-THE RED FRONT TEA STORE.

C. F. Iddins-Lumber and Coal.

E. C. Holbrook, dentist, Thaelecke's block.

Dr. Clark started Wednesday morning for Hot Springs, Arkansas, intending to be gone a month or more.

Good eating and looking apples at Langford's.

-In our business notices last week a number of firms were omitted for the reason they were forgotten until too late.

-Groceries, nice and fresh, at Jackson's.

-The Methodist, Lutheran, and Presbyterian Churches are observing the week of prayer in union services.

-The Red Front Tea Store.

-The county roads are now in fine condition and farmers find no difficulty in moving hay and other produce.

-Choice line of teas at Jackson's.

Some say "Consumption can't be cured." Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, as proved by forty year experience, will cure this disease.

-Those contemplating having photographs taken should remember that we have an artist in the city whose work has stood the test of years without fading.

-If you want a nice fresh loaf call on Langford's.

-Sam Urbach has opened a candy and confectionery store in the building on Spruce street lately occupied by Mr. Jackson.

-THE RED FRONT TEA STORE.

No sufferer from any scrofulous disease, who will fairly try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, need despair of a cure.

-THE BEST FIVE CENT CIGAR IN TOWN AT LANGFORD'S.

-The coming six weeks are generally alluded to as the dull season in business.

-I CURE WHOOPING COUGH.

DR. HINGSTON.

-The custom of New Years calling appears to have gone almost out of fashion.

-THE RED FRONT TEA STORE.

-While other points both east and west were nearly freezing to death Sunday and Monday, the lowest record here was five degrees above zero.

-Anyone purchasing one pound of baking powder at Jackson's is liable to draw a new Singer sewing machine.

-On next Sabbath morning the Presbyterian pulpit will be filled by Rev. G. W. Wainright of Blair, Neb.

-Langford is handling bread, buns, biscuits, cookies, ginger-bread and pies.

-One of the most enjoyable old folk parties that has taken place in the city during the winter occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Hall Tuesday evening.

-THE RED FRONT TEA STORE.

-Considerable interest was manifested Monday in a civil suit between Messrs. Cash and Cody, the former gentleman having brought suit to recover a meat bill run up by C. A. Dillon while foreman of Cody's ranch.

-THE RED FRONT TEA STORE.

-The cold spell has been hard on train men, especially brakemen, who have the most difficult work to perform in the management of a freight train.

Geo. C. Colburn, government land office inspector, came in from Lincoln the early part of the week and has been in the city several days on official business.

-Mr. Cohagen has disposed of his furniture and good-will of the Oumette hotel to Mr. Gehrig, formerly in charge of the electric light works.

-Active steps will be taken to secure the construction of North River bridge, and it is believed that the contract can be let and work commenced by the time the weather will permit.

-The cold wave and the cold wave flag made their appearance almost simultaneously. Boreas is a lively fellow some times and keeps Old Prob flying around with considerable friskiness to anticipate his coming.

-The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the residence of Mrs. C. G. Hall on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 13th, at three o'clock.

H. M. KIRBY, Sec'y.

-Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Hopkins will entertain the Young People's Society Monday evening at their residence on west Front street.

-The joint installation of officers elect of S. A. Douglas Post G. A. R. and U. S. Grant Camp S. of V. announced to take place at the court house yesterday evening, was postponed until next Friday evening on account of the inclemency of the weather.

-Lester Eells the retiring county treasurer, has been quite busy for several days making out his annual statement and settling with the commissioners.

-The people of school district No. 19-town 13, range 34-have recently completed and furnished a good school house and are in want of a teacher, nearly all the qualified teachers being at present engaged.

-Land office business continued quite brisk the forepart of the week notwithstanding snow storms in the east.

-Owing to the crowded state of our columns last week several interesting local items were crowded out, among others the marriage of W. P. Collins and Miss Fannie Wainwright.

-The jury in the Rankin case, tried in the district court on Omaha last week, failed to agree and finally agreed to disagree.

-West again, or a little northwest, on the B. & M. line from Elwood, in Gosper county, another string of towns has been located.

-Talking about reforms, the county commissioners evidently intend to try their hands in that line, judging from their orders requiring the county treasurer to issue tax receipts in triplicate.

-County Clerk Evans has selected Mr. S. T. Delator for his deputy, a gentleman who has had considerable experience in clerical affairs.

-The Ladies' Manual, a Guide to Women in Health and Sickness, is the title of a book that should be in every household.

Judge Hamer was among the passengers on No. 2 last evening going east. He had just finished the term of court at Sidney.

Alex. England, Jr., is home from a trip to the west, having during his absence visited California and Idaho.

W. W. Yates and O. V. Coulter of the west part of the county, interviewed this newspaper headquarters Thursday.

A. S. Brown, of the Revolution Clothing Store, went down to Omaha early in the week to purchase a large stock of goods.

Mrs. F. W. Richardson is on a visit to parents and friends in Boston, expecting to spend the winter. Since her departure the bank seems lonely to F. W.

Miss Allie Clark returned to the city Thursday after a several weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Omaha.

Arthur Day, formerly connected with the Electric Light, was a caller the early part of the week.

E. M. Searle, the successful real estate agent of Ogallala who has been coining money on his land deals the past year or so, spent a day or two in the city the early part of the week renewing acquaintance with his many friends in this vicinity.

Miss Carrie Leach, of Ogallala, who in former years manipulated the silent messengers of thought in the Nebraska office under the supervision of "Col. Bob" Newman, is now in charge of the school in brick building made vacant by the resignation of Miss Maggie Diamond.

This office is in receipt of a handsome printed card announcing the wedding of Miss Maggie Diamond.

The new county officials assumed the duties of their respective positions Thursday, the old ones retiring with that grace and dignity becoming veterans in any service.

The jury in the Rankin case, tried in the district court on Omaha last week, failed to agree and finally agreed to disagree.

Next week will truly be a gala one in North Platte, for there will then take place two of the most important events ever known in our amusement annals.

The appearance in our little city of the celebrated Milan Grand Opera Company, and the opening by this great attraction of Lloyd's new opera house.

Our citizens will be delighted when they read this announcement, and the management of the theatre are to be congratulated on having secured so magnificent an attraction to open the new house.

The Milan Opera Company is the finest and strongest operatic organization now on tour in this country.
