the New York subway in between. It shows all developments in travel on land, water and in the air, with exhibits of roller skates, stilt, bicycles, sleds, planes, models of rafts, canoes, wooden steamers, submarines and the great steamships of today.

The exhibits showing the development of music are fascinating, for each flute, clarinet and horn is connected with a bellows, and when visitors press a button, the bellows gives the instrument a blast of air and sound is produced.
