Gas is going out of use in London houses; the best rooms are never lit by it now. It is at length acknowledged that the effects of it are too damaging for health, and worse still, for delicate furniture, hangings and pictures.

The London Times notes with pleasure a magnificent gift to the city of Bombay given by Dinshaw Manockjee Piti. We understand that it is fully equal to the gift of Jamesjee Jejeebhoy, but we doubt if it can surpass that of Ramdam Googoojeede Huckbuckabashit. We have forgotten what it was, but it was a corker.—Philadelphia Call.

The inter-state commerce law contained a provision prohibiting pooling. If this meant anything it meant that the railroad companies must not combine to put up rates. Yet under the name of "Weighing Bureaus" and "Associations" the old pool commissioner with a new official name is given power to put up rates, and put down competition far beyond any power passed by the commissioner in the pool times.

CURE FOR SICK HEADACHE. For proof that Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills cures sick headache, ask your druggist for a free trial package. Only one for a dose. Regular size boxes cents. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

The murder of Kenedy, a Washington attorney, by an insane man, again calls attention to the fact that Washington is most prolific with cranks, and that, with unpleasant frequency, the crankishness takes the form of murder. From the time of Lincoln down to a president has occupied the white house, but that attempts have been made on his life, and in two cases successful attempts. Yet a number of men can be found who are willing to take the chances of assassination.

An old negro who was preparing to remove his household chattels, and who desired, as the representative of a certain class of negroes always does, to create the impression that he possessed valuable goods, looked slyly at several acquaintances, and then calling one of his children, said: "Tell yer mudder not ter fill my personal trunk wid dat silv'ar. De Lawd knows I doan want dem railroad folks ter be chargin' me wid extra baggage."—Arkansas Traveler.

If you would enjoy your dinner and are prevented by Dyspepsia, use Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets. They are a positive cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency and Constipation. We guarantee them. 25 and 50 cents. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

Dr. H. Pereira Mendes, one of the best known Hebrew rabbis in this country, puts a great truth tersely and well when he says: "Humanity is not religionized if women need escort of a night." He might have added, a city is not civilized so long as women without an escort must go hungry in its streets of a night, as a woman novelist, whose name is known over this country and Europe, has done in New York within a fortnight, because no restaurant, until she could provide herself with a male acquaintance, would serve her a meal.—Kansas City Journal.

The Mormons in Utah are very desirous of having the territory admitted into the Union as a state, but as the movement in this direction is opposed by both the democratic and republican committees, the plans of the saints cannot be carried out. Utah has the requisite number of inhabitants, but as a majority of the people are in favor of a theocratic, rather than a republican form of government, it is best for Uncle Sam to keep them immediately under his thumb, until his Mormon subjects have become somewhat Americanized.

At Night always have Acker's Baby Soother at hand. It is the only safe medicine yet made that will remove all infantile disorders. It contains no Opium or Morphine, but gives the child natural ease from pain. Price 25 cents. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

"Ginlemin," exclaimed an Emerald Islander, who was holding forth to an assemblage of men on the advantages of belonging to a society of which he was President. "Ginlemin, I couldn't begin to tell ye hals the privileges appertainin' to membership in this society, but I'll tell ye a few. First, whin ye are sick, it'll not be pertaters an' tay ye'll be gittin', but fine cuts of roast bafe and lashin's of the best whiskey. Nixt, whin ye are dead ye'll have such a foine funeral that the folks on sidewalk 'll be after askin' wid their eyes stickin' out like lobster's, 'Shure who's in the coffin?' An' whin ye are buried we'll take such exceding good care of your wives and children that they'll all be rejoicin' greatly because they're widders an' orphans.

Carlyle refers to Dickens as an actor, having seen him in one of his amateur performances. He gave it as his opinion that Dickens' genius was essentially histrionic and mimetic; that with his faculty of keen and minute observation, his general alertness of mind and body, his mobile power of expression, he had all the requisites of a successful actor, and that had he lived at a great period of the drama, in the Elizabethan age for instance, his genius would have found its appropriate outlet on the stage. He would have become a popular comic actor, writing a humorous piece now and then, perhaps as was the custom of such actors in those days. But while living under different conditions and working with his pen, his books still retained and revealed the native genius of their author. They had the sustained, if rather jerky liveliness, the pleasant tricks and mannerisms of a humorous portraiture upon the stage. He was, in short, a born actor.—Athenaeum.

A report just prepared by Revenue Collector Calhoun of this state for transmission to Washington shows that there were 2,534,920 gallons of distilled spirits made in district of Nebraska in the last year and 2,280,512 gallons sold. This includes whiskey, rum and alcohol and is only the output of two distilleries—the Willow Springs of Omaha and the Nebraska City distillery.

STARTLING BUT TRUE. WILLS POINT, TEXAS, Dec. 1, 1885. After suffering for more than three years with disease of the throat and lungs, I got so low last spring I was entirely unable to do anything, and my cough was so bad I scarcely slept any at night. My druggist, Mr. H. F. Goodnight, sent me a trial bottle of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. I found relief, and after using six $1 bottles I was entirely cured. J. M. WELDEN. Sample bottle 5 cents at A. F. Streitz.

Ouray offers to the refined and wealthy of the overheated East a harbor free from each and every evil tending to make life a burden in the lower and more densely populated altitudes. Ouray is headquarters for scenery; the distributing points for climate; the angler's heaven and nunrod's paradise. We have drives lovely beyond description. We have walks were lovers can kiss without detection and embrace without discovery. We have densely shaded grottos where the overhanging boughs shield the susceptible and unsuspecting, and a constituency the male portion of which is accommodating beyond belief. Come early and avoid the rush.—Ouray (Col) Muldoon.

In a gathering recently of five or six men, most of whom are at least reported to be wealthy, doubt was expressed by each one if there is a man in New York who could draw his check for $1,000,000 and have it honored in actual cash. One of the group, a prominent financier, said: "I know of an instance not long since which is a fair illustration of these million-dollar checks. A London man had a business transaction in which a payment was to be made to him of $98,000. For business reasons he did not wish the checks to be passed as in ordinary business transactions. A check had been given him on Mills, Glynn, Currie & Co., who are the recognized outside bankers of the Bank of England. He went to them and demanded the cash for the check. They had not so much money on hand and were obliged to ask him to wait until they could go to the Bank of England and procure it. When he had secured the cash he went to the other bankers to make a deposit. The second house refused to accept the money on deposit until he had explained to them in the fullest manner where he got it. They had never had so large a deposit made in cash at one time. They would not accept it without knowing where it came from, and looked upon him with suspicion for having so much cash in his possession until he had explained the circumstances of his business. Of course the Bank of England had money enough to meet such a check or a much larger one, the same as the United States Treasury would be able to meet a great demand. But the fact that $98,000 should be a stumper for two of the biggest banking establishments of London indicates how small a part actual cash plays in the business transactions of the day."—New York Tribune.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At present, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and affecting a permanent cure. Price fifty cents. Address the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua Ohio. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Planter needs it—can't get along without it. The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard. The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in his supply of stowage aboard. The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance. The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble. The Railroad man needs it and will need it so long as his life is a round of accidents and dangers. The Back woodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer. The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once. Keep a Bottle in the Factory. Its immediate use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages. Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.
