Does This Interest You?

We will duplicate the prices of any out-of-town firm, no matter where located or what their pretensions are, and will set the work free of charge. Don't sign contracts on the strength of the fairy tales of the smooth-tongued stranger, without an investigation as to their statements. Most people are inclined to trade at home, providing they can do as well as elsewhere. We can't do your work unless you give us a chance to compete. If you give us the desired opportunity [which costs you nothing] it is up to us to land your order. Why not see us before you buy monuments?

What Shall the Harvest Be?

Becomes a leading question with the farmers at certain seasons every year. Generally the harvest is dependent upon the sowing. "As ye sow so shall ye reap" holds true in every department of life. You cannot deposit longings and wishes and secure any interest thereon. These must be crystallized into effort which produces dollars, and when these have been deposited in our bank you can come pretty close to knowing that the harvest for you will then be more dollars. Do you want them? Then get busy; get a passbook today. Get started right, keep at it and you will reap not a "harvest of barren regrets," but plain, straight, hard, big, round dollars.

It is wonderful how we can help you in caring for the harvest, and increasing the yield
