REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET For County Treasurer. J. H. CLARK For County Clerk, GEORGE C. STODDARD. For Clerk of the District Court, WILLIAM C. ELDER.

For Sheriff, D. A. BAKER, For County Superintendent, MARY E. HOSFORD.

For County Judge, JAMES M. RAY. For County Surveyor, CHARLES P. ROSS.

For Coroner, DR. E. B. WARNER.

The Republican County Convention. On Saturday last the republican county convention met at the court house and nominated a clean ticket of clean men that will commend itself to the intelligent, patriotic citizens of Lincoln county without regard to politics.

The work of the convention was characterized by fairness and harmony. The contrast between the work of this convention and the or trading, nor do we know of a single instance where a candidate solicited a delegate to vote for him. The delegates were inspired by one John H. Clarke, the republican the old parties. nominee for county treasurer, a good farmer, a good citizen, and an inated, and had no knowledge that his name would come before the convention. David A. Baker was not a candidate for the nomination of sheriff.

But the nomination came to him unsought and in response to the demands of the law abiding citizens of all parties, and from all parts of the calamity convention? Two demands of the law abiding citizens of all parties, and from all parts of the calamity convention? Two the calamity convention? Two the calamity convention? Two pudiating such men as Stevens, Stockton, Beatty and others in such the calamity convention.

An alliance circular now being sent out says: "The honest farmers repudiating such men as Stevens, Stockton, Beatty and others in such the calamity convention? Two pudiating such men as Stevens, Stockton, Beatty and others in such the calamity convention? The honesty support, and the calamity support, and the of all parties, and from all parts of the county, who demanded that the best sheriff Lincoln county has ever had should be retained in the interest of the whole people. His opponent, Tom Fort, is an old time chronic office seeker, who has belonged to all the political parties that ever existed.

One of the planks of the indecommon impulse to find the very best material in the county for the various offices, and right well have they performed their duty. Each and every man upon the ticket is well qualified to fill the office for which he has been nominated, and we ask the intelligent voters of Lincoln county to size them up with their opponents nominated by the county to secure the nominations, all three of the planks of the independent county convention was to the effect "that the office should seek the man," yet the meloncholy fact that in the case of their nominates which he has been nominated, and we ask the intelligent voters of Lincoln county to size them up with their opponents nominated by the secure the nominations, all three of the republican fold.
