It's January! Time to turn over a new leaf. Resolve to be a lovelier, better groomed YOU for 1942. Give yourself a thorough check-up. Have you been making the most of your good points? Have you been playing down your bad points? Let's start with your hair, because the one thing that men notice most about a woman is her hair.

The right hair-do can do wonders in correcting feature defects and creating the illusion of a perfectly balanced face.

For instance, if you have a broad, square face, find a hair style that makes your face seem longer and less wide. Bangs may be cute on your slim-faced sister, but they're not for you. Stay straight and comb your hair back over your forehead and leave it flat. This will give your chin more prominence.

A receding or protruding forehead can be effectively concealed by a downward swinging roll or bang arrangement. Fill in the sides of your face with soft rolls or curls. Stay away from off-the-face styles.

Having studied your type and decided on a style that suits your face, go to a competent hairdresser and discuss your problem with her. Your hair may be too thick and unwieldy for the hair-do you have in mind. In this case it will have to be thinned out and properly shaped.

In closing, just one final tip—Watch carefully how the operator sets your hair. Notice particularly the direction in which she winds your curls so you will know now to comb it later. Work on your hair a little every day—keep it brushed and smoothly arranged. More compliments from your friends will soon prove to you that it's worth the effort.

What are your beauty problems? Write: Marie Downing, Larieuse Beauty Bureau, 3509 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, Mo., and she will be glad to answer them. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

What the Soldiers Said
 A private said that he got orders from the headquarters that: "In case of a fire, ring the bell. In case of a war, run like hell..." Another, quite experienced to getting drunk said: "If you drink it makes your life unstable. If you don't you're dead already."

"RAYS". HOT TUNES MAKE DEMAND FOR RIOT INSURANCE
 The third appearance in six weeks of "The Swinging Rays of Rhythm" all girl band from Laurence C. Jones' Piney Woods school in the Capitol City of Mississippi—Jackson, at the Crystal Palace Christmas Matinee and Night drew more than a thousand dance fans and spectators.

It was one of the times in the history of the Crystal Palace that the Jitterbugs were not jittery for the crowd completely filled the dance floor. It was impossible to do more than bump and struggle. So great are the crowds in the street when "The Rays" swing in Jackson that the common expression is "You'd better take out some riot insurance on your Cafe."

The music of these dynamic girls has some sort of a psychological effect on the crowds that in the words of Shakespeare causes them to "Let joy be unconfined." Uncle Sam could use him in the army. Why not encourage him to join the colors.

E. T.—I have a boy friend and I asked him for a coat and a sweater and I haven't seen him since. Do you guess he has called it a day?
 Ans: When you mentioned the coat and sweater that was his signal to "take off". He won't be back for he's one of those fellows you read about who still owns the first nickel he ever earned.

M. M.—I read your truth wisdoms every week. I have wrote you several times before and have always been satisfied. Tell me please why my husband lied to me about things. I've lost all confidence in him. Would I do better just to quit him and go on my own? I work hard and he seems to want to use me as a tool.
 Ans: When a man reaches the and they both hit me and I pinched them back and we were laughing and playing tag when my husband came down. "That afternoon," asked for the car keys and he says "don't take them. So I put 'em on his knee and turned 'em" walked into the F-ring room and he threw the keys at me. I just got my hat and coat and started out when he comes to the door and says, "Let me hit you like your boy friends did." Also said call them up and use their car. I did not see why he should get angry because I laughed and talked with other men cause the who's choir was down there.

Ans: Let this be a good lesson to you. What sometimes starts out as foolish "horseplay" often winds up into serious business. True, you meant no harm... but you did wrong. Save your reputation for that's one of the little things that puts the sparks into young marriages. You're young and you don't realize you were suffering pressures with others that belong only to your mate. Be thankful that you love your husband and that he loves you and hold that love by reserving all your "playfulness" for him.

M. C. S.—Sir: My boy has got tangled up with a woman with a bad reputation. What can I do to wean him from her? She is leading him to the bad.

Ans: The one sure cure for this affair would be to convince the boy to leave town. Better that he leaves and lives a clean life, than stay and degrade himself and family by associating with the likes of this woman.

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C. J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madam C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossline, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
