And as most of you hep frames know, something new has been added to "Bronzeville"—The Green Lantern. The Bowling Alley and the Anna Louise Tea room. With all of these attractive entertaining places, it is sure to keep the "Rocks" shoe leather thin and the cobblers bizzy.

WELL! here goes the unusual weekly jive. ERNEST BRITT TAKES ANOTHER SLANT ON LIFE
The fine Ernest Britt, when he is not running on the road, is running over to see Helen King. They make a very fine couple.

ALL THE JIVE IS GONE!
It seems that Joe Fagan thinks so. E. L. must have been with somebody else and he must have found out.

AFRAID TO TRY HIS TECHNIQUE
George Station is now trying to try to go with two chicks at Tech. He might could do it but he's afraid to try his technique.

HELP!
Someone help Gene Harrison by lending him their fingers to count his chicks with. Lately he is being seen with Beatrice W.

HE'S PRETTY SLICK
Theotis Woods, better known as "Squeek" upon taking an order from the Drug Store, dropped a beautiful, gorgeous valentine with the order to a certain chick house.

TWO LOVES HAS LAWRENCE
Lawrence Gaskin was seen and has been seen quite a bit in the show with, The One he loves. The one that loves him (H. M.) is getting awfully jealous. period of the one he loves.

TWO PLEEZ
Charlie Williams is not wasting any of his fine jive. He is saving it all for Maggie Johnson. He was spotted Sunday putting down the bing at the ticket office of the Ritz Theatre and asking for "two pleeze".

SPRING WEARING APPEALS FOR GIRLS
This spring among the girls appeals the most popular will be draped suits. Plaids, tweeds, gabardine and plain woolsens.

Red, blue, pink and yellow plaids are very popular. The plain woolsens will be newer than the plaid.

A splendid example of the Girls' draped plaid suit is worn by Evelyn Stewart.

Next comes the shoes. Eloise Frampton and Roberta Longmore are modeling red low heel shoes. Other uncommon colors are green swade worn by a number of chicks along the stroll.

This spring the handbags will be large as usual and the shade will be a lighter color.

The Hats—Well, it's a bit too chillie to menshun them so we'll tie a scarf on our heads like the attractive blue and white one worn by Gloria Jean Claxton and call it a hat, until we decide what will be our most popular hat.

V FOR VICTORY

Pittsburgh, Kansas Pixpage—Symbolic of the important part American livestock will play in the current war, is this remarkable 2 week old purebred Milking Short-horn calf, born with a distinct "V" on its forehead. The calf a male, has been named Bonnie Brae Victory, and is owned by Dr. H. J. Veatch. Bonnie Brae Victory comes from a line of blue blooded stock, his dame having just completed an official milk record with a mature equivalent of 9,449 lbs. milk in 365 days on twice a day milking. It was her first lactation.

PEARL HARBOR DAMAGE
Pixpage—This official U. S. Navy photo shows a Japanese two man submarine beached on Oahu Island. The smallness of this craft, which figured so prominently in the attack on Hawaii is emphasized by its shallow displacement in the surf almost at the shoreline.
