FRESH FROM THE COAST; ALSO FRESH FROM THE OREGON STREAMS

What? Those large, real fresh oysters that made the hit of the season at Mount Moriah Baptist Church, 24th and Ohio Street, by popular demand will be repeated on Thursday, January 23, 1941, from 6 p. m. to 10 p. m. Oysters with that real oyster flavor which you don't usually get in the mid-section so far from the oyster beds, by the Willing Workers club of Mount Moriah Church, who through some kind of maneuvering have succeeded in opening the Oregon oyster beds so they can get real, fresh oysters just out of the oyster beds 6 days when they are served to you. So join the march and head for Mount Moriah Baptist Church, Thursday, January 23, with your family and enjoy a fine, fresh oyster feast with the Willing Workers Club.

This Week In Religion and Thought BY ROBT. L. MOODY

The Common Defense— Our National Congress and State Legislatures have opened sessions. The issues to be discussed and settled are of the greatest importance in our history.

Someone has properly said that "The four binding forces in the world are: A common work, A common hope, Deliverance from A common peril and Loyalty to a common friend."

To realize the truth of the above statement and to help to fulfill its message is our individual responsibility for National defense. We believe democracy is the best system of government. It is being attacked by a common peril. Our hope is for its survival, so our common work is to promote it and remain loyal to its principles.

Those who do not perform military or industrial service can help democracy by understanding its aims and advantages. We can explain these aims and advantages to others and cause them to feel to know and to be willing to defend freedom and our inalienable rights which we receive only in a democracy.
