DOUBLE V KERMESSES PLEASES

Marjorie Ware's ballet class was presented in a dance recital at a tea sponsored by the Chancel Guild of St. Philip's church on Sunday June 21, at the Urban League center.

den. She also danced the Baby Polka showing a remarkable sense of rhythm.

Gwendolyn Carter, Evelyn Joyce Rogers and Beverly Essex were three cute dolls who did a novel dance using hoops.

Velma McRae showed a great amount of talent and technique in Elaine Embrey, Velma McRae, her offering of an April Waltz.

Dewene Hale, Evelyn Joyce Rogers and Marilyn Burks were Spanish dancers who presented "A Little Tango."

Colorful ballet dresses were worn by the talented Barbara Dill, Marilyn Burks, and Ernestine Ryan who danced beautifully a difficult polka.

Marjorie Ware, in a ballet length formal of sunburst pleated black chiffon over pink silk, danced a tango solo to Valse's Waltz from the Bohemian suite.

The finale Grieg's Norwegian dance Number 11 was a gay and lively number danced in couples by Doris Washington and Barbara Dill.

Velma McRae and Beverly Essex, Elaine Embrey and Gwendolyn Carter, Marilyn Burks and Ernestine Ryan and Dewene Hale and brought prolonged applause.

After acknowledging curtain calls, Mrs. Ware introduced Cora Quick, her teacher for the past two years.

Miss Quick, who is known as Omaha's finest dancing teacher, has trained dancers for the Ak-Sar-Bon Den shows for the past eleven years.

In a brief speech she praised Mrs. Ware's teaching ability saying that "a dancer can be made, but a teacher cannot." Greatly impressed by the display of talent possessed by children on the program, she expressed a hope that, the class will have sufficient support from the public to continue in the fall and bring to North Omaha's youngsters a pleasant activity that is beneficial to health and beauty and is also the real foundation for future careers.

At the end of the program the ladies of the Chancel Guild at a table beautifully decorated in a red, white and blue color scheme, served the audience, candies, cake and orange ice punch.

We are looking forward eagerly to more of this kind of entertainment, and are reminded of a quotation from Ellis's book "The Dance of Life" in which he says "If we are indifferent to the art of dancing, we have failed to understand not merely the supreme manifestation of physical life, but also the supreme symbol of spiritual life."

We sincerely hope that our people will see the value of this type of training in giving their children an opportunity to prepare themselves for a better place in the future America our boys at the front are so valiantly fighting for.

Mr. J. R. Lee, president of the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical College of Tallahassee, Florida, visited in the city for a few days. While here he was the house guest of Mrs. C. H. Grant, 2502 Lake Street.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Isabelle Reddick and Mrs. Aurelia Johnson of Baltimore, Md. and one uncle Mr. Joseph Costen also of Baltimore.

A MESSAGE TO GALLOWAY

I've been called on to do many things but here's the latest emergency. Just before the Fourth I called at one of your subscriber's home. No one was home except the sister to the party I wanted to see. This sister had just brought home a new dress which she was to wear on a Fourth of July Outing. She called me in to help her adjust it and to pass inspection on it in general. What does that make me—a Modiste?

Was over to Bertha's again. You know she runs Bertha's Bar-B-Q at 1024 South 11th Street. (Naturally, I wanted a bite to eat.) She was telling me that business was particularly good because the Sleeping Car Men were holding some kind of a school in the Yards and the most of them came to her place to eat.

Running into Mr. Samuel Towles, the president of the local Sleeping Car Brotherhood, he explained to me that the school is the second one held in Omaha within the year but is a relatively new project for this district. He told me that Mr. S. C. Jones, the traveling Porter Instructor and Investigator, from Chicago, was in charge of the school, with Mr. Towles being the local instructor.

Little Francis Russ, six years old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Russ has been in the hospital for some time.

Mrs. Bertha Lawrence, 2914 Lake Street, was telling me that her mother, Mrs. Herron, has returned from Sioux City, where she had been visiting, for a short while.

Mrs. Marie Wright, 2520 North 25th Street, an Evangelist, has gone to St. Louis to attend a week-long convention there. From St. Louis, Mrs. Wright expects to go to Detroit and may do quite a little Evangelistic work before returning to Omaha.

Mrs. Wright was telling me, with much enthusiasm, about her son in the Army, at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland.

Mrs. Katie Smith, 2412 Capitol Avenue, was the one though who was really enthused about her boys in the Army. You know her son, Edward Lee Smith, is a Sergeant and has been in Australia since April. He sends his regards to all Omaha friends.

And Mrs. Smith's brother's boy, Howard Williams, is also a Sergeant in the Army. On the second he left America for an undisclosed destination.

And Mrs. Smith's sister's boy, John Taylor, is also a Sergeant and is also in Australia. Sergeant Taylor's mother is Mrs. Gessie Harris, who lives in the Project.

Quite an array of Sergeants in one family, eh?

Here's another Sergeant, Mrs. Katherine Moore, 1205 Pacific St., who runs an Eatery, catering to the Railway men, tells me that her oldest boy, Theodore A. Williams, is a Sergeant. He has been at Camp Funston, Kansas, but has left there now.

Her youngest boy, Luverne Williams, is a Corporal in the Army. Believe me these mothers are proud of their boys, too. If you don't think so just let them talk to you for a moment about them.

And if the mothers are proud of their boys, Miss Helena Thomas, 2708 Charles Street, is justly proud about her YWCA connections and those of her associates.

She, literally, filled my ears with news notes of the YWCA activities. But how am I expected to remember it all?

She did tell me something about some class or other closing on Monday, July 13th. It seems that about seventy girls have been attending this summer class since the fifteenth of June. They have been active in handicraft work... dramatics; sewing; music; ballet; worship, etc. and their handiwork is, or will be, on exhibit. And, I believe, some sort of an art exhibit, along with the Exhibits, is to be given Monday night, 8:00 p. m. and the public is invited—no admission being charged.

These classes have been under the direction of Mrs. Lydia Ray, and Miss Jeanne Wright, and other experienced girl reserve teachers, of the Northside YWCA.

I understand that Mrs. Gladys Irvin, formerly secretary of the "Y" who has been home (Omaha) on 30th Street, for a month or so, has returned to take up her duties as Field Director of the USO in New York City.

Mrs. Anna May Kennedy, of the Quack Club, and Mrs. Esther Essex of the Trojan Club, are spending a week at Lake Okoboji attending the Business and Industrial Girl's Conference there, beginning the 11th, I believe.

I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Charles Stewart, 2115 Madison St., during the week. He is one of the five or six colored men employed in Omaha as government meat inspectors. He was telling me all about his work, etc., and the regret that others don't qualify themselves for similar work.
