REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana. For Vice-President, LEVI P. MORTON, of New York. For Member of Congress, Third District, GEO. W. E. DORSEY.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATES.

The selection of a senator to represent the 30th senatorial district in the legislature this winter has practically been assigned to Lincoln county. We have two candidates for the honor, but the name of only one will be presented to the convention called to make the nomination. Both are excellent men; both are men of ability, high integrity and vitally interested in the growth, development and prosperity of the large territory comprising this district, with a population of over 75,000.

John I. Nesbitt is the rising young lawyer of West Nebraska. A clear and quick thinker, an eloquent speaker and ready debater, a student of law and its application to civil government, few men are better qualified to fill the high position to which he aspires. Throughout the district he is well known, and attracted state reputation by the admirable manner he presided over the deliberations of the last Republican state convention. Three times he has been almost unanimously elected to office in this county, for two years as Supt. of Schools and he is now serving his second term as County Attorney. Appointed chairman of the Republican county committee a year ago, his great executive ability was immediately demonstrated by the manner he conducted the campaign and unified the party, which had before been divided into factions on local issues.

Thomas C. Patterson is one of the oldest residents of Lincoln county. Coming here a mere boy when the country was new, he has grown with its growth and strengthened with its strength. For twelve years he was postmaster in this city. Always among the first to suggest an improvement, scarcely an enterprise of importance is inaugurated but he is among its most energetic promoters. Full of life, industrious, quick to see the needs of the public, he would most ably represent the people in the senate.

Between these two men THE TRIBUNE will express no choice. Both will go before the Republican electors of this county at the primary election for endorsement. The one who receives the majority of the county convention will be the nominee of the party for senator, and the successful candidate will receive the hearty support of him who is defeated.

Senatorial Committee Meeting.

A letter from H. O. Smith, of Plum Creek, chairman of the Republican senatorial central committee, says he has called a meeting of the committee at North Platte, August 4th, at two p. m. A. H. Church, we believe, is the member from this county.

The headquarters of the Republican National Committee is 91 Fifth Avenue, New York.

ANOTHER convert to Harrison and protection to American industries. Hugh T. Crockett, a life long Democrat of this city, has announced his intention to vote for Harrison and donated the Republican badge.

IN a circular letter Secretary Furnas informs us that this year the State Fair will be held at Lincoln Sept. 7th to 14th; that responses and applications for accommodations are far in advance of any preceding year up to date; that more live stock stalls, pens and space for agricultural products have been engaged; more inquiries made and correspondence generally doubled, indicating an increased interest in the fair. As the season is propitious for good crops all over Nebraska and contiguous territory, it is likely the State Fair of 1888 will be the grandest exhibition that has been given under the auspices of the society.

William H. Grace, ex-Mayor of New York City, and one of the best known and most respected democrats in the whole state, has announced himself as a supporter of honesty and Harrison. Here is one of his reasons as given by himself: "I have studied the tariff question for twenty-five years, and I cannot but support the convictions that I have arrived at after so much study. I cannot support free trade, which has been the cause of every great panic since 1813. The democratic policy now is to claim that the party is not for free trade, but for freer trade. The claim is hypocritical. Its platform is but a string of words well put together, and intended to deceive the people."

The commissioners having viewed the surroundings and made proper measurements, located bridge across north channel of river at Maxwell on section line between sections 21 and 22 13-27, the distance across being 200 feet, the banks high and approaches good. The following bill was allowed on general fund:
