 THE MECHANICS AND FARMERS BANK $300,000.00
 DURHAM, N. C.

Largest Check Ever Written on A Negro Bank

Believed to be the largest check ever drawn upon a bank owned and operated by Negroes, the above is a reproduction of a $300,000 check to purchase war bonds written on the Mechanics and Farmers bank of Durham, N.C.

The check makes the largest single purchase of war bonds which Negroes have made anywhere and brings the total purchases of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance company, whose president, C. C. Spaulding, signed the check, to a total of $2,120,300.

L. B. 204 Blundered says Lincoln Star News

WHEN IT DID NOT GIVE VOTE TO THE PEOPLE

The unbiased and impartial Lincoln Star recognizes that Omaha is faced by a serious problem in connection with a vote on the power question. In a recent editorial the Star made it clear that there is a strong possibility that the legislature blundered in not specifically providing for a people's vote when L. B. 204 was finally passed. Following is the Star's editorial:

A RIGHT TO VOTE
 It is not altogether clear what has happened in Omaha's power fight.

One of the latest developments unofficially reported is that under the provisions of LB 204, the legislature gave a flat grant of authority to the people's power commission to go ahead with its program without submitting the question to the people of Omaha. That may be the correct legal interpretation. If it is, then the legislators who voted for LB 204 will be horrified in looking upon the fruits of their own labors. Surely they nor anyone else would want to deny the American people the right to vote any time upon anything in which there is a genuine popular interest, and to vote at a free election.

But, say the lawyers, the lawyers providing opinions for the Omaha city council, LB 204 is not an ordinance—subject to popular vote under the provisions of the initiative and referendum. LB 204 is a legislative act, and in its effect upon the Omaha city council, and the people's power commission, appointed by the governor and the mayor of Omaha, the sole authority granted is purely administrative to put the provisions of LB 204 into effect.

If that is the case, it wouldn't be surprising if Senator C. Petrus Peterson is surprised at his own handiwork.

It wouldn't be surprising if Senator Harry Gantz, and Senator Joe Reavis, and all of the other Senators who voted for LB 204 would be dismayed that if in practical effect they had said to the people of Omaha that a vote could not be taken.

May each soul be rekindled with fire from above. Hallelujah thine the glory, hallelujah amen, revive us again.

Another Lord's day and the services were blessed with the sacred presence of the holy spirit. The afternoon worship period was superb and we feel sure that each and everyone present was benefited by the wonderful sermon delivered by Rev. C. C. Reynolds. The song numbers by the choir were also touching and uplifting.

The sermon delivered by the pastor at the evening worship was very good. "The talents" was the subject. Matthew 25, chapter the text. This sermon was timely bringing home to us the fact that we must use those talents that God has given to us profitably and for His cause for some day we must give an account of all to Him.

All clubs and auxiliaries responded well financially for the month of September.

The Sunday school and BTU department are asking each and everyone to be present and help them put over their program.

On the sick list is Brother Perry Taylor who is at Doctor's hospital. We are praying that he will soon recover and be able to mingle with us again.

Visitors and friends are always welcome. Your presence is an inspiration to us.

had to determine whether the people's power commission should proceed. The only time the people may vote, so it is said, is the selection of a condemnation court. And that certainly shows something woody in the present condemnation law, that needs legislative attention. Surely the people should have a right to vote after they know what the price is. This has been the weakness of the legislation under which Consumers organized.

FLIES FOR BOND RALLY

Kansas City, Mo., (For Press Service)—Marva Louis, wife of the famous flitana king, Joe Louis, flew here last Friday for a 3rd War Loan Bond rally. Mrs. Louis told friends and reporters as she stepped off for lunch at a Chicago airport, that she and Joe would only be separated for the duration and there would not possibly be divorce proceedings despite the many rumors to the contrary. She also stated that since her husband was busy in the armed services and she with a professional career in the office there would be little time they would have to spend with each other, at any rate. When asked about little Jacqueline, Mrs. Louis said, "Her precious bundle had been left in Philadelphia with friends, for a few days." She is shown in the picture above wearing the official uniform of her Joe Louis Service Guild, a unit created for National Defense and to sell bonds.
