Published in this space every week The greatest star of the screen!

From the entertainment world comes the word that Random Harvest is the picture that everyone is taking to heart.

A harvest of praise is pouring in for this "Hall of Fame" picture, now in its fifth week at the Radio City Music Hall and still going strong. It's even forecast that Random Harvest will rival Mrs. Miniver and the ten-week record set by that famous picture at this famous motion picture house.

Ronald Colman and Greer Garson are the two bright lights around which a poignant and tender love story centers.

In fact it's the story of love-time in war-time for all-time!

James Hilton, author of Goodbye, Mr. Chips is likewise author of Random Harvest. So it is no random circumstance that Random Harvest is a great story.

And no random circumstance that this best-seller has been screened by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The Hilton-MGM combination works wonders—to everyone's advantage—especially yours.

Leo is purring like a well-pleased cat!

You'll purr, too, when you see Random Harvest!

Everybody happy?

We think everyone in America should be happy. Especially for being an American! And sharing in the good things this country has to offer!

the government aluminum plant in Arkansas when the REA sponsored Ark-La Electric Cooperative suffered a break down of its transmission lines. The Southwest Power Pool took over the entire load of the aluminum plant and furnished all of the power requirements of the aluminum plant for 85 hours, until the transmission line was repaired.

When the aluminum plant was first built, the federal government bureaus that were interested were advised that the power companies of the Southwest Power Pool had plenty of electricity to meet all of the power requirements of the aluminum plant. They advised the federal officials that there was no need for the federal government to turn over nearly four million dollars of taxpayer's money to the REA, sponsored Ark-La Electric Cooperative and also that there was no need to waste millions of pounds of vital copper and other metals for government-financed transmission lines paralleling existing facilities.

In the recent transmission breakdown, had it not been for the transmission lines of the business-managed Power Pool, the aluminum plant would have had to close down part of its operation for several days which would have meant a delay and the loss of over 100 tons of vital aluminum. This would have been enough aluminum to build scores of bombers and other vital war materials.

Power company officials pointed out that the ability of the Southwest Power Pool to handle the complete load of the aluminum plant is positive proof that taxpayers' money should have been conserved instead of being used for the building of REA transmission lines which were not necessary.

A hearing into the rates and charges of the Southwest Power Pool has been carried on by the Federal Power Commission and will

SOVIETS SHOVE BACK NAZIS IN DON AREA

RUSSIA—Red infantry fighters attack Nazis in the Don arch, west of Stalingrad. Latest reports say that the Soviets are developing their gains in the Surovikino area, 90 miles west of Stalingrad after punishing tank battles. Although many Nazi troop and transport planes still manage to penetrate the area, the number is being lessened.

NAVY PERFORMED MIRACLE AS SHE SANK

WASHINGTON, D. C.—When the 21,936-ton President Coolidge (above) went down after striking a mine in the South Pacific, only four men of the estimated four thousand troops aboard the transport were lost, thanks to the efficient rescue operations of the Navy's accompanying craft. The liner was apparently enroute to American South Pacific bases with men and equipment when she hit the mine.

be resumed in Little Rock on January 14. The power company members of the Southwest Power Pool showed with testimony of expert witnesses that the Pool was formed not as a business speculative venture but in order to make electric power available for the production of vital aluminum. Officials of power companies testified they were not interested in the Southwest Power Pool as a business deal.

The companies testified they were not interested in making a profit; that they notified the government bureaus they were willing to operate a power plant without profit and that the Southwest Power Pool is furnishing electricity to the aluminum plant at the lowest rate possible. The rate being charged to the aluminum plant was termed "too low" in testimony given to the Federal Power Commission trial examiner by rate and engineering experts, who testified during the first part of the hearing.

War goes on in the Solomons with planes, warships and troops of both sides fighting every day. Sometimes fleets clash in major naval conflicts, but for the most part it is troop battles on Guadalcanal and raids on enemy bases by our big bombers that keep this vital front from Rabaul to Henderson Field alive with action.

MIDWEST FARMER NEW CORN CHAMP

BLOOMINGTON, ILL.—Paul H. Peabody, Christian County farmer has set a new world's corn yield record of 191.64 bushels per acre in the Illinois state-sponsored annual 10-acre yield contest. The new corn king did it with a combination of good farming, Funk's "Q" Hybrids and "some darn good luck." Dr. J. R. Holbert, nationally known corn breeder, stated that Peabody's feat would have been utterly impossible with the Hybrid seed generally in use no longer than five years ago.
