

Mr. Wherry's bond so post master was received during the week, signed by the necessary bondsmen good and true, and returned to the proper authority for approval.

By reference to the list of transfers recorded elsewhere, it will be noticed that real estate was not so dull after all in January for a mid-winter season. This list does not include U. P. deeds made on contracts or transfers in trades or bequests, the intention being to give only such as were made for a valuable consideration.

Bro. Dyer of the Telegraph has had a "rocky" experience with printers during his short career as a publisher. A few years will convince him that no reliance can be placed in a tramp printer. Johnny, we extend our sympathy.

At the council meeting next Monday night the proposition to extend the city limits will be considered, and a right lively time is anticipated, as all property holders interested have been invited to be present. While the time is a lively time Monday night, there is a chance a regular picnic on Tuesday night, when the subject of levying an occupation tax will be taken up, at least that is the intention now. All who feel an interest in the question should be present.

In the matter of the dispute between Waldo & Evans and Asa T. Marcellin as to the ownership of the horse alluded to last week as alleged to have been stolen, a jury trial was had Wednesday afternoon resulting in a verdict in favor of Marcellin. The case will probably be taken up to the district court.

After a week of agony, the inflammatory rheumatism which so suddenly attacked Rev. Martin, departed with equal suddenness, and the Reverend gentleman will soon be able to resume his ministerial labors.

The county commissioners will make an effort to have the fall bond on the school fund at 5 per cent interest at par. The bonds run for twenty years and the authorized interest is six per cent, but as the board of public lands and buildings will take long time bonds at five per cent, it is believed they can be placed in the school fund at that rate without in any way invalidating the bond. This would be a saving of about eighty dollars per year on the interest.

Col. Hupfer was summoned to serve on a jury Wednesday. Not being anxious to devote half a day to the duties of a juror, he wanted to know by what right they could compel a postmaster to serve on a jury. Upon being asked if he had been sworn in as postmaster, he said no; but he wanted to know if he was not postmaster of North Platte, who was a conundrum that put the lawyers to arguing and resulted in Mr. Hupfer being excused.

C. P. Ross recently found several excellent specimens of fauna in Rock Springs colt, the carboniferous formation of the secondary age. Mr. Ross thinks that the fauna was of tropical growth, but the writer thinks he has seen similar vegetable formations growing in swampy places in the northern states.

Mr. Bradley the photographer will move his car in a week or so to Carbon, Wyoming where he expects to stay some time, when he will move on to other points in the West. While here Mr. B. has made many friends, and he will receive a cordial welcome on his return, which however he expects to stay some time as it will take him from three to four days to make the trip he contemplates.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Price entertained the Whist Club in a pleasant manner Wednesday evening, those present expressing themselves as having had an exceptionally enjoyable game.

Thursday evening a party consisting of several neighboring families met at the residence of H. L. Brown on the south side of School Dist. 44. Social conversation and plays of various kinds were engaged in until 12 o'clock at which time we were allowed to sample some of the goodies for which the ladies of the party are noted for so liberally preparing on all such occasions. After supper we were so pleasantly entertained that 3 o'clock only found us starting for our homes. The surprise and surprised party alike felt that it had been an evening very pleasantly spent.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS. G. W. Peterson of Garfield made us a pleasant call yesterday forenoon.

C. H. Babcock, auditor of public accounts, was in the city Wednesday on official business.

Con Groner, formerly a well known citizen and for several terms sheriff of this county, spent the week in town visiting his numerous friends. Mr. G. now resides in Omaha.

John Rylander of Walker precinct, was in town Wednesday. He hardly ever comes to town, without adding something to THE TRIBUNE'S subscription list. On this occasion he brought us two subscribers.

F. A. Brady, District Manager of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, was in the city several days this week. Mr. Brady's headquarters are at Denver, to which district this part of Nebraska will hereafter be attached.

I. K. Neely started Saturday evening on a visit to friends in Illinois, Mrs. N. having preceded him several weeks ago. Since taking the management of the Plant ranch, Mr. Neely has closely applied himself to business and is entitled to and needs this respite from labor. We wish him a pleasant visit.

Mr. Ed. Brainard and Miss Minnie Nation took a trip to North Platte a few days ago. It is not our funeral, but we just want to remark that when a young man draws a bed-room set one day and his old the county seat with his best girl the next that the proverbial colored gentleman is secreted somewhere in the woodpile.—Wallace Herald.

J. W. Elder, of Medicine, uncle of Bill Elder the political sage, was a caller Thursday and said he had a desire to subscribe and pay for a "black" Republican paper. His wish was at once gratified, and in this connection we would incidentally remark that during the past two weeks the subscription list of this "black" Republican paper has increased at a rate surpassing as well as gratifying to the publishers.

The Photo Car will remain this month only.

Stern Facts! READ THEM.

Have you ever known a COX Shoe to disappoint you in style or wear? Have you ever known the time when so many dealers are urging the names of different manufacturers for recognition? Don't you know all shoe makers consider their make the best? Why? Simply because they want to flood the country with "trash", claiming at the same time that they are cheaper in price but better in quality. Don't be deceived by this nonsense. We could give the names of hundreds of these people who are daily deceiving the public by stating their so-called facts. Who wears the Cox Shoe? Why those who recognize a good article of wear when they once get it. They are worn by ladies who take special pride in footwear. They are worn by young ladies to give them an elasticity in walking that no other shoe can give. They are worn by everybody for style, cheapness, comfort and economy. They are the rage everywhere and we have CUT the prices.

T. J. FOLEY, NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

P. S. We are giving great drives this week in Ladies' Underwear—New Goods.

County Commissioner Walker arrived home Tuesday morning, after making a visit to different points in the eastern part of the state examining jails and gathering information of a practical nature on that subject that will be useful to the board in building our jail. THE TRIBUNE has on different occasions suggested that the county should not indulge in the luxury of patent cells, which are expensive and really more ornamental than useful. Maj. Walker returned well satisfied that this view is correct. Where prisoners had escaped they had broken out of patent cages; besides it is found very difficult to warm them in winter, it being frequently necessary to bring the prisoners out to the stove to get them warm. We believe that every thing that enters into the jail, as far as possible, should be purchased and manufactured at home. And a cell can be made at home by our own mechanics for half the money that will be much better to hold a prisoner safely than any patent contrivance yet offered the public. We believe in that economy that begins at home.

There is always more or less dullness in the real estate market during the fall and winter months, but as we noted a couple weeks ago there are indications of lively transfers early in the spring. Several of our real estate men are now negotiating large deals, one for twelve acres, and another for nine. Town property is also changing hands, most of the purchasers intending to improve; indeed, there is very little demand for speculative purposes, the money market being too close for that. It is yet too early for immigrants, but on long posted real estate men made the assertion this week that the population of the county will increase two thousand during the summer.

LOCAL BRIEFLETS. Louis Welte and son, old timers from way back, now living on the Middle Loup, Custer county, were in the city Tuesday shaking hands with many friends, glad to hear they are prospering.

Hershey & Co. unloaded several car loads of implements this week. Members of the council have been contemplating the subject of raising means to take a half dozen additional electric lights. Indications point to success.

James Doyle of the Red Willow country brought in a load of corn the fore part of the week. This is hauling corn a long distance, but he seemed to be satisfied with the result. The farmers of that part of the county were blessed with good crops, and North Platte is the best market they have.

A large number of Garfield farmers were in town Monday disposing of their surplus produce, for which they get satisfactory prices.

Frank Pearson, of Elsie, Keith county, made a flying trip to town last Tuesday. Frank reports lively times in his town.

Richard Brown, of Nichols was doing the town last Friday.

Col. Stinson made a business trip to Colorado last week he reports that a number of families are on the way to locate on the line of the irrigation ditch.

The new U. P. local trains are a big thing for North Platte, but the Omaha Republican seems to think they are a big thing for Omaha too. On the morning of the 4th it editorially remarked:

"A Big Thing for Omaha." "The Republican has the pleasure of announcing this morning the new arrangement of the Union Pacific for local train service, which is to go into effect next Monday. The arrangement is by all odds the most complete and in every way important regarding local trains ever made by any road entering this city. The equipment for the new trains will be the finest. Cars have been built expressly for this service, and that they will be well patronized, is a certainty from the start."

A number of our citizens have been suffering recently with a disease that seems epidemic, the first symptoms of which is a sore throat, followed by an affection of the head or kidneys. It generally runs its course in five to ten days and in some cases is quite severe. A. P. Anderson and a little son of Abe Bridge are now bed-fast with the trouble. A number of others have been troubled during the past week, but are about well again.—Gothenburg Independent.

The Leap Year Party. When THE TRIBUNE two weeks ago predicted that the leap year party would be a success it based its prediction upon the—to use an inelegant word—rustling abilities of the ladies forming the different committees. But the party was even more successful than the most sanguine expected, it was in a word a towering success and reflected on the ladies a degree of credit that cannot be overestimated. In the eye of the most critical everything was beyond criticism. There was no jar—the arrangements being so complete in every detail as to avert any discord—hence every lady and gentleman present had an exceptionally pleasant time. The reception committee, consisting of Mesdames McGee, Randall, Ellis and Hilliker, were all smiles and received the attendants at the door in a manner warm, generous and graceful. Mesdames Keith, Griffin, Price and Shepard, who had charge of the floor discharged their duties to a perfection scarcely expected by the gentlemen, indeed the sterner sex could not have been more successful.

The attendance at the party was large, about seventy-five couples being present, many of the ladies using carriages to convey their company to the hall. The stage was laid with handsome rugs, furnished with card tables and easy chairs, thus giving those who did not dance an opportunity to pleasantly pass the hours in playing cards and indulging in social intercourse. The program consisted of twelve numbers with two extras and in time to excellent music furnished by Prof. Monagan's full orchestra the happy devotees of Terpsichore danced with unalloyed pleasure. About half past ten an elegant collation was served, the tables remaining spread the remainder of the time affording the dancers an opportunity to strengthen the "inner man" by a high class repast.

The attention shown the gentlemen by the ladies was such as to discount the attention the average gentleman bestows upon a lady. Every wish was appreciated by the fair sex and executed in a manner decidedly graceful and pleasant. Everybody wore their "best clothes," flowers were abundant, all looked sweet and pleasant, and taken altogether the leap year party of 1888 will long be remembered and alluded to. The ladies in charge certainly deserve the thanks of the gentlemen present for furnishing them such a pleasant time, and in behalf of the boys THE TRIBUNE congratulates the ladies upon the success they attained.

Leap Year Social. The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a leap year social at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Donaldson Thursday evening February 22d. The gentlemen are expected to provide the lunch, each coming with a box filled with a sufficient number for two. He will put his card in the box and the lady obtaining it will pay for the lunch at the rate of a quarter cent a pound, and the gentlemen will provide for their gentlemen. All are cordially invited.

The largest number of people that have ever been entertained at one time in Lloyds opera house were present Tuesday night to witness the performance of the home minstrels for the benefit of G. R. Hammett, Editor of THE TRIBUNE's dramatic editor having other engagements at that time, we are unable to give a report only from hearsay—and that is most favorable, old play-goers maintain that the performance was in many respects up to the professional standard. The receipts were large, if anything exceeding the expectations of the company. There is talk of having a similar entertainment by the same artists before the season is over.

Postponed. The entertainment announced to be given by the pupils of the High School on the evening of the 19th, has been postponed until Wednesday evening February 22d, on account of the death of one of the High School pupils.

The City Election. The time for the city election is approaching, but so far there has been but a small amount of talk on the subject. So far as candidates are concerned, this family paper is not in favor of drawing party lines. We have a State and National canvas before us, and before the summer is over we are likely to get all the agitation on political subjects we want, and we see no reason why an element of that kind should be injected into municipal affairs. Our present Mayor, Geo. W. Hammond, we presume will be a candidate for re-election, although we have no authority to make such a suggestion. His administration is intimately connected with the water works improvements now in process of construction, and of course his election may be considered an endorsement of that policy. There are other candidates, no doubt, who would make excellent representatives for the city, and their friends may bring them out. One thing THE TRIBUNE will insist on, and that is a more strict enforcement of the Secum law on Sunday. It is a fact, but perhaps not susceptible of proof in court, that this provision of the law is not strictly lived up to. It should be enforced, a course that will receive the assistance of the leading licensed dealers.

Mr. Warner has an acceptable clerk and if he desires the office it is likely he can be elected without opposition. The council reduces the treasurer's salary, as now seems likely, aspirants for that office may be quite scarce. There will be one councilman to elect from the First ward, one from the Second and two from the Third. As a rule, taxpayers are not very anxious to fill these offices, but we presume enough will be found willing to serve their country in these important places.

Transfers of Real Estate. Following are the principal transfers of real estate recorded in the office of the county clerk from the 18th day of January to the 14th of February 1888. Unless otherwise noted, they are by warranty deed. Only bona fide transfers are reported.

These trout are said to be in almost any running water, and will even live in ponds. They will be distributed in the Birdwood, Fremont Slough, Medicine and other small streams in this county.
A TEMPERY FALL.—At 2 p. m., Sunday the temperature was about 70 degrees. By 2 o'clock Monday morning it had fallen to nearly 66 degrees above zero, a contraction of nearly 66 degrees in 12 hours. This can appropriately be called a heavy fall.
