REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION.

The Republican Electors of the 54th legislative district of Nebraska are called to meet in convention at Ogallala, Neb., Thursday, August 24th, 1888, at 7 o'clock p. m.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

In writing the political history of Lincoln county, the historian will refer to the Republican county convention held last Saturday afternoon as especially notable by reason of the deep interest taken therein.

All recognized the high character, fitness and ability of Mr. Jas. Sutherland for State Treasurer, and before the meeting of the convention it was decided he should have the privilege of naming his own delegates to the state convention.

The delegates recognizing the importance of the office of county attorney, freely discussed the merits of the different names suggested for that office.

For county commissioner Martin Oberst of this city was nominated by acclamation. Mr. Oberst is one of the old residents of the county, a large property holder and tax payer.

Throughout the work of the convention was harmonious. There was a disposition to allow only fair means to prevail, a rule most rigidly carried out.

Visitors still continue to call on General Harrison, six thousand paying their respects to the gentleman on Wednesday.

JAMES SUTHERLAND.

The convention paid this gentleman a handsome and well-merited compliment by unanimously approving his candidacy for State Treasurer and by the same hearty vote adopting a resolution asking him to select his own delegation.

Mr. Sutherland is a gentleman upwards of forty years of age and has long been identified and well known in the business circles of our state.

The position of State Treasurer demands that high order of talent and practical knowledge of business affairs possessed in no greater degree by any one in our state than by Mr. Sutherland.

He will go to the state convention with a large following, not only in Western Nebraska but from other portions of the state.

Says the Omaha Bee: "Many letters of inquiry having been addressed to the editor of the paper at Decatur, Ill., where Dr. Brooks, the prohibition candidate for vice-president, made his memorable speech, as to whether he used the language reported, the editor has caused to be printed in the form of a circular affidavit of his reporter and of reputable citizens giving the exact language of Dr. Brooks, which does not vary in any important particular from the first report of his remarks.

W. E. Schwartz, of Pittsburg, just home from abroad, and fellow passenger with Blaine, says: "In England and Scotland Andrew Carnegie is by far the best known of Americans. While out driving in Edinburgh with a friend I had the foundation of a new building pointed out to me, and was told it was the new public library to which Mr. Carnegie had given fifty thousand dollars.

Two sharpers sold $600 worth of groceries at half market prices to farmers near Mattoon, Ill., recently and decamped with the proceeds before the farmers discovered that their Java coffee was roasted beans and other articles as badly adulterated and worthless.

Minor K. Meiggs, one of the sons of the celebrated railroad contractor, Mr. Henry Meiggs, died at Lima, Peru, recently, falling dead while conversing with a friend at his club. The remains were placed in the family vault at Villegas.

Weavers at the Fall River, Mass., linen mill have struck against an order to use a comb made from blades of defective card combers in remedying imperfections in the cloth, and 2,000 looms are idle.

MAXWELL NOTES.

Haying is about half done but a standstill just now on account of too much rainy weather. One of Wm. Plumer's horses fell dead in the harness last Tuesday, rupture being the cause.

The school board has engaged G. D. Robinson to teach the fall term of school at the station. Mr. R. is late of Valley, Neb., where he has been engaged in teaching and brings good recommendations. He also holds a diploma from the Omaha business college and promises to give good satisfaction.

Miss Eva Frankenberger and Miss Etta Matthews had an experience on last Tuesday night that they will not forget so long as they live. Miss F. is a sister of Mrs. J. L. May, the latter with her husband being on a visit to the summer resorts west of here and is looking after Mr. May's house during their absence.

A bloody tragedy was enacted at Shenandoah, Iowa, on Saturday. A man named Frank Gallup shot and killed two and dangerously wounded two other men, and was then shot and instantly killed by one of a posse who had arrived to quell the bloody work of the Gallops.

On the 10th day of July a letter was mailed at Ogallala directed to A. W. Kinne, Paxton, containing a report of the First National Bank at Ogallala to the treasury department at Washington. The report was sent here for Mr. Kinne, one of the directors, to sign. It was not received at this office until six days afterwards, and as the report, by reason of this delay, did not get to Washington in the required time specified by law, the First National was fined two hundred dollars.

The official count gives Hyannis the county seat of Grant county, instead of Whitman as previously reported. The following county officers were elected: Judge, G. W. Collins; clerk, Sidney Manning; treasurer, James Forbes; sheriff, R. Naron; superintendent of schools, J. L. Hall; coroner, R. Straight; attorney, O. P. Warner; coroner, George Hovey; commissioners, T. R. Lynch, G. W. Swigart and P. Buchink. Hyannis is now on the boom. A number of good buildings are now in process of erection and contracted for.

The New York Herald is shaky. It says: "Cleveland's luck alone will not win votes. The Republicans must be attacked along their whole line. They must be challenged in every state—in Maine and Wisconsin and Michigan as well as these doubtful states of Connecticut and New Jersey, which after all depend upon the caprice of the metropolis." That is right, poke them up. 'Out west the party almost seems to have sunk into innocuous desuetude.—Inter Ocean.

The seventh annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans of the United States army convened at Wheeling, W. Va., Wednesday. The total number of members in good standing is 66,671, an increase of twelve thousand during the past year.

The eleventh conference of the Young Men's Christian Association of the world is now in session at Stockholm, Sweden. Sixty American delegates are in attendance.

Richard K. Fox, now in Paris, backs Kilrain against Sullivan or anybody else for $10,000 or more. Judge Duffy, a New York police justice, discharged the single American found among eighty other bummers.
