

ABBE WALLACE
A. E. D.—Will you please tell me how I can improve my domestic affairs?

Ans: As long as you are in the house with your AUNT there is going to be some kind of family quarrel. I advise you to move into a house of your own while you are on good terms with her—You can get along lots better if you are separated.

M. J. R.—I would like to know how I can make a little extra money?

Ans: There are not many ways for you to make extra money since you haven't much spare time to make it in. What time you do have seems to be spent writing poetry—Why don't you try to sell some of these poems? You could make a steady income by sending these poems to various NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES.

G. A. B.—I want to know if I will be able to hold my friend without any trouble?

Ans: Your friend J. R. S. appears to be very fickle, and he will be hard to hold. If you don't watch your step, you're liable to lose him, for the certain young lady you know is going to cause you a lot of confusion—You're going to have a lot of competition to contend with.

A. W.—Does my husband make any more money than he says, and what does he do with it?

Ans: I get the impression that your husband makes more than he says, but only a few dollars. To save embarrassment for both you and he, I would suggest that you see note attached to this column and write to me for a PRIVATE REPLY, concerning what he does with his money.

G. T. M.—I am so worried and I want you to tell me what to do?

Ans: The treatment you get from your husband appears to be brought about by your neglect to him. It is quite right for you to look after your baby, and it does take up a lot of your time, but surely you can find time to be with your husband. Don't leave him—He loves you and the baby, and you both need him. If you would do it, he would be more than glad to spend his time with you.

Nite Spot Invites Negro Amateurs

New York City, June 23.—ASN—Connie Immerman, well-known Broadway showman and owner of Connie's Inn where the present edition of "Connie's Hot Chocolates" of 1935 is showing at the former Palais Royal, Broadway and 49th street, is furthering the chances of the colored performer on Broadway by holding colored amateur shows every Monday night.

As there are always plenty of Broadway producers as well as performers present at these contests the chance of the unknown amateurs breaking into the professional ranks are vastly increased. From these contests should spring some future stars of tomorrow.

Ethel Waters and Noble Sissle Share Honors in Detroit

Detroit, Mich. June 23.—ASN—With Noble Sissle at the Fox Theatre and Ethel Waters at the Michigan Theatre, Detroiters are enjoying some of the best entertainment that the Motor City has had to offer in some time.

Ethel Waters, well known songstress of "As Thousands Cheer" having just completed a week's engagement at the Regal Theatre in Chicago opened here at the Michigan theatre Friday, is still rated as "The Tops" in her field. Following her engagement here she returns to New York to the Apollo Theatre after which Miss Waters will rest until she starts rehearsals early in July in the Shuberts' shows "At Home Abroad" with Beatrice Lillie and Herb Williams.

By the Associated Negro Press Wilberforce, Ohio July 4.—Dr. R. R. Wright, jr. President of Wilberforce University announced here Tuesday that friends of Bishop Reverby C. E. S.—I am in love with a girl and I want to know if she will make me a happy wife and should I marry her?

Ans: The girl you are in love with seems to love you more than you realize but you have one fault that she doesn't like. A girl as attractive as she is, is always sought after, and you shouldn't let her know you are so jealous of the boy that is trying to come between you. Finish your course at the boarding school and then ask her to become your wife again, and you will get a different answer.

G. E. R.—I want to know if I will have to go to the hospital?

Ans: Since you have been going to the doctor, your condition has shown an improvement, and you can't expect to get well all of a sudden—Keep taking the medicine your doctor gave you, for even though you don't realize it, it is doing you good—That will be the only way for you to avoid having an operation.

V. S.—I would like for you to tell me how I can get the money that was promised to me?

Ans: If you expect to collect the rest of your husband's insurance you had better not let them keep putting you off—you had no trouble collecting EIGHT HUNDRED of it when your husband died and through a good lawyer you won't have any trouble securing the balance of it.

E. D.—What kind of business do you think would be best for me to enter?

Ans: I don't think it would be very wise for you to go into business as you have planned, selling CHILDREN AND MISSES CLOTHES, for you will have quite a bit of competition in that business and you haven't had enough experience in that kind of work to know how to make much profit from it, A DAIRY BUSINESS, will bring you a nice income.

Coloradans Battle Against Jim Crow Hospital Proposal

Carnegie Carries Segregated Hospital Scheme to Middle West. By the Continental Press. Amos H. Carnegie, reputed New York minister, brought his Jim Crow Hospital proposal to Denver this week and has met stern opposition at every turn. He is accompanied by Alonzo B. Willis, said to be of Monroe, Louisiana, who is to aid him in his scheme.

Leading citizens of both races are planning to battle to the finish the inauguration and support of such a proposal. The traveling duo have sought to get in touch with Governor Ed. C. Johnson to get his written approval of the segregated Hospital Proposal, but the vigilance of leading citizens blocked his effort. Carnegie claims his proposition has already been approved by some thirty or more Governors.

Denver citizens have thrown down the gauntlet and are insisting that the proposition not only will not be supported but will not be tolerated in Colorado. A group of citizens have brought pressure to bear upon Governor Johnson and urged him not only that he would not lend his support and approval to Carnegie's movement but rather that he would bring to bear every influence at his command, against the segregated hospital proposition.

The scheme has been branded an unwelcome disturbance to the peace and good will between the races; an dangerous innovation, a breeder of segregation, the procurers of multifarious forms of discrimination and the inevitable ills which stalk in their wake.

Not only this but the good intention, integrity and sincerity of the proponents of the segregated hospital idea are being seriously questioned. The scheme is said to savor of another interracial rick-

It is further claimed that the promoters have adopted the policy of pan-handling, in that they are traveling through the country without the proper bonafied credentials and without visible means of support. Reports are numerous here that they are mooching room rent and gas as they travel. They are stranded in Denver having appealed to several citizens for funds to help them out of the city. It is reported that Topeka, Kansas is their next objective where they hope to get support of Governor Landon. Kansans are benign notified of their intention to invade their state and are being urged to wage a bitter fight against the inauguration of the segregated hospital proposition as sponsored by Carnegie under the name of the National Negro Hospital Fund.

Mob Lynchs one and Whips Another Negro

Wiggins, Miss. July 6.—Now that the possibility of a federal anti-lynching bill is past for the present at least, the South resumed its favorite pastime of lynching Negroes. One was lynched and another spirited into the woods and whipped in the course of twenty-four hours of mob rule here last Friday and Saturday.

R. D. McGee, 25 year-old Negro, was hanged to a tree and his body was pierced with bullets about 9 a. m., for an alleged attack on the 11-year old daughter of a white dairy farmer. An unidentified Negro was whipped and released by a crowd of white men because of an alleged insult to a white woman.

Physicians said that the girl was not criminally attacked but that she had been choked into unconsciousness. The girl's father said that after his daughter had been knocked down with a shovel and attacked, she was dragged into a field and left there for dead.

About 300 whites got together in the mob as soon as the news became public, got McGee out of bed at 11 o'clock at night, kept him in the woods until the next morning when he was confronted by the girl, who is said to have identified him by his clothing. The mob then carried the Negro across town into a side road leading to the grave yard, where a "confession" was forced from him before his body was hung from a tree and riddled with bullets.

No detailed information was given about the whipping of the other Negro here, the only statement given out was that he insulted a white woman.

Urban League Demands Participation In Social Security

Makes Appeal to Secretary of Labor for Jobs On Higher Levels

New York, July 4 (ANP)—The National Urban League, continuing its fight for complete participation of Negroes in the Recovery Program, made public a letter last week signed by T. Arnold Hill, acting executive secretary, to The Honorable Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor.

In his letter to Secretary Perkins, Mr. Hill pointed out that "the setting up of the administration for the Wagner Labor Disputes Act, and the Social Security Bill, brings clearly to view the necessity for providing for Negroes very definitely."

He further pointed out that according to Miss Perkins' statement "that government ought to arrange that labor play its part in the study and development of any economic policies for the future of the United States" and under that promise he maintained, "the Negro ought to be allowed to make a more definite contribution to these policies."

ALTA VESTA A GIRL'S PROBLEMS

By Videtta Ish (For The Literary Service Bureau)

Alta Vesta to Her Father—No. 12

Dearest Daddy: Your letter was gladly received. I got scared after I mailed my letter. I had never asked questions about what you thought best and I was afraid I'd made you mad at me. And I'm so glad you were not because you are the dearest daddy in this great big world.

Now, Father, Aunt Cornelia has done as you said in your last letter, and she found out that one girl's father was a very bad man. He was a drunkard and was mean to her mother. The man at this girl's house is her step-father because her mother left her father because he was so mean to her.

It's funny too, Daddy, that the other little girls' mother was bad. She did not love her own children and ran off from home and left them. They are living with their father and their step-mother. Now, Daddy, this makes me more sorry for those girls and more sorry if I can't help them. But I tell you again I'm going to do whatever you say so you will always love me.

Your loving Alta Vesta P. S.—Easter is coming and I want some new things. Will tell you what in the next letter. A. V.
