MT. MORIAH BAPTIST Church

Rev. Wm. Clayton, Acting Pastor F. Burroughs, Reporter
The morning worship was spent in singing and praising "God from Whom All Blessings Flow."

He was not afraid to preach pure gospel and then he believed what he preached and lived it. These ten years have not always been sunshine and roses for him, but yet he struggled on because he loved the church and was loyal to it.

At the evening worship Rev. Clayton preached to us from Deut. 8:2-Phil 3:13. The subject was "Making Our Old Year Help Our New." This was a very interesting sermon and was enjoyed by all.

Special prayer was offered for Sylvester Beasley who is seriously ill. Speaking prayers were offered again at the BTU. hour, asking that Jesus might heal him if it is His will.

We sadly report at this time the sudden passing of sister Charity Johnson McGee who was a deaconess. She served loyally and was a consistent Christian.

THIS WEEK IN RELIGION AND THOUGHT

by Robert L. Moody
Life's Crossings—
"Have you come to the Red Sea place in your life when in spite of all you can do; There's no way out, there's no way back."

There's no other way but through! The children of Israel had such experience and most of us have had ours. Now our nation has a Red Sea to cross, but it can receive marvelous deliverance by the hand of the same God.

We have begun another year and it has been adequately done by prayer and meditation at the request of our President and other leaders.

AS WE KNEW HIM

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in Heaven. —Matthew 5:16.

REV. F. P. JONES, pastor of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Omaha, Nebraska, has ended his tenth year as Pastor of this church and has left, much to our regret to take a charge elsewhere.

He came to us when we were in extreme need of a leader and became one of us. Living among us as a true disciple of Jesus teaching and preaching, leading in all that he wanted us to do.

He was not afraid to preach pure gospel and then he believed what he preached and lived it. These ten years have not always been sunshine and roses for him, but yet he struggled on because he loved the church and was loyal to it.

—We are proud of the fact that through his untiring efforts that the mortgage which had been on the church property was burned last year. This mortgage had been hanging over our heads for thirteen long years, but he was not afraid to tackle the job and to day we are free of debt.

He preached the tithing system which is the Bible way of giving until many of the members are now regular tithers. In this he and Mrs. Jones headed the list. They also brought to the church a beautiful service which is known as the "White Gift" and was observed every year at Christmas time.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

They have given of their best to Mt. Moriah Church. They have given of their substance and their sincere service. We loved him as a pastor because he was well prepared to lead us. He has buried our dead, joined our sons and our daughters in holy wedlock, administered to the sick. Helped those who needed help in times of trouble. Gave sympathy, advice and encouragement when needed. Baptized many in Jesus' name.

name. He was fatherly and brotherly, a true shepherd of the flock.

Likewise Mrs. Jones has labored among us, working in the Sunday school, the BTU, the Mission Circle and other departments. She was also active in the state work.

Their lives in the church, the community and the city stand out as Beacon Lights, shining and pointing humanity to the fact that there is a reality in right and righteousness. The church, the Community and city are proud to have had such an one in their midst.

He has departed from us leaving footprints in the sands of Mt. Moriah's time, that will long stand out. He has left landmarks that we can point to with pride. In our hearts and minds he has left memories that time will not erase.

We not only lose a pastor but a loyal friend as well, to whom we are greatly indebted. God has seen fit to call him to labor in another vineyard, so we bid he and his companion God speed and wish them success wherever they may go.

THE BANQUET

The Mt. Moriah Baptist Church of Omaha, Nebraska, honored their Pastor and wife Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Jones at a Testimonial Farewell banquet Tuesday, December 16, 1941 thus ending ten years of loyal service as Pastor of Mt. Moriah Church.

The color scheme for the dining room was green and silver. Cut flowers and candles in crystal holders formed center pieces for the tables. At each place was a favor in the form of a little cup containing after dinner mints and a tiny scroll tied with a red ribbon which bore the name of the church to which he was called.

Mrs. Luvonia Lewis dressed in blue and gold satin was mistress of ceremonies.

Rev. and Mrs. Jones and visiting ministers and their wives seated at the guest of honor table. Mrs. Jones wore a beautiful blue lace gown with a single American beauty rose corsage, silver slippers completed the costume. The program consisted of vocal selections and three minute talks by representatives of the Business and Professional Men, Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, the Community, Omaha Ministerial Alliance, the Press, New Era Baptist Association, Pastors Wives Council, Sunday School and BTU, Congress.

Presentations from the church were made by Mrs. W. R. Rogers, response by Mrs. V. O. Jones and Rev. F. P. Jones. The farewell song "Blessed Be the Tie that Binds" was sung as everyone stood and joined hands. Rev. and Mrs. Jones left the following morning for their new destination, Corinthian Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. Carrie Ward McGee wife of Lee McGee of 2302 Grace St., died suddenly Dec. 31. Survivors are a husband, a son and wife, Wm. and Florence Ward of Chicago, Ill., and a granddaughter, Dorothy Mae Ward of Omaha.

She was a deaconess and faithful member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church. She has one sister Mrs. Mattie Mitchell of Shreveport, La.

PRAY FOR VISION

by Ruth Taylor
Where there is no vision, the people perish."

In this hour of trial and tribulations, when a deadly, devastating war has been unleashed upon us, and the storms of conflicting rumors are stirring up intense anxieties, let us pray for vision to see.

First, let us pray for vision to see with clarity what lies before us in the coming months, to face the reality of things, uncolored by any shade of personal bias, whether it be the rose color of undue optimism, the deep green of pessimism, the flaming red of anger, the vivid yellow of pride or the gray of indifference. Pray for vision to see clearly things as they really are here and now.

Second, let us pray for vision to see with discernment; to look beneath the surface; to weigh every statement, considering well its force and its possible effect, to judge carefully and with mature wisdom; not to be taken in by any mere carefully stimulated opinion, nor by any of the whims, rumors so carefully set afloat by subversive elements, and so well calculated to upset the morale and minds of our sincere, God-fearing people. Pray for vision to see through mists that veil the truth.

Third, let us pray for vision to see with understanding to view with dispassionate but clear eyes not only what is going on, but al-
