There are some men who can't take home a beefsteak without believing they are presenting their wives and families a present.

Call and inspect Kalstedt's immense stock of new goods. The finest selection ever exhibited in the city. Don't wait until the line is broken.

If all McCook people practiced supporting home institutions and industries the business of our merchants would be increased a nice per cent indeed.

Noble's jack rabbits—Jack and Jill—dropped down the hill at a "Three-Nine-Gait," Saturday morning, spilling out the youthful delivery lad and a companion, and slightly disfiguring the wagon.

Joseph Reizenstein has this week put at the head of the stairway leading to his place of business a decidedly unique sign in the form of a "base ballist." It's an improvement on the conventional Indian.

The Columbia Bicycles made by the Pope Mfg. Co. of Boston are the best on earth, and the best is always the cheapest in bicycles. Call or drop a postal for catalogue. A. J. BECHER, Agent.

A prairie fire started, last Saturday morning, on J. A. Bailey's place and burned over a thousand acres of ground between there and McCook. By dint of hard fighting it was kept from destroying much property, although lots of pasture land and some straw and hay was burned.—Culbertson Republican.

The Social committee of the Christian Endeavor society is arranging for an Ice Cream and Strawberry social on June 14th. Particulars will be given later. The funds raised will be used to pay the indebtedness of the society incurred during the recent convention. Any aid that may be given the committee will be gratefully appreciated.

REMOVAL.

J. F. Ganschow may now be found in his Elegant New Quarters in the Union Block, where he is exhibiting one of the finest and largest stocks of LADIES' and CHILDREN'S SLIPPERS to be seen in Southwestern Nebraska. Remember the "OLD RELIABLE" when you need anything in the shoe line. His goods and prices are always right. Be sure to remember that he has removed to the Union Block and is now located in the old Lytle store room.

Mr. Tate contemplates purchasing property and making Lincoln his future home.—Lincoln Journal.

The Twenty-Sixth Annual Session of the Nebraska State Sunday School Association will be held in the Baptist church in Fairbury, June 6, 7 and 8. A good program is provided. One and one-third railroad rate is obtained on the certificate plan, and free entertainment for all accredited delegates. A large and enthusiastic gathering of Sunday School workers is expected. E. A. Russell, Chairman of the Board.

OMAHA WORLD-HERALD:
A library is an invaluable thing in any household. It is a stimulus to education as well as an educator. It is a source and evidence of refinement. Those who cannot afford to have a full set of books on all general subjects, including history, biography and the sciences, cannot do better than buy the Encyclopedia Britannica. It has no superior, not even equal of its kind. The manifold topics there treated cover the general range of knowledge.
Yours truly,
JOHN L. WEBSTER.

On memorial day the grave of every union soldier buried on southern soil will be decorated with flowers. This will be the first time such an attempt has been made. The flowers will be purchased from a fund that has been raised among the G. A. R. posts of the north. It is intended that not a grave shall be overlooked. Commander-in-Chief Weisert will leave for the south Wednesday to look after the details of this new move and will visit a number of the southern cemeteries where union soldiers are buried. He will be in the south on memorial day and expects to deliver an address at some point in South Carolina.

There is a deal of red hot indignation felt towards Commissioners Young and Graham on account of the failure of the Carson road to go through. Some of the interested parties feel that they are being most unjustly treated in the matter, and that the road as prayed for should be granted.

By helping us gather news items you help yourself and enlighten your friends at a distance who are subscribers to THE TRIBUNE. Do not hide from us the knowledge of a newsy item and then wonder if the paper will have it the next week. Send the facts in, and we will put it in as presentable as we can, thereby "carrying the news to Sarah."

The appearance and especially the contents of the Nebraska building at the world's fair is a source of disappointment to many Nebraskans that have seen them and noted with shame the marked and painful contrast between the Nebraska exhibit and building and those of less wealthy and less favored states. Some one has evidently blundered grossly, if reports received at this office are fair and unprejudiced.

Unpaid personal taxes for 1892 became delinquent after February 1, 1893. Unpaid real estate taxes for 1892 became delinquent after May 1, 1893, and land upon which 1892 taxes are not paid will be offered for sale for the taxes on the first Monday in November. Interest accrues on all delinquent taxes at the rate of ten per cent per annum. Land sold for taxes can be redeemed by the owner at any time within a period of two years after date of sale.

It seems not to be generally understood that land acquired under the timber culture act is exempt from execution the same as a homestead, yet such is the case. The timber culture law contains the following provisions: "That no land acquired under the provisions of the act shall in any event become liable to the satisfaction of any debt or debts contracted prior to the issuing of the final certificate thereof."

The county commissioners will begin the consideration of the assessment rolls at their next meeting June 13. That is the time for those who feel that they have been assessed too high, to appear and make the same known, or forever after hold their peace.—Independent.

Eastern railway systems, notably the Pennsylvania and Lake Shore lines, will send every one of their employes for a two week's vacation at the world's fair. The example might be followed with profit by western lines.

VOLUME TWELVE.

THE TRIBUNE with this issue enters upon the twelfth year of its existence. For eleven years this paper has been a modest but persistent factor in upbuilding Red Willow county and the city of McCook, and for ten of these years of marvelous growth and advancement the paper has been under the present management. It has higher ambition for the future than an earnest striving for the growth and prosperity of one of the best counties in the peerless Republican valley and of the pearl of Nebraska's cities.
