FILIBUSTERING ON EMBAR- GO (NOT LYNCHING) IRKS CONNALLY

New York, Oct. 26—The spectacle of one of the Senate's stalwart filibusters against the anti-lynching bill, accusing an opponent of using this tactic in the current debate in the upper House on neutrality legislation, was registered in Washington October 17, when Senator Connally of Texas accused Senator Danaher of retarding debate on the embargo issue.

Officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People pointed to Senator Connally as a solon long famous for his use of the most vicious type of filibustering in the fight against passage of a federal anti-lynching bill.

ICKES REPRIMANDS INDIAN SERVICE OFFICER FOR BIAS

New York, Oct. 26—The Interior Department has reprimanded Special Officer James M.
Pyle, of the Indian Service, located at Tucson, Arizona and instructed the chief special officer personnel "take up with all the officers under his jurisdiction the matter of proper treatment of suspects and prisoners regardless of race."

Action against Pyle was initiated by the Tucson, Arizona, branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People last June. After an investigation by the branch, Pyle was accused of exhibiting a vicious anti-Negro attitude in his probe of the sale of intoxicants to Indians living in Tucson. He was accused of entrapping Negroes from the South into getting Indians to purchase liquor with marked money.

Representations made to Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, resulted in an investigation and the reprimand.

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS TO CONFER ON LYNCH BILL

New York Oct. 26—Further discussions on the Gavagan-Wagner-Van Nuys federal anti-lynching bill will be undertaken early next week, when Walter White arrives in Washington Monday to confer with Congressional leaders on the pending legislation, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announced here today.

Reiterating the Association's position on the bill, expressed in a statement issued last fortnight, have the bill brought up during the special session unless it is clearly indicated that other leg-taken up by the Congressional leaders. We intend however, to do everything in the way of protecting the preferred position of the bill on the House calendar."

Should a Penitentiary Warden permit vicious prisoners to escape to save the life of his beloved grandchild?

A WARDEN'S DILEMMA
Warden R. was a respected official and penological expert. He always maintained that prisoners, under no condition, should be permitted to escape and that guards should be ready to sacrifice their lives, if need be, to prevent a jail escape.

One day he was accompanying his granddaughter, who was the apple of his eye, to the prison auditorium to hear a prison band's concert and left her to answer the telephone. Six of the most vicious inmates grabbed the child, barricaded themselves in a room and informed the warden that he must permit them to leave the penitentiary, provide them with a car and not pursue them for a half hour, otherwise they would kill the child.
Should he comply with their demands, the granddaughter would be taken along and released later safe and sound.
HIS PROBLEM—To allow six desperadoes loose on the public would ruin prison discipline.
To defy them would mean certain death for his grandchild.
If you were in the Warden's place,
WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
