„OUR SOLDIERS FOR CHRIST“ By Rev. E. P. Ryden

The words were written over the signature of „Harry F. Rudy, Co. D, Machine Gun Battalion.“

It has been the most impressive evening I have yet experienced in Camp Wadsworth.

„Tell me the old, old story,“ we sang, and then I began to preach. The men seemed to be hungering for the old Gospel story...

I had arranged to hold a private service in one of the classrooms after the main meeting. Two boys had been prepared for baptism, and a third for confirmation...

Never will I forget our little after-math service! The rooms were so crowded many of the men had to remain standing.

After the baptism and the confirmation service we held a brief confessional service. Sixty-two men, including a Lutheran Y. M. C. A. secretary...

When the „Thanksgiving“ had been said and the men were saying good night, I asked each of them to sign their names on slips of paper.

It came entirely unsolicited. I of the writer, and perhaps I shall never see him again.

The last ten days here have cannot even remember the faces been unusually blessed days. I knew we had many of our Lutheran boys from Minnesota and Wisconsin...

On Thursday I found thirty-two Lutheran boys in Company G and sixty-two in Company H. We had those two Companies meet together for a devotional service...

Chaplain Chester gave us his hour in Y. M. C. A. building No. 99 and when the time of service arrived, the men began to swarm in.

The first part of the service consisted of baptism, two soldiers having requested the holy rite. Then followed the confirmation of a class of eighteen men.

„The most impressive thing I ever saw in my life,“ he declared afterwards.

When the service was over the men, too, expressed their delight. „I never thought there was so much religion in this camp,“ I overheard one soldier say...

Immediately after the service, Pastor Wind and I hurried in our car back to Spartanburg, where we held a second service of the morning in the little Lutheran church.

On Monday morning we were in camp again, where we discovered several men who had been unable to attend communion the previous day.

Tuesday we learned that another regiment was about to move, and that meant another hurried canvass. That night we were looking for men in Y. M. C. A. Unit 97...

In four days we had baptized six of our boys, confirmed twenty, and given the Lord's Supper to about 275. Who will say that the old Gospel story does not still appeal to the hearts of men today?
