

Municipal University to Conduct Summer School

A summer session divided into three groups and designed to accommodate teachers, students and men and women of the business world will be conducted at the Municipal University of Omaha, it was announced yesterday by E. M. Hosman, director of the extension division.

"Summer school has an important place in the field of education and the University of Omaha hopes to make it even more important in the future," Hosman said. "We are anxious to have our regular students attend the summer sessions, particularly those who want to complete their college courses in three years."

"This may be viewed from a purely financial viewpoint by the student because if he or she finishes the University course in three years it is the equivalent of earning a year's salary for the extra work."

Hosman also urged that high school graduates enroll in the summer classes in order to lighten their load during the regular school terms.

The summer school will open with an intercession from May 20 to June 7; university unit courses from June 28 and the regular session from June 10 to July 19.

The summer school faculty will include a number of nationally known educators and laymen who will conduct regular classes or lecture in their specialized fields. Among these are:

Dr. Ada Hart Arlitt, professor of child care and training, University of Cincinnati, one of the leading authorities in child welfare in America.

Dr. W. W. Bauer, director of the American Medical Association, nationally known lecturer in the field of medicine.

Dr. R. D. Williams, professor of comparative psychology, Ohio State University.

Dr. Homer W. Anderson, Superintendent of the Omaha Public Schools. Miss Clara Louise Ebinger, a professional artist and teacher in Horace Mann and Lincoln schools in New York City.

Helmut Boeninger, instructor in German, University of Wisconsin.

E. E. McMillan, principal, North High School, Omaha.

J. A. True, superintendent of public schools, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Dr. Edgar A. Holt, professor of history and dean of the college of arts and sciences in the Municipal University of Omaha.

Dr. Will French, superintendent of schools, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Dr. Dean A. Worcester, professor of educational psychology, University of Nebraska.

H. C. Fille, professor of rural economics, University of Nebraska.

CITIZENS COMMITTEES FOR INVESTIGATING HARLEM CONDITIONS COMBINE

New York—CNA—Last Wednesday the three outstanding citizens committees which have been investigating the causes of the recent Harlem disturbances merged. The groups were formerly the Harlem Committee on Public Policy, with Charles M. Hanson, chairman; the Emergency Citizens Committee, with Rev. Adam C. Powell, Jr., chairman; the New York Federation of Churches of Christ, of which the Rev. George E. Haynes was chairman.

The meeting was held at the Harlem Y. M. C. A. on 135th St. A program of action presented by James W. Ford, member of the committee, was adopted.

The main items of the program were: immediate and adequate relief for Harlem; protection of the civil rights of the Negro people and Harlem workers organizations; improvement of the Harlem Hospital situation; jobs for Negroes on the subway systems and an end to all Jim Crowism, segregation and discrimination.

Mr. White immediately sent a telegram to Senators Adams, Brown, Bulow, Couzens, Dieterich, Duffy, Gerry, Hatch, King,

Lonegran, Murphy, Norris, Pittman, Thomas and Walsh, expressing regret that they voted for adjournment "which would have been construed as victory for filibusters against the Costigan-Wagner bill. Should not a bill to end horrible crime like lynching be at least voted on," and expressing hope that on Saturday they would either vote "against adjournment or arrange pair against adjournment if you cannot be present."

A telegram of similar import was sent to those northern senators who were absent at the time the vote was being taken and urging them to be present to the close of the session or to pair with someone for the bill.

The absent senators from Northern and Border states were: Ashurst, Arizona; Bone, Washington; Borah, Idaho; Dickinson, Ia.; Guffey, Pennsylvania; Hastings, Delaware; Hayden, Arizona; Johnson, California; Keyes, New Hampshire; Meloney, Connecticut; Norbeck, South Dakota; Pope, Idaho; Townsend, Delaware; Truman, Missouri and Wheeler of Montana.

The N. A. A. C. P. sent out a broadcast to its branches and sympathizers of the anti-lynching bill to flood these senators and those who voted for adjournment with telegrams urging them to vote for the bill.

Those senators who voted against adjournment and are thus on record as favoring the bill are: Austin, Vermont; Bachman, Tennessee; Barbour, New Jersey; Burkley, Ohio; Burke, Nebraska; Capper, Kansas; Carey, Wyoming; Clark, Missouri; Copeland, New York; Costigan, Colorado; Donahey, Ohio; Frazier, North Dakota; Gibson, Vermont; Hale, Maine; LaFollette, Wisconsin; Lewis, Illinois; Logan, Kentucky; McCarran, Nevada; McGill, Kansas; McNary, Oregon; McCall, Rhode Island; Minton, Indiana; Moore, New Jersey; Murray, Montana; Neely, West Virginia; Nye, North Dakota; O'Mahoney, Wyoming; Schall, Minnesota; Schwollenbach, Wash.; Shipstead, Minnesota; Steiwer, Oregon; Vandenberg, Michigan; Van Nuys, Indiana; White of Maine.

Some senators like Robert F. Wagner of New York who were unavoidably absent were paired for the recess and against adjournment.

An Anti-Lynching Bill Fight.
The Senate and the crowded galleries were held spellbound on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon last week when Senator Edward P. Costigan of Colorado and then Senator Robert F. Wagner spoke urging the passage of the federal anti-lynching bill bearing their names. They riddled with facts and ridiculed the familiar contentions of the opponents of an anti-lynching law that the states could control lynching; that the bill was a threat to labor; that it was unconstitutional, anyhow and so a law against it was unnecessary.

Senator Black of Alabama raised the anti-labor issue on Wednesday only to be brilliantly refuted by Senator Costigan. On Thursday after Senator Wagner's speech, Senator Tom Connally took up the sword for the south and talked at great length about the constitution and state's rights. Connally was twitted by Senator Clark of Missouri for bringing up the Constitution. The Missouri senator expressed mock surprise that "it is only when such a measure as this, having to do with a subject such as lynching is submitted that the Constitution, long in retirement, is trotted out, its front repainted its joints mended and put in the forefront of the action."

The debate between Connally and Clark was one of the high spots of the long Thursday session. Senators Glass of Virginia, Borah of Idaho and Bailey of North Carolina ruded to Connally aid when the going became heavy.

Senator Warren K. Barbour threw the Senate into an uproar near the close of the Thursday session when he pointed out that those who contended loudest for State rights came from the States "which are leaning most heavily on the Federal government for financial assistance in meeting the ravages of the depression." He then had read in to the record the FERA statistics on relief expenditures in the 13 Southern states, showing how they gave for relief and how much came from the federal government.

Laugh at Ante-Bellum Oratory.
The crowded galleries got a big laugh from the florid, old-fashioned, ante-bellum oratory of Senator Ellison D. "Cotton Tom" Smith of South Carolina and Senator Tom Connally of Texas about the home, the sanctity of womanhood and the Constitution.

Keen minded Lee Johnson, Senator Costigan's secretary, remembered a speech by Senator Connally last year in which he denounced those who last year raised constitutional objections to one of the recovery measures he was supporting. Johnson rushed to his office and returned with the Congressional Record containing the speech Senator Costigan used it to good effect.

Senator Huey Long, the Kingfish of Louisiana, in tan suit and tan and white shoes, walked restlessly around the Senate chamber, alternately laughing in Connally's flustered face and slapping his hands together.

Chinese, Japanese, Haitian and other occupants of the diplomatic gallery, tried to mask their amazement that there should even be a debate on such a humane measure.

Detailed memoranda prepared by the N. A. A. C. P. on number and causes of lynching by states triviality of causes, innocent persons lynched, constitutionality and FERA funds to South which prates of state rights were distributed in the press galleries and given to Senators.

Newspapermen, senators and others say the fight is one of the best organized and conducted seen on Capitol Hill for some time.

White women worked devotedly for N. A. A. C. P. in the fight. They were Mrs. Gertrude B. Stone; native Oklahoman of Washington Branch; Miss Elizabeth Eastman of Y. W. C. A. and sister of Joseph B. Eastman, the Coordinator of Railroads; a young Kentucky woman; Katharine Gardner of the Federal Council of Churches; Helen R. Bryan and Marjorie Penny of the Friends.

Charles H. Houston, William H. Hastie and other attorneys were busy running down legal points, preparing briefs, etc.

Finest of all perhaps was the instantaneous response by N. A. A. C. P. branches, and other interested groups with telegrams to wavering Senators.

Cleveland, O.—As a result of a persistent mass campaign, Negroes were employed here as lunch counter attendants at the F. W. Woolworth Store at East 53rd Street and Woodland Avenue.

WEAK AND SKINNY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Saved by new Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil in tasteless tablets.

Pounds of firm healthy flesh instead of bare scraggy bones! New vigor, vim and energy instead of tired listlessness! Steady, quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientists' latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little sugar coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell. McCoys' Cod Liver Oil Tablets, they're called! "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 7, seriously sick, got well and gained 19 1/2 lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 3 lbs. the first week and 2 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not eat or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month. You simply must try McCoys' at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 3 lbs. of firm healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand and get McCoys' the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets—approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Refuse all substitutes. Insist on the original McCoys'—there are none better.
