WALLACE. We understand the North Platte ball club will bring suit against the Wallace club for running away with North Platte's half of the last day's gate receipts, and crop. that a counter suit will be brought to compel the Hubites to pay the board bill of the Wallace scorer and manager. Better call it even, boys The liquor case mentioned last week did not come to trial. It is a matter of regret to all law-abiding citizens that this farce was ever enacted, as it looks as though the temperance people of Wallace has made an attempt to suppress liquor selling and failed miserably. The truth of the matter is that they have brought no such action as yet. They never had any knowledge of the action taken, directly or indirectly, until the serving of the subpoenas. It now remains for the temperance workers to begin an earnest united effort to effectually eradicate the the illegal traffic and see that future actions are not a repetition of last week's

The campmeeting, at Bartley, this year, has been a remarkably pleasant affair. The attendance has been large, the order has been the very best, and although the number of convertions was not so very large, the influence of such quiet, yet earnest meetings are always very extensive and endearing. Mr. M. J. Sloat has the newly established mail route from Curtis to North H. OTTEN, Prop. Platte, which makes two trips per week, leaving Curtis on Tuesday and Friday mornings and returning the next day. Mr. Sloat will drive in a covered rig and the passenger rate will be reasonable. Cattle buyers are already on the go in Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado, but

It has been a "sorry" looking sight to see the long faces in town when the refusal to register the precinct bonds by the state auditor was read last Friday evening. But with true heroic zeal and enthusiasm quite a number of our citizens Island. gathered at the clerk's office and after a few short speeches it was decided that it would be better to have bonds drawn up after the auditor's own plan and call a new election, than to attempt to force the registration of the bonds by mandamus proceedings. Acting upon this plan the call was issued by our honorable board of commissioners for a new election. It is have the best interests of our town and county at heart, that there will not be a single vote against the bonds.

From the Pioneer A very unfortunate and probably fatal accident happened to a young man named David Tyler, aged about twenty years, on Tuesday afternoon last. He was engaged with others in stacking grain and in slidin from the stack to the ground came in contact with a pitchfork which was leaning on the stack with the tines on the ground. The tines of the fork penetrated the rectum four or five inches, came in contact with the spinal column, which pitched the young man forward on his face. Drs. Rosenberg and Bancroft have been attending the case and the latter informed a Pioneer reporter this morning that the case is critical. Mr. Tyler is a very fine young man and is held in high esteem by his associates.

Buffalo Bill's Grand Reception.

The grand reception accorded to Colonel W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) on Decoration Day in New York, when twelve miles of dense humanity rolled its plaudits along before him, when he shared the honors of the day with the president of the nation and military heroes of renown, a reception duplicated daily at Staten Island, culminated last Monday in a spontaneous outflow of enthusiasm from fourteen thousand (14,-000) admirers in the Quaker City. The public's pleasure was heartily manifested at the return of the frontiersman and his two-year-old campaigners from triumphs abroad, in a manner that might well arouse the envy of any potentate or prince of Europe, or any statesman or political aspirant in America. More 'remarkable and betler too than a set day of tribute, is the fact that through increasing numbers appreciation the opening scenes have been excelled during the week. Americans thus show discrimination, and give ample proof of admiration for those whose motto is "to do or die," to accomplish in their sphere, however humble, something for the cause of education, and credit for our country abroad. The efforts of Colonel Cody to depict the phases of western life, that has figured so closely in every foot of land on this continent in its reclamation from savagery, in a picturesque manner, being well appreciated, and in the history of those A shooting affray took place on Satur- efforts it is notable that Philadelphia was day last which very nearly resulted in the first to respond with encouragement. loss of human life.
