The new law governing fire insurance companies and their agents which took effect July 1st requires every underwriter and every person who shall act as agent for any fire insurance company to enter into bonds in the sum of $1,000, conditioned that they will pay over to the city or village in which they operate, two per cent of all premiums received, such payment is to be used for the support of the fire department of such city or village. The penalty for failure to comply with the law is severe, being as follows: "Every person who shall effect, or agree to effect, any fire insurance in any such city or village, without having delivered such bond, or who shall wilfully omit or refuse to pay such duty or rate,

Mexican pension law was General John S. Williams, one of the wealthiest men in the state of Kentucky, who had been governor of the state and senator, and was and is a candidate for re-election to both places. He was likewise a brigadier general in the service of the southern confederacy, and after plotting and intriguing with Breckinridge to drag Kentucky into secession, left the state at the head of a brigade of Kentuckians, and fought as hard as he could for over four years to destroy the government whose pension he was so prompt to claim

Marking pension law was General John S. Williams, one of the wealthiest men in the state of kentucky, who had been governor of the state at this office and $3,000 a year. Mrs. Lamadrid says that so far her greatest trouble has been with the men in charge of the stands, who, following the devices of Wall street, water the stock for the sake of selling more coffee and soup.

A Stanton county farm hand, working near Pilger, was mysteriously poisoned the other day, and there are several theories in regard to the matter. One reason is that he had eaten melous taken from a "dosed" patch, and another that the poisoned was administered by a man who was his rival in the affections of a young lady. He will recover, but the case will be investigated.

John Oedkin purchased eighty acres of rawland near McCook last year, paying therefore $1,600. Last fall he sowed from all over the world who find life a joy the many acosy mountain retreat, reached the strength of the construction in 1889, of over one hundred residences on and around Capitol Hill, and the average cost exceeded $10,000 for each house. Denver is by common consent the hand-somest residence city in the west, and every succeeding year adds to her population those who desire to live in a perfect climate. The cool dry air of Colorado has become world famous, and in many a cosy mountain retreat, reached the other that the poisoned was administered by a man who was his rival in the affections of a young lady. It is reported that the dam above Johnstown is to be rebuilt. If this should be done and another calamity follow the sufferers will not receive the sympathy the second time like they did the first. If those who escaped will enter their necks knowingly into the halter the second time, they themselves are to blame.
