Sunday School began at 9:45 a. m. with a good attendance of children. Preaching began at 11 o'clock by our pastor, M. E. Ashley. Subject "Mothers of Great Men." Text, Matt. 11th chapter and the 11th verse. It was beautifully pictured and much joy was gotten out of the message. Its good to know that we have it in our power to make our mother's heart rejoice. Everyone who heard this Mother's Day message will not forget such a soul stirring message.

The Sunday School and Young People's meetings had a joint program at 3 p. m. It was beautifully rendered. We want to thank all who took part in helping put such a wonderful program, as was rendered on Mother's Day.

Evening services began at 7:30 p. m. with preaching by Elder Miron Ashley. Subject "Power." Text, Judges 23rd chapter and the 29th verse. It is wonderful to know that we are serving a God that has power and gives power, and knowledge to man that he can cause rain and all kinds of things to run by some kind of power, and yet all the power comes from God. He gives us power to live clean and pure lives. Power to breathe. He is all powerful. This God that rules the universe. The message was made so plain that all who heard could not help but understand it and take courage.

Last week and all day Sunday the revival was a blessing to all. The Saints and friends who heard Mrs. Rev. Waites preach at all services except 3 p. m. Sunday when Rev. Fox delivered a fiery message.

Mother's Day sermon by Rev. Waites at 11 a. m. last Sunday was touching "Honor You, Mother and Father." One man came to the Alter.

Many baskets of flowers and candy were distributed at Sunday School, at 1:30 p. m. to the children.

Revival continues all this week closing Sunday night May 20th. Everyone is invited to hear our wonderful Evangelist, Rev. Waites preach her farewell sermon. Good gospel singing also. May 20th is Rev. Waites birthday and the church and friends plan to honor her Sunday night at the services.

Many Saints and friends have generously contributed toward the entertainment of these women sent by the Lord. We thank the Omaha Guide for publicity.

The Sunday School lesson was taught from the 21st chapter of St. Matthew's. Much good understanding was taken from the beautifully discussed lesson. A large number of members were present and also a number of visitors. Visitors are welcome at all times.

Rev. Harris, of Council Bluffs preached a wonderful sermon from the chapter of St. Paul. I am very sure everyone present enjoyed it very much, you all that were not present certainly missed a treat.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock we had a wonderful Mother's Day program. Among the many present, the following visitors were present: Mrs. Allen, and Mrs. J. D. Lewis, who gave for us a beautiful Mother's Day talk and was highly appreciated by all. Mr. Steve Taylor sang a wonderful Mother's Day solo, entitled "That Wonderful Mother of Mine." It certainly made those present think a great deal of Mr. Taylor.

Our next Sunday May 20th, we will have with us our Beloved Bishop Chief J. P. F. Stuckey. He will spend a few days here with us. We would like very much to have all that can be present and hear the wonderful messages he has for us. Don't miss this treat for I know you'll miss something great. I'm warning you. Come.

Tribute was truly paid at the Temple Sunday to those Sainted Mothers who have been called from a life of labor to a reward that awaits them in the resurrection when Christ shall come to claim His own, also many good things were said about those Mothers who are yet alive and setting wholesome examples before their children.

whether they be Saints or sinners. We hold that all Mothers should have sufficient pride to want to bequeath to their children the highest concept of life.

At 11 a. m. Elder Taziamore filled the pulpit and gave us a logical sermon in a philosophical way on Motherhood and the general trend of Religion. At 3 p. m. Elder George W. Slater Jr. of Bethel A. M. E. Council Bluffs brought us a message from the 23rd chapter of Ps, was studied with spiritual diamonds, and shipped under golden ladens, and gave the Holy Ghost inspiration to all that were in a spiritual condition to receive the message, niether brother Slater or his message will soon be forgotten by the hearers.

We had a splendid B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Deacon Stafford was the teacher and the lesson was filled with interest from start to finish. At

Lesson for May 20

THE FUTURE OF THE KINGDOM

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 25:1-13. GOLDEN TEXT—And there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. Rev. 11:15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A Story About a Wedding. JUNIOR TOPIC—When Jesus Comes. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Always Ready. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Preparedness.

This lesson is part of the well known Olivet discourses giving a prophetic view of the course of time from the crucifixion to the second coming of Christ. Two great facts are before us in this prophetic utterance, the destruction of Jerusalem and the second coming of Christ. The one was near, having taken place within forty years from Christ's crucifixion; the other is still in the future.

The parable of the ten virgins is one of the two parables designed for the instruction of the saints in view of the coming of Christ. It has a continuous application in the present time (1 Thess. 4:16-18; Titus 2:11-13).

I. The Equipment of the Virgins (vv. 1-10).

1. The foolish virgins (v. 3). They took lamps but had no oil with them. Lamps signify Christian profession (Matt. 5:16) and oil the Holy Spirit (Zech. 4). Having lamps but no oil shows that they were professors of religion without possessing its reality. The Christian life is sustained by the Holy Spirit. As soon as one is regenerated the Holy Spirit takes up his abode within him. The proof that one is a child of God is that he has the Holy Spirit dwelling within him (Rom. 8:9).

2. The wise virgins (v. 4). They possessed both lamps and oil. They made a profession and backed it with a life of real righteousness. These are the true believers. Both the wise and the foolish virgins slumbered and slept. The common lot falls to both professing Christians and real Christians. They fell under the spell of sleep (v. 5). This shows that as this age lengthens the real and professing church will cease looking for the coming of the Lord. It is unseemly and that so many, even of God's saints—wise virgins—should give up the expectancy of the return of the Lord.

II. The Coming of the Bridegroom (vv. 6-12).

1. The midnight cry (v. 6). In the midst of the night when all the virgins were asleep the cry was made, "Behold the bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him." Who knows but that the time of this cry is close at hand?

2. The activity of the virgins (v. 7). They all arose and trimmed their lamps. There will be great activity when the Lord comes, those who only make a profession then realizing that they lack what is essential to entrance to the marriage feast.

3. The foolish request the wise to share their oil (vv. 8, 9). The revelation of Christ will make manifest the genuineness of our religion and expose the folly of mere profession. When the Lord comes it will be too late to mend one's ways.

4. The wise enter to the marriage (v. 10). It will matter little what else one has at that time if he has oil in his lamp.

5. The pitiful petition of the foolish (v. 11). They begged the Lord to open the door that they might enter to the marriage feast.

6. The awful judgment (v. 12). The Lord declared, "I know you not." Those who put off personal contact with Christ until that day shall be shut out from his presence.

III. The Solemn Obligation (v. 13). "Watch, for ye know not the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh."

1. Entering with Christ to the marriage depends not upon having professed to enter the Christian race but continuing therein. It is not enough that we can refer to the lighting of our lamps. If oil and light be wanting when Christ comes there will be no admittance to the heavenly banquet.

2. Borrowed religion will not avail at that day. Association with the most eminent of God's saints will not secure for us acceptance at that day. The essential thing is personal union with the Lord Jesus Christ through faith in his shed blood.

8 p. m. the pastor showed how men ought to honor all womanhood because of the love and respect they have for their mother. He said he had no respect for a man that was so void of principle that he would stoop to the love of interfering with another man's wife or daughter. He said such a man ignored true motherhood teaching and was a disgrace to his pretense.

He further said the minister who stood in the sacred rostrum and preached Christ to others as a Savior from sin and then he himself stoop to interfere with another man's wife or daughter should be unfrocked and put under the jail instead of in it like they put other prisoners, because of his hypocrisy, and the exalted position has accepted.

You are cordially invited to worship with us at anytime I am sure you will enjoy the services. We expect a great day next Sunday. Elder J. W. Williams and some of his members worshipped with us last Sunday at 3 p. m. also Elder Stalleton. We were glad to have the brethren present.

Morning services began promptly at 10:45 when the choir marched in. We were glad to see such a good number present. The pastor Rev. Dotson preached a special Mother's Day sermon which was enjoyed by all. He not only gave recognition to the dead but the living as well and every Mother and daughter present seem to have enjoyed the services. In the afternoon the Sunday Alliance met at the Church. After the lesson a few numbers in keeping with Mother's Day were rendered. Mrs. J. H. Dotson spoke on "A Mother's Responsibility to Help Her Daughter." In the evening the choir was in charge of the program.

the principle speakers were Mrs. Herbert Wiggins, for the Mothers and Miss Loraine Fletcher for the daughters with Miss Christine Dixon at the organ. Several numbers were rendered. Mother Bowns was the oldest mother present. Miss Helen Dacus was the oldest mother present with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Dixon. Mrs. Jesse Franklin was the mother who had the most daughters present and Mrs. Irene Jackson the youngest mother with a daughter present. The auditorium was filled. After the remarks by the Pastor an invitation church, both from other churches and was extended and one young man by confession of faith. Those who joined by Christian experience. Mother's Day at St. John was another banner. The attendance at the Sunday School was very good. There were many flowers both red and white to be seen. As the people were extending honors to the mothers.

Rev. Nathaniel H. Jeltz an evangelist, preached a wonderful Mother's Day sermon from Exodus 20th chapter and the 122nd verse. He took for his subject "The Glory of Motherhood." He developed many new ideas in this very timely subject, as well as old thoughts. For too many to try to recall, but one or two stood out more were that Motherhood is an accomplishment and must be achieved by doing something real for human kind and the love and prayer of the real Mother can play great part in making the world just what it should be. It is hoped that the many good thoughts will live in the hearts of those who heard them.

THE CHURCH INQUIRY COLUMN

"SAFETY FIRST"
By Rev. F. P. Jones, Pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church

If any that will come after me, let him deny himself Matt. 16:24

1. These words of Jesus do not mean an occasional act of self-denial, temporary fasts, self-imposed moment of hardship. They mean a total repudiation of self as the object of love, an unconditional surrender of self as the first object of consideration. As such, no Christian can ever adopt the maxim, "Take care of Number One," unless he makes Christ Number One.

"Safety First" may be a very good motto if only we can define safety right. Whose safety? Certainly not ours. The safety of society, the safety of others, the safety of the Kingdom of God. He who puts anything first is reversing the Christian order.

3. Is it possible to modify the tendency of human nature so as to set up another personality than our own "Number One?" Of course it is possible. When a man marries, if he is has a worthy idea of marriage, he shifts his loyalty from his own personality to that of another (Wife). Every mother knows this experience.

The whole philosophy of selfishness is shattered by the sight of a baby's face, nay, by the first thought of its little life, so dependent, yet so Divine.

4. This is the program of the Christ life; Self dethroned, Christ enthroned, and then the adoption by us of Christ's own standard of values. We must care for the things He cared for. We must make supreme the things which He made supreme. We all must admit that this old world in which we live changed the philosophy of the life which Christ taught and lived, to the one self-centered committee of three "I, Myself, and Me." But remember, my friend, there is another standard, no other philosophy of life out side of Christ. He is the only "Code" the only "Safety First" may be a very good motto if only not? The call is to the whosoever will.

Misanthropy
By R. A. ADAMS
(For The Literary Service Bureau)

A glaring case of inconsistency is that reported in recent press dispatches. The report is that the head of the Reynolds Tobacco Company gave a large portion of the half million dollars used in building the St. Paul's Cathedral at Winston-Salem, North Carolina. This company sells tobacco. Especially does it sell "Camels" in the advertising of which millions of dollars are spent to educate women to the use of tobacco. These people know, or should that tobacco is injurious; that it injures young people, especially; that smoking is a degrading to womanhood. So it seems that there is effort to appease conscience or palliate the serious offense against social good, by giving a part of the destructive money to the church.

The May Rummage Sale, sponsored by the Alter Society, has proven a very successful affair; many contributions were made, by a host of benefactors of St. Benedict's. These were sold at a very reasonable price, making it possible for the sale for the sale to be beneficial to many of the parish poor, and their friends.
The Children of the intermediate grades are forming a "Sodaloty of the Blessed Virgin Mary" and will meet every Saturday afternoon in the Church Club-room, at 2:00 p. m.

The Mother's Day Tea, given by the "Crusaders" was another pleasing and successful event of the much crowded day's activities. Almost every mother of the parish was present and a large number of the children as well. The gracious and smiling Mrs. Lucille Edwards, presided over the beautiful Tea-Table, assisted by the charming and popular, Miss Minnie Preyor. Miss Bernice Saunders and Mr. Robert Williams (who will be seen together in the coming Crusaders play next Monday night) were very helpful in keeping the table well supplied with dainty sandwiches, delicious cakes and every thing that goes to make a tea long to be remembered. The Crusaders quartet favored the guests with many selections of harmony, and much applause was given the duet rendered by George Barton and Mrs. M. E. Sterling, singing "Alone," while Mr. William Green made a splendid debut with "Oh, How I Miss You Mummy." Mr. Alvin Goodwin, the popular tenor of the quartet, sang the favorite song of the day, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine." The entire programme was well received.

The school children will have their May-Procession and crowning of the Queen on next Sunday afternoon at 2:30; the public is cordially invited. Miss Evelyn Gant, one of the Graduating class, will be crowned Queen of the May.
Don't forget to see the St. Benedict's Crusaders in their first theatrical venture, next Monday night in the Auditorium, at 8:15, in the three act comedy drama, "Go Slow, Mary."

Attend Pentecostal Revival:
Closes May 20th

The five weeks Pentecostal Revival which has been conducted by Mrs. Rev. Francis A. Waites, evangelist of Philadelphia, ably assisted by Rev. Elizabeth Fox, the gospel singer will close Sunday night, May 20th at the Omaha All Nation's Pentecostal Church, 2302 Grace St. The public is invited to attend. All services Sunday night especially don't miss, Mrs. Rev. Waites' farewell sermon Sunday night. She is a powerful preacher and mighty in the scripture. Special spiritual singing by Rev. Elizabeth Fox at all services. These holiness women have brought the light of salvation to many and God has blessed their efforts. They will leave the first week for their home in Philadelphia. The pastor Elder J. E. Greenfield is so improved, she has attended all services and expects to attend all services and expects to attend all services.

So, to have peace let it be understood. Means we must live as duty bids we should.

If good or ill the world shall recompense
And boast "a conscience void of all offense"

With "conscience void of all offense" shall we
From fear retribution then be free.
And, without guilt or shame, lift up our head,
Facing the world with courage—unafraid.

To Render Program

The Senior Choir of St. Benedict's Church will render a special program, Sunday, Mrs. Ralph Owens will be the soloist. The public is invited to attend, so reports Mrs. Mable Fields, the directors.
