

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

A meeting of the Republican State Central Committee will be held at the Millard hotel in Omaha on Tuesday, June 29th, at 7:30 p. m.

KING LUDWIG, the deposed king of Bavaria, committed suicide Sunday evening last, taking the water route. The attending physician in attempting to save him was also drowned.

EVEN the democrats are now raising the cry that Sparks must go. Don't go, Sparks, don't go. You are making more republican votes where you are than in any other place you can find. Stay right there.

E. E. BROWN, a member of the senate from Lancaster county and one of the best lawyers in the state, has been brought out as a candidate for U. S. senator. We believe he is a straight-out conservative republican and as such would have a tendency to unite the discordant elements of the party.

SOME time since we notified the Omaha Herald that we were with it in procuring the abolition of the surveyor general's office. The good doctor hasn't called on us yet, and we don't see that he is making any material progress either.

OUR neighboring city of Holdrege over in Phelps county "is liable to become the state capital in the near future," and is enjoying a tremendous boom, so the chroniclers say, on the strength of this. Holdrege is entitled to a boom on its own merits, but we serve notice on its good citizens and all others that when the capital is moved we shall insist on placing it in the geographical center of the state, which is at Broken Bow, Custer county.

H. V. Hoagland, secretary of the Illinois soldiers' association of Nebraska, has issued a roster of Illinois soldiers in Nebraska. It is a valuable work to old soldiers. Extra copies may be procured for ten cents by addressing H. V. Hoagland, Lincoln, Waverly.

THE Nebraska state fair will be held this year from the 10th to the 17th of September. Secretary Furnas has favored this office with a copy of the premium list.

THE proprietors having posted some obnoxious rules, the cooks and waiters in the restaurants of San Francisco went out on a strike. The proprietors soon conceded the point. An empty stomach will bring any man to terms.

TELEGRAPHIC advices announce that the Western Union has reduced its rates about one-half. Such reductions often result in increased receipts, which will very likely be the result in this case.

THE A. O. H. has held a second reunion and it was a grand success. Now let the O. D. B's of Nebraska have a reunion. They would have a high old time.

THE death of the King of Bavaria has thrown the British court into mourning, in which woeful condition it will remain three weeks.

SAYS the Omaha Herald: "And by the way, at whose instance, and for what purpose is Senator Van Wyck preventing the confirmation of Receiver Glover and Register Burch at Valentine. Before the senator is sixty days older in years than he is now we shall endeavor to ascertain."

FROM present indications it appears to be the intention of the B. & M. to cross the Union Pacific at Red Lion, not far from Denver Junction. The Gazette of the latter place thinks that by voting bonds the crossing can be secured at that point. As it will be two or three years before the road is built that far it seems idle to discuss the bond question at present.

THE following is the 1886 class of the University graduated at the commencement exercises in Lincoln this week: Charles Sumner Allen, Mary Randolph Campbell, Cora Ellen Fisher, James Robert Ferec, George Bell Frankfort, Abraham Lincoln Frost, Nora Eliza Gage, Kathleen Georgiana, William Owen Jones, Wilbur Clinton Knight, Sophia Myers.

THE Valentine Republican warns its readers to be on the lookout for horse thieves, and to be prepared for any emergency.

THE annual conference of the M. E. church of Nebraska will be held at Pawnee City, September 23d. Bishop Fowler will preside.

CLOSE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

There are 325 members of the present congress. Following the returns made at the last election of congressmen, there will probably be from one-third to one-half of the members of the Forty-ninth who will be sent back by their constituents to the Fiftieth congress. There are 186 members of the Forty-ninth who were members of the Forty-eighth congress. The 325 members of congress are appointed as follows, the delegations from the several states being as shown by the sub-joined table:

Table with 3 columns: State, No. of Representatives, Total. Includes Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

A closer analysis of the composition of these 325 Congressional districts reveals some facts of the highest interest to both the great political parties of the United States. There have been several deaths of members of the present congress, but these have not materially changed the relations of the party majority or minority in congress. It is sufficiently close a statement to make that there are 195 democrats and 140 republicans in the present house. This is a gain of twenty-five republicans and a loss of fifteen democrats, from the preceding—the Forty-eighth—congress. There are thirty-two doubtful districts where the contests of this year will be waged for the most part.

THE election congressionally the coming November. The only southern states involved are Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia. There are few "doubtful" districts in the south. In Alabama, Georgia, Texas, Louisiana, South Carolina and Mississippi there was either "no opposition" to the democratic candidates for congress in 1884, or else the vote was overwhelmingly democratic, which was practically the same thing.

THE Grand Island Independent's enthusiasm for the nomination of General Thayer for governor is not inspired altogether by Mr. Hedde's admiration of that sterling old statesman and soldier. The Thayer boom, so far as Hedde, Rosewater and that class of political shysters are concerned is a gilded bait by which it is expected that the real friends and admirers of Thayer will be attracted like moths into the Van Wyck candle. It is not the intention of these kid-gloved farmers to favor Gen. Thayer, even by a friendly word much less by any substantial help, except so far as such a course will bring strength to the best farmer of them all, Van Wyck. One needs only to use half an eye to see that these self-constituted leaders of the Farmers' Alliance have but one single object in view and that is to return Van Wyck to the senate and to accomplish this object they would build hovels in heaven and palaces in hell, and in the end would assign their tools to both these abodes with equal facility. We have never believed for an instant that the leaders of either faction of the republican party wanted Gen. Thayer for governor. The Rosewater crowd can nominate but cannot elect him, and the straight-outs can elect him if they choose to do so, but have no disposition to even nominate him. The fact is that General Thayer has no more chance becoming governor of Nebraska than he has of becoming Czar of Russia, and any support that the Bee or Independent may give him is designed to flatter the old soldier element into a support of ticket the Rosewater crowd may put up later.—Broken Bow Statesman.

THE new educational town of Bartley, in the Republican valley, is booming. The recent appraisal of the assets of Malleen university, made by Hon. J. W. Dolan, commissioner, and approved by Judge Gaslin, placed them above $150,000. A school year will be begun in September, and as soon as the assets can be realized fine buildings will be erected and a strong faculty organized.

IN the coming election in England the voters will be called upon to decide between bayonets and dynamite—between coercion and agrarian outrage—between home rule and despotism. Which will they choose?

EXETER Enterprise: A party of railroad surveyors are working along the old line of the Omaha, Seward and Republican Valley survey, making the fourth time this route has been surveyed. That a railroad will be built along this route some day we and the Enterprise are of the opinion that now is an opportune time to stir up the animals.

A little bunch of 1,100 ponies were corralled near Trenton last week on the way to the northern part of the state.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

THE ladies of the Catholic church will have an ice cream social at St. Patrick's hall on Tuesday evening next, the 23d. The social qualities of the ladies of the church are such as to insure an enjoyable party.

BALONA and other sausages always on hand at Phil Klenk's.

THE Third Ward. EDITOR TRIBUNE:—I notice in last week's TRIBUNE a budget of interesting items from the First ward which suggests to me that a few squibs from the Third ward would not be out of place. And at the same time allow me to remark, disclaiming any intention to find fault, that I think our part of the city has been considerably neglected by the city press. I hope this will be a gentle hint to the eagle-eyed TRIBUNE reporters to in the future see the progress and improvements we are making.

THE Third ward has kept pace with the other wards in improvements. B. C. Dixon has a fine residence near the northern limits. Jack West is the pioneer of the Third. He put up the first windmill in this part of the city on what is now the property of Victor VonGoetz, one of the finest places in the ward. The tallest cedar tree in the city is now growing there. Jack now has a fine place a few blocks farther west.

THE grader is at work on north Locust street. It will require a great deal of work to get the street in good shape.

MISS Samnelson and all others on that block have fine and tasty residences.

THE Tom Moran property and all others in that neighborhood have done well.

THE Third ward school house and surroundings are in fine order, neat and clean. The school under the efficient management of Miss Carr and Miss Conway, is in the same condition.

Wm. Jeffries and some others in his neighborhood have fine prospects for their gardens, indications of industry and thrift.

Jerry Cronin is one of the most successful gardeners on the north side, and this is saying a good deal where so many are above the average.

THE bridge across the slough near Walnut street ought to have a railing on as a matter of safety. The slough is an eye-sore to that part of the city and what to do with it has puzzled the city fathers for a number of years.

Work, plant trees and raise flowers then you will not be seen prowling around in the night raising your neighbors' flowers.

Wm. Seibold is the happy father of a boy and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hubert also rejoice over the advent of a girl.

—If in want of a fine tea go to Ormsby. New Harness Shop. On Locust street, in building lately occupied by J. D. Jackson. Full stock of everything in harness line. Call and see J. W. BELMER.

ABOUT 225 persons are employed in the Falls City canning factory.

LOUP City it seems is having quite a boom inaugurated since the advent of the railroad.

BLUE Hill had a case of highway robbery last week in which three villains were arrested, two of them being bound over to court. They were a desperate gang.
