HA! HA! THE BEST OF ALL!

It did not take five years to discover that the Jewel Gasoline Stove was the only safe gasoline stove made, but in 1887, the first year it was introduced in North Platte, FORTY-SIX were sold, more than was sold of all others combined. We have them with either drop tank or the pneumatic, and in the language of the poet, "no pump to get out of order or gas forced through the room," but can prove that less gas escapes from it than any stove made and can show it has many points of superiority over all others and prove to you that the Jewel is The : Best : Stove : Made. They are all guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction and will consume less gasoline than any stove in the market. Call and examine the latest improved Jewel and be convinced and you will buy no other. RESPECTFULLY,

L. STRICKLER.

SOMERSET. SOMERSET, April 9th.—The weather is fine, grass looks beautiful, and we farmers are all busy sowing oats and plowing for corn. We put in our wheat some time ago and it is now coming up. Rye that was sown last fall looks fine. I believe winter wheat will do well here. Easter Sunday is a thing of the past, but our roosters crow as lustily as ever. Good Friday was a big day among us farmers as the majority of us made gardens and planted potatoes on that day. R. C. Brown expects to have new potatoes in three weeks. Hon. Jas. I. Nesbitt and Supt. Langford of your city were to be seen at W. C. Elder's residence last Monday and Tuesday. They were on legal business, but we cannot excuse Prof. L. for not coming over. At our election in School District No. 28 held Monday we voted a twenty-four mill tax and school began Tuesday with A. J. Blougher teacher, who will continue to be "boss" for three months. Joe McMichael has twenty-five acres of ground ready for corn, but so wonder for he has a riding plow. W. C. Elder is off on a trip to Red Willow county. Iowa people find it hard luck trying to come to Nebraska over the R. & M. Jos. Dugler has arrived with two cars of stock and farming tools. He was on the road six days. A. V. Newport lost a horse last week. John McMichael will plant his potatoes in the moon again this year and if he don't have a crop this time he will plant them in the ground next year. Stick to it John. Edgar Stebbins has returned from his Iowa visit. Elias Rambo expects to plant eight acres of potatoes this year. We expect a wedding soon—but don't know any particulars. Will inform you when the event occurs. FR. G. RANGER.

Will Be Married. Hon. Geo. W. Helst arrived yesterday from Washington where he was sent a few weeks ago, with Mr. W. J. Powell to look after the interests of Ft. Sidney. Mr. Powell went south after the business was accomplished to visit friends. Judge Helst and Mr. Powell were introduced to General Sheridan by Congressman Dorsey, and they explained the business they had and the reasons why Fort Sidney should be maintained and enlarged. General Sheridan explained his idea concerning military posts which was that they should be built near large cities, where they will be most needed in future, and the troops gradually concentrated. But at the same time General Sheridan does not intend to abandon Ft. Sidney for several years yet and the post will be kept in proper repair, Congressman Dorsey, Senators Manderson and Paddock, and in fact the whole Nebraska delegation are working vigorously for Fort Sidney. Judge Helst is well pleased with the result of the trip, and is confident that there will be a good allotment made this summer for this post.—Telegraph.

Escapade. James Halley resides, on a farm about 7 miles southwest of Stockville, in what is known as the Conkling neighborhood. He has the reputation of being an industrious farmer and is generally respected by his neighbors. He has, or did have, a wife, and three children aged respectively, six, four, and two years. Some time since, an intimacy sprang up between Mrs. Halley and a worthless fellow named Wm. Murray, who was engaged at work in the neighborhood. Halley appeared to be blind to this growing intimacy, though the neighbors seem to think it strange that he should have been so blind. Frequently the guilty parties would go to a country dance together leaving Halley at home with the children and it was noticeable that, at these parties, the conduct of Mrs. H. and her paramour was anything other than commendable. Last Saturday night, the matter culminated in the guilty pair leaving Mrs. Halley's home while Mr. H. was in bed with the youngest child. A short time after the escapade, the child awakened Halley with its cries, when he called for his wife. No answer came. Searching the house, the husband found himself abandoned. He dressed, and securing a neighbor to stay with the children, went in search of the run-a-ways. About three o'clock Sunday morning, he arrived at Stockville very much excited and apparently unable to outline a definite course to pursue. He says he has no desire for the return of his unfaithful spouse but would like the thirty-five dollars of his money that she carried off.

Later it has been found that the run-aways arrived at Moorefield, about six o'clock in the morning, went to the hotel and immediately retired. They arose in the afternoon in time for the train east. They purchased a ticket for Lincoln.—Stockville Faber.

In the absence of B. M. Gilbert, of Paxton precinct, from home a couple of days last week, a burglariously inclined individual broke into his house and carried off a quantity of house furnishings, after breaking up a clock and several other articles and burning a portion of the end of the house by setting fire to the floor inside. From this place the party or parties appear to have made another raid on the home of Mr. Wilson, residing on section 2, 18-26, where the same outrages were perpetrated with the exception of setting fire to the house. Mr. Wilson's family being absent from home also. Several homesteaders from west of town complain of similar outrages, among them John Tanner, who was damaged by the house-breakers to the extent of ten or twelve dollars. It is not supposed that residents of Keith county are given to the perpetration of such lawless acts. Several tramps having passed through the country on the railroad track, it is the opinion of the settlers that they are the guilty parties, and if caught in the act, or if proof can be obtained to convict them they will certainly be dealt with very severely.—Ogallala News.

Dr. Gray, the Sidney veterinarian, has made contracts to spay about five thousand cows and young calves this summer. About the first of May he will go to the Indian Territory where John Clay, Jr., will have 1,500 cows operated upon. Later in the summer Heck Reel, of Green River, Wyoming, will have fifteen hundred calves and yearlings for the doctor's knife, and Ernest, also of Green River, will have 500 mixed. Cap. Tory, of Big Horn basin, also has 1,500 cows, yearlings and calves to be spayed. This general spaying of the cattle in order to fit them for the butcher's block indicates a determination on the part of the range cattle men to quit the business as rapidly as possible.—Sidney Telegraph.

The order for the lumber and material for the court house, amounting to about twelve hundred dollars, was sent in yesterday and will be here as soon as the B. & M. can deliver it. Bids will be received and the contract let for building some time next week and it is expected to have the structure completed by May first. When finished it will be the finest building in the county and will be worth in the neighborhood of $4,000.—Grant Enterprise.

C. W. Meeker, of Imperial was in the city last week, on his way to Lincoln, to get a writ of mandamus from the supreme court, compelling the commissioners of Chase county to call an election for the relocation of the county seat in that county. We understand that a very large petition was presented to the commissioners, and that it was got up on extremely short notice. It will now be our turn to look and say "sic."—Grant Sentinel.

Senator Thurman, who is mentioned as a possible successor of the late Chief Justice Waite, has not a high opinion of his "running" ability. When asked about his health the other day he replied: "I am in excellent health, except my old rheumatic legs; they ain't worth 25 cents."

An escaped convict from the Michigan penitentiary learned that a reward was offered for his capture. He induced his poverty stricken wife to "capture" him, deliver him up and get the reward. When this was done the convict, Albert Frazier, was happier than he had been for years. Marcey Warner who was hanged the other day at Jeffersonville, Ind., for murder made the following gallow's speech: "If any of you ever take a glass of whisky, before you put it to your lips think of Marcey Warner, and look into the bottom of the glass and see if you can't see a rope there."

Mr. C. O. D. Kelly, now living in San Francisco, is the sole survivor of Sam Houston's famous spy company in the Texan war of 1837. He carried the tidings of the massacre of the Alamo, in 1836, to New Orleans, and from thence to New York. He was born in 1803, and is now in his eighty sixth year.

Dr. Seward Webb, who married one of W. H. Vanderbilt's daughters, has just bought 1800 acres in Vermont, where he intends to have one of the finest stock farms in the country. He will make blooded stock his specialty. Two hundred and fifty men are now employed upon the place in making improvements. One hundred and fifty horses and 100 head of Jersey cattle, besides some Southdown sheep, are already on the place.
