It will be necessary to use wooden guns in the American navy. Metal ones break through the rotten timbers. However, wooden guns have been known to prove effective in the history of this country. They frightened McClellan from advancing his army of 200,000 men up the Peninsula.—Republican.

Some of the members of one of the sections of the first class at West Point who rode down to visit the Twenty-third Regiment, of Brooklyn became insubordinate returning to the Point, and as a result one cadet has asked leave to resign and four have been summoned for court-martial.

Save the Children. They are especially liable to sudden Colds, Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. We guarantee Acker's English Remedy a positive cure. It saves hours of anxious watching. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

A denial comes to hand of the rumor that Governor Lounsbury is known to be the giver of the $125,000 presented to the Yale University recently. The giver himself and President Dwight are declared to be the only persons who have positive knowledge about it, and they won't tell. There is another story extant that ex-President Porter is the man.

Twenty-seven years ago the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby, then a professor in the University of the City of New York, thought New York should have a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, and thereupon he organized one, the Boston and Providence organizations being the present ones. Nine sub-branches have sprung up in New York from this first branch, which the leading ministers of the time tried to frown down. The association's membership in New York is now about 5,000, and its library contains over 35,000 volumes.

Now Has Faith.

I had been troubled all winter with cold and pain in the chest and got no relief from remedies recommended by Druggists and Physicians. At the same time I was advertising Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. I had little faith, but thought to try it as a last resort, now I believe even more than they tell me of its curative qualities. [From the News, Elizabeth, Ky.] Sample bottles 5 cents at A. F. Streitz's Drug Store. 1

Philadelphia Press: The action of the Ohio convention has revealed the scheme of the Cleveland administration far more plainly than any other thing has done. The necessity for a harmonious policy on the tariff question in Congress and in the party conventions has been openly proclaimed. The declaration of the Ohio Democrats under the circumstances is a notice that the Democratic majority in the coming House will be required to make a substantial free-trade record for the party, and those will not be regarded as Democrats who fail to come in under the policy of the administration.

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrophulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal. For Sale by A. F. Streitz.

New York Tribune: The Republicans would be glad to see the Democratic party take a definite position on the tariff and the surplus question. It would especially help them to see public patronage employed to guillotine Democrats who reject an administration tariff. The process would make the country understand what Mr. Cleveland's "reform" really means, and what kind of tariff is to be expected from the election of a Democratic President. The growth of industries at the South, and the development of public opinion in Western and Southern States on the necessity of sustaining agriculture by building up manufactures and enlarging the home market, would render the result sufficiently certain.

As a young officer doing duty with a Madras cavalry regiment, Sir Edward Bradford was a keen sportsman. One day when tiger shooting he "missed his mark," and soon found himself in the tiger's clutches. It was an anxious moment, few of his friends being at hand. As a sportsman of experience, Sir Edward knew well that the best course was to lie quietly and sham death. The tiger surveyed his prey, looked around, and thinking all was safe, set steadily to work to make his meal. Taking the young officer's hand in his mouth it was steadily disposed of, and the arm eaten to the elbow, before Sir Edward's companions came up and released him. The cool resolution of the man in feigning death had been the means of saving what has since proved to be a most valuable life; for, as Sir Edward says when telling the story, had he moved, or uttered even a groan, the tiger would have put an end to his existence before going on with his repast. Of course the shattered arm had to be removed from the shoulder. It may be imagined what the suffering was which the victim endured while lying, quite conscious, in the power of a voracious "man eater."

Can't Sleep. Nights is the complaint of thousands suffering from Asthma, Consumption, Coughs, etc. Did you ever try Acker's English Remedy? It is the best preparation known for all Lung Troubles, sold on a positive guarantee at 10c., 50c. For Sale by A. F. Streitz.

An American tourist named Dickens fired his revolver to awake the echoes of Killarney; result, five hours of delay with police and magistrature.

"Gath" better come home; he's discovering too much. Writes he: "Whenever you see the word Fitz in an English name you may guess that it might be descended from an illegitimate branch. Fitz was a corruption of his, or son, and when a king or prince had a bastard whom he acknowledged he called him Fitzgerald, or Fitzmorris, or Fitzjames."

Liver Pills.

A few days ago Alderman Salbreiter, of the Seventh ward, issued invitations for a feast to the friends of his dead wife, who were kind to her during her last sickness. Last night the event occurred, and was one long to be remembered by those present. A large number of uninvited persons took advantage of the hospitalities extended, and made the gathering one revelry. Liquid refreshments were the order. The host used his utmost endeavors to eject the disorderly parties, but failed. On the streets outside the lawn over 3,000 people congregated to witness the festivities. The fact that physicians had been appointed to enquire into Mr. Salbreiter's mental condition, enhanced the interest in the event.—Excelsior Special.

Many of the good things of this life are sorrowfully let alone on account of Dyspepsia. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Constipation; sold on a positive guarantee at 25 and 50 cents, by A. F. Streitz.

It may not be generally known that among those who have been deprived of railroad passes under the new order of things are the elders of the Mormon church. Owing to the peculiar wording of the law, which permits free transportation to ministers of religion, the disciples of Brigham Young are denied the privilege which is still extended in the reduced fair to orthodox clergymen. The Mormon elders are not regularly ordained ministers, and consequently are not in charge of regularly stated congregations contiguous to lines over which reduced rates are requested; hence the denial of the benefits referred to. What effect this has had upon Mormon evangelization it would be hard to tell, but that it has materially increased the expenses of that sect may be gathered from the frequent reports of its members' indefatigable labors among the unbelievers in this country and in Europe.—Merchant Traveler.

AN EPIDEMIC.

A Violent Form of Cholera Morbus at Belknap, Iowa, Prostrates the Whole Community.

A Plain Statement of Facts by a Leading Merchant of the Town.
Last summer we had an epidemic in this community in the form of cholera morbus. Nearly every man, woman and child was prostrated by it, and it seemed to be a very violent form. We tried every medicine we could find without relief. I then went to Ottumwa and Blake, Bruce & Co., wholesale druggists, advised me to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I done so and distributed it, and it gave relief immediately; it worked like magic. I ordered more of the remedy at once, and sold it during the day at my store and at night at my home. I sold as much during the night as I did during the day. The people here cannot say enough in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
J. H. HELLWIG, Merchant, Belknap, Iowa.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and affecting a permanent cure. Price fifty cents. Address the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua Ohio. Sold by A. F. Streitz.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine. The Mustang Liniment is in case of accident. The Housewife needs it for general family use. The Cattleman needs it for his team and his men. The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench. The Miner needs it in case of emergency. The Pioneer needs it—can't get along without it. The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard. The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply aboard and ashore. The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance. The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble. The Railroad man needs it and will need it so long as his life is a record of accidents and dangers. The Backwoodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer. The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when these come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once. Keep a Bottle in the House. The best of economy. Keep a Bottle in the Factory. It immediately use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages. Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.
