It is said, and it seems very reasonable to believe, that Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, the noted temperance advocate, wrote the following plank in the republican platform: "The first concern of all good governments is the virtue and sobriety of the people and the purity of their homes. The republican party cordially sympathizes with all wise and well directed efforts for the promotion of temperance and morality."

Prof. J. Nichols, of Austin, Indiana, says: A person should be thankful when they find a medicine that will cure them when every other kind has failed to give relief, and I am thankful. I am subject to cholera morbus in the summer, and never could get relief that would give me relief. I saw your advertisement and thought I would try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and see if it would help me. It has saved me many hours of terrible suffering. It is the best medicine of the kind ever made. For sale by F. H. Longley.

The nights will pass as the nights have passed, and soon we will have the day; and that day will pass as no day can last, for nothing is here to stay. The young will pass from their glad estate, to age, and disease, and death, as the poor will pass and the strong and great, as passes the fleeting breath. The grass will pass from the sunlit plain, as the grass of last year went, but the fellow in blue who runs the train won't pass me worth a cent.

A WARNING.
The modes of death's approach are various and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives three or four million germs into the system and where those germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and in show, a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue they extend to the lungs, producing consumption and to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and it allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness, allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. You may feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or chest, and you should get Chamberlain's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

As he embarked for Europe on a Cunarder in the harbor of New York, the other day, Mr. Chauncey M. Depew sighed and mopped his brow with a wipe that was not a bandanna, and said: "It is a great strain on a man to try to be nominated president." He said that he bore it very well, however, until he received a dispatch from a confidential friend of one of the most prominent candidates before the Chicago convention, reading somewhat as follows: "Under what combination of circumstances would you consent to accept the nomination for vice president? Collect $1.75." Chauncey said that his back then gave away.

Personal.
Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

St. Paul, July 9.—A great storm over western and central Minnesota and eastern Dakota yesterday. The wind reached the velocity of a hurricane. At Shakopee, Minn., the great building of the Wampach Furniture company was badly wrecked, the Cooper building demolished and Kohl and Berens' store unroofed. Several frame residences and barns were blown down and trees and fences torn up and thrown across the highways in such a way as to prevent travel. At Redwood Falls, Minn., several buildings were toppled over and burned by lightning. Much damage to fences and crops is reported from the country. At St. Peter the lightning burned three buildings, one barn containing several valuable horses. Many hundred acres of corn were destroyed by hail. Many buildings were blown down in the vicinity of Roswell, Dak., where the storm swept a strip of country twenty miles wide. At Vilas the hail did considerable damage to crops.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.
A single bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup kept about your house for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses.

The president vetoed three more pension bills yesterday, making a total of 139 this session of congress. In vetoing one of the bills, for example, the president goes to the pension office for his authority and claims that the soldier died from drunkenness. The congressional committees on special pension bills, a higher court than the pension office, examined the evidence laid before the commissioner of pensions together with other evidence bearing upon the case and decided the applicant justly entitled to a pension. Throwing aside all this evidence as of no account, and considering only the evidence upon which the application for pension was before rejected, the president gravely informs the legislative branch of the government that it is wrong and that the applicant is a fraud and would be a robber. Nothing better can be expected, however, of the present chief executive.

Wonderful Cures.
W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Kansas, Mo., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for four years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pneumonia, Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by A. F. Streit.

In 1884 the New York Independent was a strong supporter of Cleveland. Now it says: "His pledges were magnificent: his performances were disgraceful. His scheme of civil service was fine; its fulfillment a farce. He set out to lift the democratic party; he ends it by letting down the government. He began as a conspicuous reformer; he is ending as a conspicuous failure."

Pretty Women.
All women look attractive when their color and complexion is clear. If your skin is sallow eyes dull, you are bilious, secure a box of Williams' Pink Pills. Take as directed, and the feeling of languor will leave you, your eyes brighten, and you are another woman. C. W. Price, Agent.

Mark this one point. James G. Blaine has been in Europe and has seen the exact condition of the people there. He will come home with an inexhaustible collection of facts with which to annihilate the democratic Cobden club pretensions. When he opens the campaign a few weeks later there will be a wild hysterical buzz of resentment and despair among the panicky reformers of Ohio wool.

$25.00 Reward.
The above reward will be paid for any case of rheumatism not benefited by Ballard's Snow Liniment. There is no pain it will not subside, no wound it will not heal. It is the most penetrating liniment known for all pain, for man or beast it stands without parallel. Ladies who have backache should never be without it. Price 50 cents. C. W. Price Agent.

An Indiana man by the name of John Anderson perpetrated the same old chestnut a few days ago. In a playful spirit he pointed a gun at a friend, and that friend is now on the glittering strand, while John is "nearly crazed with grief." With all due regard for his grief, it might be a good scheme to send him over the road for a year or two. The lesson would probably prove profitable to John Anderson my jo, John.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Chairman Hodge, in an interview says: "If the railroads, through the dictation of the Burlington, are ready to declare open war upon the brotherhood, we are ready for them. It is claimed that wholesale arrests are to be made of men who were prominent in the recent strike when Stone, of the Burlington, gives the word. I have said before, and I say it again, that if any such thing occurs every road in Chicago will be tied up within thirty-six hours."

Hardly a day passes, but what we hear some say who has been a life long democrat that he has enough of Cleveland and "democratic reform" and will this year vote for Harrison and Morton. The men of this locality are no exception. It is all over the land. Many who thought a change necessary four years ago, who were deceived by the promises of Cleveland and the democracy, have come to the conclusion that the grand old party is good enough for them and they will vote the republican ticket straight. One man who had made up his mind to vote the prohibition ticket told us this week that he had concluded since he had seen the republican platform to vote the republican ticket. Such a platform he says is good enough for a republican, and that no reasonable temperance man can ask anything more of the party.—Broken Bow Republican.

My little boy about eight months old was taken with fits. After several days we commenced giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions. We were very uneasy about the child and sent for a physician. I told him what we had been doing and showed him the medicine. He examined it and told us the best thing we could do was to go ahead and give the remedy. We used about half of a small bottle and cured the child, although the child was so low he had no use of himself. We thought so much of your remedy that we would let no one else have it. I told my wife a few days ago that I must write and tell you what your remedy had done. G. W. Louza, Zion's Hill, Virginia. Sold by F. H. Longley.

THE VALUE OF A BRAND.
A very interesting test case was tried last week before Justice Beard, of Kimball. Quite a number of farmers' cows some time ago strayed away from their owners in the vicinity of Kimball, and were afterwards discovered with some cattle company's brand on them. Mr. Salzhorn, of Kimball, was one of the unfortunate, he having owned a cow which had strayed away from him without a brand on her, but when he afterwards found her the Snow Cattle Company's brand, of Wyoming had been placed upon her side. Mr. Salzhorn, however, took her home and milked her as usual, but a short time afterwards a Snow Cattle Company's employee claimed her, and being refused possession notified the manager of the company, who replied the company's lawyer to conduct the suit. Mr. Rayner was telegraphed for by Mr. Salzhorn to defend his possession. Mr. Rayner says that he so punctured the gentleman's argument that after the case had been closed on both sides the company's manager through his lawyer stated to the jury that they were desirous of getting out of the matter as gracefully as possible, and therefore requested the jury to return a verdict for the defendant for the cow, damages and costs. Cattle brands may under Wyoming law be conclusive evidence of ownership, but the atmosphere of Wyoming is somewhat lighter than Nebraska, where it is only prima facie evidence, and may be rebutted by proof of actual ownership.—Sidney Telegraph.

AN EXPLANATION.
What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many now seem to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaric was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the liver which in performing its functions find that it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, malaria, bilious fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

It is fitting that the pioneer of low-priced journalism in the West should lead in placing the American newspaper of to-day upon the basis of the lowest unit of American coinage. Twelve years ago that unit was the nickel in Chicago and throughout the Northwest. The founding of THE DAILY NEWS at a lower price was regarded by the journalistic profession as inviting certain failure. But they were wrong. To-day there is not a nickel paper in Chicago, and the circulation of THE DAILY NEWS averages, as shown by its published sworn statements, 175,000 copies a day—with a single exception the largest daily circulation in America, and greater than the circulations of all other Chicago dailies combined.

THE DAILY NEWS has prospered beyond the most sanguine hopes of its founders. For this it has more than once made its grateful acknowledgments to an appreciative public. It believes, however, that the time has now come when, acting entirely within the limits of a wise commercial progression, it can give its thanks more practical expression. It proposes henceforth to "divide" as to its friends—and to multiply as to its circulation. To-day it reduces its price to One Cent—and expects to double its circulation.

And anticipating the questionings of the doubtful let it be briefly said that the thing can be done. THE DAILY NEWS—all that it has been in the past, as well as all that is rightly expected of it in the future as a leader in progressive American journalism—can be produced and sold for one cent a day, and this by reason of those common principles of trade which make possible lower prices just in proportion as the aggregate volume of sales increases. THE DAILY NEWS now sells over a million papers a week, as shown by its published sworn statements of circulation, and it can afford to sell at a smaller profit per paper than other Chicago dailies, no one of which has as much as one-third the average daily circulation announces the reduction of its price from Two cents to ONE CENT per copy.

It is fitting that the pioneer of low-priced journalism in the West should lead in placing the American newspaper of to-day upon the basis of the lowest unit of American coinage. Twelve years ago that unit was the nickel in Chicago and throughout the Northwest. The founding of THE DAILY NEWS at a lower price was regarded by the journalistic profession as inviting certain failure. But they were wrong. To-day there is not a nickel paper in Chicago, and the circulation of THE DAILY NEWS averages, as shown by its published sworn statements, 175,000 copies a day—with a single exception the largest daily circulation in America, and greater than the circulations of all other Chicago dailies combined.

THE DAILY NEWS has prospered beyond the most sanguine hopes of its founders. For this it has more than once made its grateful acknowledgments to an appreciative public. It believes, however, that the time has now come when, acting entirely within the limits of a wise commercial progression, it can give its thanks more practical expression. It proposes henceforth to "divide" as to its friends—and to multiply as to its circulation. To-day it reduces its price to One Cent—and expects to double its circulation.

And anticipating the questionings of the doubtful let it be briefly said that the thing can be done. THE DAILY NEWS—all that it has been in the past, as well as all that is rightly expected of it in the future as a leader in progressive American journalism—can be produced and sold for one cent a day, and this by reason of those common principles of trade which make possible lower prices just in proportion as the aggregate volume of sales increases. THE DAILY NEWS now sells over a million papers a week, as shown by its published sworn statements of circulation, and it can afford to sell at a smaller profit per paper than other Chicago dailies, no one of which has as much as one-third the average daily circulation of THE DAILY NEWS. The large addition to its present million-a-week circulation, which will surely come with its reduction to one cent a day, will fully compensate for the reduced profit at which each paper is sold. All this concerns the reader only as assuring him that THE DAILY NEWS can reduce its price and at the same time maintain its high character as the foremost newspaper of the Northwest—that a million-a-week circulation makes the otherwise impossible entirely possible.

The present is peculiarly the time to inaugurate this popular departure in American journalism. The approaching Presidential election widens immeasurably the field and opportunity for THE DAILY NEWS as an independent, impartial, fearless newspaper—one free from all the entanglements of mere partisan allegiance. The demand is more and more for a newspaper which shall give all the political news free from partisan coloring, and which shall tell the absolute, unvarnished truth about things, regardless of its effect upon the fortunes of this or that political party or candidate. This demand THE DAILY NEWS aims to meet, and at its reduced price it combines all the elements which should make it literally everybody's paper.

To the thousands of new readers whose attention is now for the first time directed to THE DAILY NEWS it is proper to say that they will find it complete in all the essentials of the best American journalism of to-day. Its quality as a news paper proper is best indicated in the fact that it is the only low-priced paper in Chicago or the Northwest, which is a member of the "Associated Press." The other "Associated Press" papers in Chicago, the Tribune, the Times and Inter-Ocean all cost three cents. THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS prints all the news and sells it for one cent a day. Sold by all news dealers. Mailed, postage paid, at $3.00 per year, or 25c. per month. Address VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher.
THE DAILY NEWS, CHICAGO.
