SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1887.

- There were heavy showers in the eastern part of the state Monday. While indications were favorable here there was no rain to speak of. Sunday night there was a light local shower.

-Mrs. John Chapin, living some six mile south of town, was the first to bring green corn date. Of course THE TRIBUNE was not forgotten.

-When the Plum Creeks were here last week they felt considerably chagrined at their defeat, and felt confident they could beat the Platters on their own stamping grounds, in spite of the fact that they had had one opportunity to do so and failed. Accordingly a challenge was extended and accepted to play in Plum Creek Sunday. When the North Platte men arrived at the Creek they were very cooly received and it was soon evident that premeditated insult was contemplated. This was actually carried out in several instances, that discretion was the better part of valor. The game was very warmly contested, the score standing fourteen to fourteen at the end of the standing fourteen to fourteen at the end of the school. The director had ninth inning in spite of what our men considered very partial umpiring. On the the tenth inning the Creekers scored a goose egg and Plattes two, thus securing the game and the boodle, a purse in which it is alleged the umpire had $25. If this is the case, it would be difficult to give impartial

This afternoon there will be a game between the Julesburg and the North Plattes, at the fair grounds in this city. On Sunday afternoon the Gothenburg nine will cross bats with our men at the same place. Both of the visiting clubs are said to be extra amateur organizations, and fine games may be expected.

L. F. Fetterly, a gentleman formerly in newspaper business in the eastern part of the state, has been spending the week in town, He came here with the expectation of taking a situation on one of the papers, but through some mistake help had already been secured and his services were not needed

Sam Urbach arrived from New York Sunday accompanied by wife and child. Mrs. U's health has improved considerably lately, and we have no doubt that under the invigorating effect of our climate she will continue to do so. Mr Urbach says that The TRIBUNE is one of the best immigration agents that can be sent to New York, every one who reads it being seized with the Nebraska fever at once. There are thousands anxious to find homes in the west.

Miss Carrie Belton, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Will McDonald, pleasantly entertained a number of friends at her home Tuesday evening. The guests were in a gay humor and well prepared to enjoy the hospitality of the hostess. Various entertaining amusements were held on the lawn during the early part of the evening and later the party assembled in the parlors to listen to some excellent vocal and instrumental music and to partake of refreshments. The guests departed at twelve o'clock, having spent a very pleasant evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wherry, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Iddings, Miss Culbertson, Miss Cleland, Misses Laura and Lillian McCracken, Miss Bowen and Messrs, C. A. Mc Donald, Bare, Hawkins and Sherman.

On their recent trip to Plum Creek the ball players were accompanied by a citizen who occasionally uses language not approved by the clergy. During the progress of the game the umpire made many rank decisions and the spectators jeered the North Platte boys for all they were worth. This raised the ire of the aforementioned citizen and walking up to attorney Sinclair he emphatically de-clared that if he was an agent of the devil and was looking for a new location for hades he would select Plum Creek with-out searching farther, and also thought very few of the present residents would need be removed.
