

PEOPLE AND EVENTS.

Mrs. J. H. Paige, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. I. Nesbitt.

John McCallough of Maxwell, was in town this week, after wrestling with rheumatism for many months.

C. P. Ross arrived home from Lincoln Wednesday morning, having just been laying out the Hawkins addition to Lincoln.

J. S. Hoagland went up to the new town of Tabor, in Cheyenne county, early in the week to attend to land office business.

Mrs. Warren Lloyd returned from Cleveland, Ohio, Thursday morning, where she had been to attend the funeral of her brother.

Dr. E. C. Holbrook returned from Hastings yesterday morning, having experienced a pleasant time at the dental convention.

Dr. W. E. Barrett, agent for the International Cyclopedia, gave us a pleasant call yesterday morning. The International is an excellent work.

Chas. McNeal of Silver Creek, N. Y., brother-in-law of Geo. Prest, was in town several days during the week, that he might judge of the possibilities and probabilities of the country.

Harry Ferguson, who has been attending commercial college in Lincoln for several months, arrived at home Wednesday. He will attend another term of the school this fall.

W. B. Chalkin, cashier of the First National Bank, has been quite ill for a number of days with a threatened attack of malarial fever. His numerous friends trust he will soon be at his post.

J. N. Nesbitt, of Graham, Ohio, brother of County Attorney Nesbitt, has been visiting his relatives in the city this week. It is not unlikely Mr. Nesbitt will locate in this good part of the West.

Mr. Ottman, the efficient deputy county treasurer, is expected soon to go into Foley's store as book-keeper and manager in Mr. F.'s absence. Mr. Ottman has a thorough knowledge of the mercantile business.

Wm. Cartwright, who has been Mr. Foley's book-keeper for some time, has again taken service with Mr. Patterson. Will has a thorough knowledge of the mercantile business and is a valuable acquisition to Mr. Patterson's office.

Dr. A. H. Starr, of Red Willow precinct, was in the city a couple of days this week, being his first visit in six months. Everything looks prosperous in his neighborhood, and the people expect the railroad in about 15 days.

Nathaniel E. Martin, of Concord, N. H., was in the city several days this week. The object of Mr. Martin's visit to the West is to thoroughly inspect this portion of Nebraska, where he has a large amount of money loaned on real estate. W. C. Lemon is his agent in this city. After looking over the county, it is needless to say he was highly pleased with his securities.

W. L. Park of this city went to New Orleans last week to reside with the conductors in their national convention. This is what the Times-Democrat of that city says of him:

Messrs. W. L. Park, of the Union Pacific Railroad, with Messrs. W. C. Lemon, of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, and Harry Gilman, of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, with Messrs. W. C. Lemon, of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, are doing the city in true military style, leaving no point of interest unvisited. They express themselves as delighted with what they have seen, and look with no little regret upon the time which will be consumed in taking their flight homeward. It is the wish of the many acquaintances whom they have formed here that they may soon be again in camp.

HONOR THE DEAD.

Memorial Day, May 30, 1887.

Programme of Exercises at North Platte.

COMMANDEER GILMAN'S ORDER. Headquarters S. A. Douglas Post No. 99. Grand Army of the Republic, North Platte May 20, 1887.

General Order No. 1. The citizens of North Platte, Lincoln Co., ere loyal true to country and home, keep sacred the memory and strew the beautiful flowers on the graves of our heroic dead. The holy consecrated custom should not be marred by merry-making.

S. A. Douglas Post No. 99 of North Platte, cordially invites all citizens old and young, soldiers and sailors, to unite with them in proper observance of Memorial Day (the 30th inst) at North Platte Cemetery in the morning, and at the Court House in the afternoon. The churches, schools and all civic societies of North Platte, are requested to unite with the Comrades of the G. A. R., in paying loud tribute to the brave who battled for our flag, our country and our homes.

Upon each patriot's grave let our blessings and benedictions fall. God bless the loyal brave who sleep in the silent city of the dead.

P. J. GILMAN, Commandeer.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it is proper that on Memorial Day all people should assist in observance of the time dedicated for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of the deceased defenders of our country;

Therefore, I call upon the business men of North Platte to close their respective places of business at 10 o'clock on Monday, May 30th, 1887, and abstain from business transactions throughout the remainder of the day.

—The Nebraska & Colorado Railroad track is being laid through the county at the rate of about one mile per day. No stations have yet been located.

—Mr. Belton has moved the old wooden building on Spruce street formerly occupied by him as a hardware store to the lot north of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. B. has not yet decided whether he will build a brick block this summer or not.

A BIG DEAL.

A Syndicate purchases a Large Tract of Land and Will Lay Out an Addition to the City.

One of the biggest Real Estate deals since the boom struck our city was consummated Saturday last. A syndicate of home and Omaha capitalists have purchased of B. J. Chinnman all the land he owned west of the city and lying north of Second street, including the lots and blocks owned by him in his second addition, the whole amount being over one hundred and sixty acres, at $250 per acre, amounting to something like $40,000.

As soon as surveyed the company will proceed to plat the tract and make an addition to the city.

This land is very choice. It will soon become the favorite part for the suburban homes, where people can surround their dwellings with beautiful gardens, now practically impossible in the original part of the city. Already men of means are talking of buying blocks as soon as platted for this purpose, and the Tribune predicts large and rapid rates.

The name of the addition has not yet been decided upon.

DIDN'T GET THEIR MAN.

A Deputy Sheriff and Posses of Logan Co. are "Stood Off" by a Determined Young Man.

The "Highwayman" Still at Large.

A correspondent from Arthur county furnishes us the following account of the attempt to arrest a man named Harris, who is supposed to have robbed Major Bush, the paymaster, up in Wyoming recently. This is Harry Hopkins' side of the story and is probably as accurate as the sensational accounts published in the daily papers. There is no truth in the story of $3000 reward, or in the statement that the Sheriff and a posse from Kearney had been scared off by the bold and gallant highwayman. He has nerve and can send a bullet just about where he wants it to go, and it would be a difficult matter to round him up on an open prairie.

Harry Hopkins, a popular young man of good character, has acted in the capacity of agent for several years on the Horse Ranch of Williams & Haskell six miles northwest of here. A short time ago he resigned his situation with the object of going into mercantile business.

About the first of May a young gentleman by the name of Harris came to the ranch and having some money he put up the same against the lands and chattels of Hopkins, thus forming a partnership. In a short time suspicion pointed to the stranger at the Horse ranch as the robber of Major Bush, and on pretense of entering land on La Munion place, the deputy sheriff and two men went from Gandy to arrest him. On reaching the Horse ranch the officers learned of the absence of Harris. They then went to where Hopkins was busy building his store to arrest him. Hopkins went voluntarily with them to Gandy a distance of seventy miles.

The Sheriff and deputies on their way to Gandy were very boastful and talked a great deal about men they killed and men they did not kill, and they never failed in arresting their man. Hopkins was worried to death by the sheriff who held him in the buggy about his feet and exploits, that would have done credit to a knight of the heroic age.

About midway between the ranch and Gandy the bold and youthful stranger showed up on a hill side in close proximity to the road. There's your man, said Hopkins, arrest him; the deputy did not move. The stranger pointed his gun upward three times as a challenge and in defiance. He then fired at the buggy sending a bullet through the top. The Deputy got out of the buggy and being irresolute, standing with legs apart, Harris fired a ball between his legs.

The Deputy ran towards his comrades and Harris fired again, to expedite his movements. The terrified Deputy fired but with a different gun.

Hopkins drove up to Harris, requesting by him not to shoot any more and further stating he was not a prisoner.

Harris "were you a prisoner I would shoot your two horses. I would then kill theirs and then I would tie them up and flog them, and drive the three Ganders into Gandyville ahead of me as the shepherd dog drives sheep.

Harris is about twenty three years of age of pleasing manners and address, modest unpretending and unassuming, and would easily pass for a carpet knight.

Hopkins straightened his affairs with the Gandy authorities, and gave this report when on his way back to build the store and commence business.

—As the Tribune predicted, those who attended the concert given by the Troyan Concert Company at Lloyd's Monday evening, experienced an evening of sweet music. The wooden horns produce a soft melodious sound, and being in the hands of expert musicians, soothing and enchanting to lovers of music. The company deserved a larger house than they received, there being only a moderate number present, and a good portion of those going in on complimentary. This is not a good concert or lecture town.

—There wasn't a majority of the members present Monday evening and there was no meeting of the council. Mayor Hammond, clerk Warner and councilmen Roach, Snyder and Hook were present, and devoted the time to a profitable discussion of several subjects, water-works being a principal topic. It is evident this important question is not yet dead.

—After a couple weeks' patient trial, the strawberry market in this city has reached something like bed-rock prices. You can now get a box of very fair berries for twenty cents, and we believe the bottoms are not as high up as usual.

—Some patrons of the Brooklyn irrigating ditch complain of too much water lately, several places being overflowed. The head gate is probably raised too high, admitting more water than the ditches can profitably carry.

The high school department of the public schools of North Platte will graduate its first class this year. The names of the members of the class are: Lester Walker, George Patterson, Bertha Tholecke, Margie England, Mary Sullivan and Annie Stolle.

There were a number of others who belonged to the A class and would be among the graduates; had they continued in school. Some of them left to attend higher schools, but most of them to pursue the different avocations of life.

We surrender considerable space this week to the publication of the list of premiums offered by the Agricultural Society to the exhibitors at the annual fair this fall. Only about half of the list is printed; the balance will be published next week. The premium list in pamphlet form will be ready for distribution the first week in June.

A street railway is talked of, and we believe the improvement is among the realities soon to be realized. The proposed route is to start from the railroad hotel and run south to Fourth street, thence west on Fourth street to a point opposite the fair ground, thence north to the fair ground. It would greatly enhance the value of property in the west part of the city.

The Agricultural Society has erected a small building on the fair grounds to be occupied by a person who will look after the property of the Society, believing this will be more economical than paying out several hundred dollars annually for repairs.

The Hawkins addition to Lincoln is a very beautiful and valuable tract, being sixty acres just east of the insane hospital. The numerous friends of the family in North Platte will rejoice if it proves to be a big bonanza.

Klenk & Gatward have made arrangements to ship fresh meat up and down the road by express in refrigerators. By this arrangement parties living at a distance can be supplied with fresh meat at all times during the hot weather.

ENJOY LIFE. What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease as soon as born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles ten cents. Try it.

Another Big Sale.

It will be remembered that in February W. E. Beach sold the ne. 1/4 of section 32, adjoining the northwest corner of the city, to Lincoln parties for $4,000. It was considered a good sale, as the TRIBUNE stated at the time, indicating as it did a rapid rise in values. Mr. Beach having paid but $1,000 for the tract. A couple weeks since, Kansas City parties looking for investment, offered $6,000 for the forty acres. Messrs. Hoagland & Ross, in whose hands the property had been placed, telegraphed to Lincoln for lowest figures and received in answer that it would take $8,000 to buy it. This was considered too high, and negotiations were opened resulting in the parties meeting half way and the sale was effected at seven thousand dollars, Mr. Samuel H. Finkenstein of Kansas City being the purchaser.

This is a pointer. It points to more than is known by our people. It shows that outside capitalists are aware of the value of North Platte real estate, and are not afraid to put their money into it.

The Nebraska and Colorado railroad runs through considerable land owned by Bernard Beer, and he was not satisfied, with the amount offered him as damages, accordingly a suit was commenced this week in the district court to recover the amount claimed by Beer, Hinman & Grimes being his attorneys. There are land, which Beer thinks is worth three thousand dollars. A part of this is school land. After the commencement of the suit, it was agreed to submit the case to arbitrators. The gentlemen selected for this delicate work are Thos. C. Patterson for Beer and John E. Evans for the Company.

The storms in progress as we went to press last week, were quite severe in many places in the eastern portion of the state, culminating at Blue Springs in a regular twister, destroying the large brick school house at that place, and fatally wounding one man. A woman was killed by lightning a short distance away. There were small cyclones at several other points, but we have not heard of any loss of life. At North Platte the weather was threatening for several days and we could hear the distant murmurings of storm, but no rain of consequence reached us until Monday morning, when it came in fine shape, wetting the surface of the ground very nicely. All vegetation is in fine condition, growing with great vigor.

Otterstedt, Hershey & Co. received a big threshing machine Saturday of the Vibrator pattern. Mr. Davis of the firm has traveled extensively through the county and says one would be surprised at the amount of small grain sown. There will be work for the threshing machines.

Buchanan Items. EDITORS TRIBUNE: The general remark of most people nowadays is "very warm," "hot day," "we need rain," etc., all of which is true. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hawkins seem to take kindly to ranch life.

We are sorry to report Mrs. H. P. Bishop in poor health but hope it is only a temporary affliction.

Mrs. W. B. Votaw is training the youth of district No. 25. Mrs. Votaw we understand was a successful teacher in Illinois. She has sixteen pupils.

The Social in May was at the home of Silas Wolf. There were some forty persons present; a good supper and a good social time; collection amounts to $65.00. The next social will be held at the home of Mr. Stroth, on 2d of June. Doors open at 7 o'clock. All are cordially invited. A good social time warranted with supper, all for the small sum of 25 cents.

Rev. Eddiebute continues to preach at the home of Ira L. Miltenberger. His congregation increases with each Sunday. The number will range from 25 to 40. Although the preaching and singing is of a high order, and the accommodations quite comfortable, there are quite a number of our citizens that fall to come out. There will be an effort next Sunday to reopen our united Sunday school. The school was adjourned last fall.

Corn planting is being pushed rapidly. A very large acreage will be planted. With seasonable showers corn will be plenty in Lincoln County the coming year. Our farmers have sown quite liberally of oats and flax.

Sorry to learn that Uncle Bija Wilkins is suffering from one of those agts that afflicted good old Job.

Fred Schick's team of lively bays came near getting away with his new spring wagon. Fred was coming home from North Platte.

Joe Hawkins is the most popular young man in this neighborhood, judging from the number of his namesakes.

C. D. Shrader of Logan brought thirty-five head of fat steers to town Saturday, being the concentration of his last year's corn crop. They would average fifteen to sixteen hundred, being too heavy for our local butchers. He shipped them to Chicago, although the market is down, having fallen steadily off for six weeks.
