By the Light of the Moon.

Upon an invitation previously extended by Manager J. A. Goodman, about fifty of our prominent ladies and gentlemen on Thursday evening last enjoyed the novelty of a moonlight picnic at the ranch of Col. W. F. Cody...

The spacious lawn surrounding the headquarters was filled with tables and comfortable seats, and other arrangements perfected which added to their enjoyment. The ladies of the party immediately commenced preparing the lunch—and it was a lunch worthy of record...

After the tables had been partially relieved of their load, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman, with their usual hospitality, extended to the visitors the freedom of the house, and the invitation was accepted with thanks...

Information is wanted in regard to the whereabouts of Dennis Redmond, who left his home in Lincoln, Nebraska, previously telegraphed parties at those points to have saddle horses in readiness...

The unflattering prospect of a corn crop in western Nebraska has boomed prices, and the farmers who cribbed and saved their corn last winter are now in a position to profit therefrom...

For the information of the good people of the city THE TRIBUNE would state that there was a game of ball at the fair grounds Sunday afternoon between the Gandy and North Platte nines...

MYSTERIOUS DEATHS.

Dennis Redmond, a well-known farmer, cannot be found. Dennis Redmond, a gentleman about sixty-five years of age, left his home in this city on Wednesday of last week, and up to this hour his whereabouts in this city about six weeks ago...

The council met in regular session Monday evening, the mayor and all councilmen being present. Petition from nine lot-owners of Seventh street, asking that the time for building sidewalks be extended until April 1st, was read. A motion to table the petition prevailed...

Communication from S. Adams stating that he would not accept the sum allowed by the council for work on the fire tower. Unless he received full amount he would institute suit against the city. Communication referred to the city attorney...

The special committee on railroad crossing reported that they had interviewed Assistant Superintendent Burns, who stated that a crossing on Elm street would be put in at once...

The mayor suggested the propriety of giving prizes of $15 for cross-walks. The suggestion met the approval of the council, and the committee on sidewalks was instructed to obtain prices on flagstones...

Mr. Walker, in behalf of residents of Peuton's addition, asked for the privilege of digging a ditch on the south side of block 7 to relieve the lots of water. The privilege was given provided the dirt from the ditch be placed on the streets...

The street commissioner was instructed to notify tax-payers to work out poll-tax. Moved and seconded that night policeman be made assistant street commissioner at an increased salary of $15 per month over present salary. The motion was lost...

Bill of James Belton, late $125.00, was allowed and warrant ordered drawn on poll fund. The following bills were approved: City officials' salaries for first quarter, $350...

Bill of A. E. Huntington for work on streets, $1.50. Bill of H. S. Keith, repairs and hardware, $16.25. Bill of George Hutchinson, labor on streets, $1.50...

Bill of Roy Shaffer, work with city engineers, $15.00. Bill of W. H. Wooden, work on streets, $25.25. Bill of A. J. Downs, labor on tower and streets, $14...

The city engineer was instructed to prepare a map showing the proposed extension of the city limits. The noble red man is about ripe for a labor union. Chief No Neck has returned from Europe, where he had been serving an engagement with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show...

The chief was interviewed by the reporters and in a council that he held with them on his landing in New York he said that his employer, Bill, had given him a hundred dollars to say to the press that he had been well treated, and he acknowledged that he would say almost anything for $100, but he averred that in this particular case the thing he had been paid to say was really true. He added that the Indians only got $25 a month and board and that hereafter Buffalo Bill would be compelled to pay the Sioux $50 a month. Property has spoiled these red men and they may yet go out on a strike and paralyze the W.M. West show...

Chris Haldeman, who lives near Nichols, was thrown from his wagon near Kidding's lumber yard just before noon yesterday and sustained severe injuries about the head and left shoulder. He attempted to drive the team up to a hitching post in front of McDonald's store when the horses rebelled and started forward suddenly breaking the tongue. This frightened the equines all the more and they put out on a dead run, the wagon swaying from one side of the road to the other. When at the point above mentioned the wagon turned on one side and Chris was thrown heavily to the ground. He was picked up insensible and carried into a house near by. Dr. Donaldson summoned who upon examination found no bones broken. This is the second time this team has got away from Chris...

A gentleman desires THE TRIBUNE to call the attention of the Board of Education to the condition of the trees in the Central school yard. Our informant says that nine of the finest maple trees on the grounds are dead, a number of the box elders are dead and many others are dying. This condition of affairs is due to the lack of water, and unless the matter is attended to soon the majority of the trees will be past reviving...

The rapidity and thoroughness with which the present Mayor and City Council transact business is worthy of commendation. Of course Klein and Patterson get at loggerheads occasionally, but they are quick to order by His Honor, who has a very weighty way of squinting on members using their mouths too freely...

I would inform S. A. Douglas Post, G. A. R., that Mr. Heathcote has not engaged the opera house for the 18th of September, and in fact for no other date. I, however, have no desire to interfere with any of the good people who are assisting Mr. Heathcote in his summer snap...

We will give one year's subscription to THE TRIBUNE to the person bringing to this office the largest ripe watermelon between now and the first day of November. For the next largest melon we will give six months' subscription...

Governor Thayer, Major Clarkson and Adj-General Cole, all speakers of state reputation, have announced their intention of being present at the district G. A. R. reunion, and will address the people...

Cockle-burrs are now ripe, and according to an old saying only six weeks will elapse until Jack Frost puts in his appearance. People who believe in the wisdom of the old sages can govern themselves accordingly...

Dr. Clutz, president of Midland College, will preach in the Lutheran church next Sunday, morning and evening. As a general liniment for sprains and bruises or for rheumatism, lame back and deep seated or muscular pains, Chamberlain's Pain Balm is unrivaled. For sale by A. F. Stretz.

Dated July 9th, 1890.

It does seem singular that so many people will let their skin become yellow, dark and greasy, (finally resulting in blotches and skin eruptions, as well as a general drying up of the blood, causing wrinkles and premature old age), when this can be remedied at so little expense. Two bottles of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will renew and purify the blood throughout the whole system, leaving the skin clear and free from all eruptions. A. F. Stretz Druggist.
