Always offering inducements to the trade and are indeed the only genuine bargain givers in the town. Feels but lightly the dull times competitors speak of and who are envious of its growth. But will continue its course of offering only the most reliable grades of clothing at lower prices than are usually charged for far inferior qualities. THE PALACE knows it prices are the lowest ever named in this city and calls the attention of all to the following unparalleled feast of bargains it offers for the

COMING WEEK.

Number One.

In this lot we have a complete assortment of 50 Boys' Suits in all shades and colors which were sold from $7.50 to 10.50 a suit, but to make it interesting The Palace has decided to make one lot of them and let them all go for 5.90 each. We will warrant each and every suit worth from 2.00 to 5.00 more than we ask for them; strictly all-wool chevots, worsteds and cassimeres both light and dark colors in ages from 11 to 17. This is a genuine bargain line.

Number Two

Is a lot of 33 men's all-wool suits, light and color, and as we stated before their real value is 15.00, but we want to get these goods started and will sell them in sizes 34 to 42 at only 11.90. Now don't be deceived by the wild sayings of jealous competitors who are trying to palm off on the public cheap goods and claiming they are as good as the ones sold at the Palace. They are not, in fact the Palace goods manufactured by E. Rothschild & Bros. are known all over the United States for their superior finish and excellent workmanship. Well worth 15.00 a suit, we sell them at 11.90.

Number Three.

Are a lot of the best value boys' shirt waists we ever saw. Our thirty-five cent line beats the world, well worth 50 cents. We have but 47 of these—it will more than pay you to secure them early. Another line of percales, also dark indigo penangs, 75 cents would be considered cheap for them. The Palace to keep them a going will sell them the coming week for 50 cents each. We boast on our $1 boys' waist. They are the handsomest getting together of designs imaginable. Beautiful figure, loud stripes, excellent value in fact a most complete waist cheap at $1.25, to get them started The Palace offers them at $1, warranted fast colors and 33 per cent cheaper than our competitors. All these waists run in sizes from 4 to 12 years, a big inducement for mothers. BRADY ISLAND.

Our farmers are happy over the prospect of raising a good crop the coming season.

There will be more corn planted in this part of the county than ever before.

Martin Holcomb sold a fine lot of beef cattle.

Ed. Murphy is feeling quite happy, and well he may, for it is a ten pounder and all are doing well.

The late rain dislocated the bridge at Pawnee creek and it will have to be rebuilt.

John Enright of this place has gone to the U. P. R. R. shops at North Platte to learn to make the iron horse. We wish him success.

A. A. Pangborn is teaching singing school with good success.

E. A. Johnston is also teaching two hundred and forty head of cattle not to intrude on the neighbors' crops. It keeps him busy.

Ed. Coleman is turning the sod on his homestead and is fixing things up for some one to assist him in house keeping. May 14, 1888. SIM.

The recent rain has caused considerable damage and inconvenience among the farmers of our county, especially to those who reside in sod houses. Quite a number have suffered from roofs and walls falling in, and reports of leakage are numerous. There is hardly a sod house in the vicinity of Curtis but the contents are saturated with water. In one case a woman was delivered of a babe on Sunday, and when our reporter happened to stop there Tuesday she was lying on a bed that was wet through and through, while the wall at one end of the house had tumbled down and the mud was ankle deep on the floor. We hope not to be obliged to chronicle such accidents very frequently.—Curtis Courier.

Charley Penn returned last night from a little pleasure trip through the western part of this state and parts of Colorado and Kansas. Our readers will remember the account in the daily a few days ago, of John Brownwick stealing a team from J. M. Hoffman, of Elk Creek. Sheriff Penn a few days later learned that the thief was in the vicinity of North Platte and at once started to round him up. After tracing him north of the Platte river and back to the southwestern corner of the state, near the Colorado and Kansas line, he located the thief in a low flat with a deep canyon leading from it. Mr. Penn stationed three of his men at the outlet of the canyon and taking two men with him proceeded to the house in the flat where the thief was supposed to be hiding. When they reached the house, however, they found that he had left a few minutes previous. They at once left the house and started down the canyon and had gone but a short distance when they heard pistol shots further down the canyon. Hurrying forward they found that the party of three they had left to intercept the thief in the canyon had come upon him where he was hid in a rifle pit, which he had dug. They did not see him until within about twenty feet of him, when he raised up and began firing at them. One of the men fell from his horse with a bullet hole through his side. One of the other men returned the fire until it got too hot for the thief, who jumped out of the hole and ran to his horse which was hid a few feet away behind a bank, but not until he had been wounded by a shot from one of the parties. He jumped on his horse and rode rapidly out of the canyon, passing within six or seven hundred yards of Sheriff Penn and his party. They opened fire on him but the distance was so great that they did not get him. After this they mounted their horses and followed him for ten miles into a very rough country, where night came on and compelled them to give up the chase. The thief is now probably retreating and doctoring his wounds down in the bad lands of Kansas or Texas. The name of the young man that was shot is George Brown. He is a cow man. Mr. Penn says it is a pretty bad wound, but he thinks he will get well. All the parties who aided Sheriff Penn in the matter are ranchmen or cow boys, and he says they stuck to him nobly. He feels somewhat disappointed that he did not get his man, but is not discouraged, and declares he will have him yet.—Broken Bow Republican.

"Heirns To Millions"

The newspaper stated, and how many women, probably, read the same, and envied her. But little was she to be envied, however; for in spite of her great wealth she was miserable. It was her lot, in common with myriads of women, to suffer from those "chronic weaknesses," which are peculiar to the female sex. Miserable, nervous and discouraged, she would gladly have given every dollar of her fortune for one brief installment of health. How easy, and how inexpensive, would be the journey to health, if Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was selected as a remedy, and the use of the same persisted in; that is, the experience of thousands of women afflicted in the above manner, teaches us to predict so. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

The Republican For 1888.

The Presidential campaign of 1888 promises to be fought out with great vigor in all the Northern states of the Union, and in some of the Southern states as well. Fortunately for the Republican party, the great issue has been made up in advance of the opening of the canvass, so that it may be discussed intelligently.

The President of the United States, as the leader of the Democratic party, has announced himself in favor of maintaining the internal taxes, and of then reducing the revenues from imports to a point which shall make the whole merely sufficient to meet the current expenses of the government. The Democratic press and a majority of the Democratic members in congress have announced their acceptance of this platform.

The Republican party, on the other hand, stands squarely upon the platform which it has occupied for more than a quarter of a century—that of protection to American industries; to which is added the unrestricted right of suffrage and an honest count of ballots cast.

The issue thus made up, the parties are preparing for the fray. All over the country the Republicans are organizing. They are enthusiastic, earnest, and will make an aggressive and a hot fight, and are confident of success.

The Republican is what its name implies a REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPER.

It will do the best work it knows how for its party. It will advocate the principles in which it believes with all the force of which it is capable. In short, it intends to do its full share in the work of returning the Republican party to power in the nation. But it will be fair in its fight, and the Democrats will have no cause to complain of its methods. It will print the news of both sides. It will have full reports of the proceedings of the conventions of both parties, national and state, prepared without bias, and will present the arguments of both sides. In short, it will make a complete record of the canvass. Its news columns will be non-partisan; its editorial columns straight Republican.

AS A GENERAL NEWSPAPER, The Republican never sleeps. Its columns are breezy, while trustworthy. It prints every morning all the news of the previous day from all parts of the world. It labors early and late for the best interests of Omaha, Nebraska and the great west.

The subscription price of the Republican is as follows: Daily per year, $10 00. Daily (by carrier in Omaha or Council Bluffs) per week, 15. Weekly per year, 1 00.

In all its editions the Republican is the cheapest paper in the west. The campaign will extend over a period of more than seven months, but as we are specially desirous that the Republican shall find its way into the home of every family in the great Northwest we make this special offer:

From April 1 to December 1, 1888: In clubs of 50, 50 cents for nine months; in clubs of 25, 60 cents for nine months; in clubs of 10, 70 cents for nine months.

A corps of active correspondents will be employed in all parts of the state to keep us informed of the progress of the canvass in Nebraska.

This price of subscription barely covers the price of white paper. The Daily and Weekly Republican will be better and more complete in every department than ever before. It will be a paper of and for the people and the people's interests will be advocated and maintained without fear or favor.

SPECIAL FEATURES

will be added from time to time. Send in your clubs as well as individual subscriptions so as to commence early in April and reap the full benefit of this liberal offer. We want an active canvasser for the Weekly at every postoffice in Nebraska. THE REPUBLICAN CO., Omaha, Neb.

HA! HA! THE BEST OF ALL!

It did not take five years to discover that the Jewel Gasoline Stove was the only safe gasoline stove made, but in 1887, the first year it was introduced in North Platte, FORTY-SIX were sold, more than was sold of all others combined. We have them with either drop tank or the pneumatic, and in the language of the poet, "no pump to get out of order or gas forced through the room," but can prove that less gas escapes from it than any stove made and can show it has many points of superiority over all others and prove to you that the Jewel is The : Best : Stove : Made. They are all guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction and will consume less gasoline than any stove in the market. Call and examine the late improved Jewel and be convinced and you will buy no other. RESPECTFULLY,
