

U. P. TIME TABLE.

Table with columns for GOING EAST, GOING WEST, and GOING WEST—MOUNTAIN TIME. Lists train numbers, destinations, and departure times.

—Dog.
—Days.
—The week.
—Mr. Beer, shipped a bunch of horses to Des Moines, Iowa, this week.

—One plain drunk Sunday in spite of the enforcement of the St. Louis law.

—P. L. Harper, of Wallace, is the owner of a mare with a trotting record of 2:22.

—A daughter of Emil Ericsson was quite sick out at the Egna ranch the first of the week.

—Geo. A. Walker, living southwest of Iowa thinks his winter wheat will run twenty bushels to the acre.

—Wm. O'Connell expects to shortly again resume railroading, and Sheriff Baker is looking for a new deputy.

—The fellow with the traction threshing machine engine attracted his usual crowd of small boys last Saturday.

—The B. Hershey ranch shipped a bunch of horses east last Saturday that had been sold to L. D. Hartley, of Iowa.

—Dr. F. N. Dick was quite sick last week with inflammation of the bladder, but at last report was rapidly recovering.

—Some badly needed street work has been done on the north side the past week by Street Commissioner Huntington.

—Generous patronage was accorded the Catholic ladies at their ice cream social held in the Egan building Saturday evening.

—Wallace Star: The first wheat threshing of the season was down at Oscar Funk's, and it yielded twenty-five bushels to the acre.

—For the twenty-four hours preceding last Thursday morning four inches of rain fell in this city, and it may be remarked that it was a heavy fall of rain.

—The county commissioners will make a suitable appropriation for the purpose of having the products of Lincoln county represented at the World's Fair next year.

—Sam W. Lee, a clever cornet soloist with Gorton's minstrels, can be heard in one of his well executed solos at every open air concert given by Gorton's Gold Band.

—Work on Geo. G. McKay's handsome residence in the West end is being rapidly pushed and in a short time a dwelling will be completed that will be a credit to that part of the city.

—Local hunters are bagging great numbers of "quack duck" and "sand hill snipe." Quite large numbers of teal ducks have been hatched in the marshes along the Platte this season.

—Lost on July 20th, 1902, between the residences of J. M. Cotton and N. B. Oide, a small, fine gold chain with round locket and little red stone in center of locket. Finder will please return same to this office.

—Grading on the streets, which had been suspended on account of the hardness of the ground, was renewed the latter part of the week. Commissioner Huntington is getting our roadways in excellent shape.

—It is said by the most experienced and successful growers of winter wheat in this part of Nebraska, that generally the earlier the seed is sown the better the crop, even if it has to be well pastured to keep it down.

—THE TRIBUNE has received a sample of oats grown in Rock county, Kansas, from J. A. Goodman. They are of unusual length for such a season as the present, and remarkably well headed. He reports crops as being first class in that part of the country, that is getting along nicely, has his barn completed and his house almost finished.

—H. R. Ottman has followed the fashion and removed the hideous farm awnings in front of his Spruce street business property. This is said to have been accomplished largely through the efforts of G. W. Dillard. Now George devote your abilities to persuading him to finish up his buildings with a neat cornice and the value of the property. One or two other business houses in this city are in need of the same improvement. A few dollars expended in carpentry and painting add much to the appearance of a building.

—The editor of this great moral weekly and his family have concluded to visit the scenes of his boyhood days amidst the wooded hills and rippling rivulets of the old Keystone state. That he has well-earned his brief vacation none of the patrons of the paper can deny. For long and weary years, amidst the rigors of frigid winter and the blazing beams of summer suns, he has faithfully labored to publish a newspaper containing all the news of general interest to the community in which he has resided. That he has succeeded beyond the ordinary measure of success is evidenced by the meritorious quality of the publication issued from his press, and which is admitted by competent critics capable of judging as to what best constitutes a good local newspaper. Here's a double health to thee, Ira, and though far away—perhaps lurking the crafty and delicious trout from his fair 'neath the moss-covered rocks of some mountain rill—our wish is, in connection with your hundreds of readers, that you may return to your work with refreshed vigor and enthusiasm. Meanwhile the hired man will transpire and swear at the delinquencies just as vigorously as his capabilities will permit, and chase the frisky local until he finally corners it between the columns of THE TRIBUNE. The office boys, in the interim, may, perhaps, like members of the Thespian act, wonder when "the ghost will walk." Yet the old saw "that virtue is her own reward" may be applied them, and the consciousness of assisting in the publication of a paper in the absence of an editor may partially recompense them.

OPERA HOUSE!

MONDAY, AUG. 5. Gorton's Famous New Orleans MINSTRELS.

25 in number, all White Men established reputation in refined minstrelsy will appear at the opera house on the above date.

The Helena, Mont., Daily Journal, of May 31st, 1892, says: "Gorton's galaxy of minstrel talent pleased a large audience at Ming's opera house last evening. The company is composed of people who showed themselves to be artists in their line, and the applause was liberally distributed to all. The vocal quartette is composed of four very fine voices and their songs are of an unusually high order and finely rendered. The first part is very prettily set and the jokes were good. In the second part all the specialties were away above the average. DeWitt Cooke's fine club swinging brought forth much applause and deserved it. Griffin and Marks probably had more fun in their Chinese laundry than was ever seen in one in Helena. They are the best comedians seen in Helena in a long time and made a great hit."

—By a Columbia. W. J. Stuart and family returned the first of the week from their visit to the Pacific slope. He was accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Gibbs.

—The song of the mower is heard in the land. The modern mower does not permit to feel as did the old Armstrong style years ago.

—The north side meat market is again in operation under the proprietorship of C. Girmann. A fine line of meats will always be kept in stock and for sale at reasonable prices.

—All Odd Fellows, Red Men and members of the city fire department are requested to be present at Odd Fellows' hall to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral services of the late Hector Marti.

—The unsightly balcony has been removed from the front of the Keith block, corner of Front and Spruce streets. A balcony is out of place on a business block, other than on opera house or hotel property.

—Gorton's famous Gold Band will appear in open air concert at 12 o'clock in front of the opera house; uniformed parade to follow at 12:30. Admission for this engagement 75 cents. Seats on sale at usual place.

—W. J. Roche has purchased the Geo. Enloe property in the west part of the city, the latter coming immediately to Portland, Oregon. It is a well built, desirable piece of property and will prove a safe investment for the fortunate purchaser.

—Sidney druggists now sell sodawater tickets at twenty-five cents for a dollar. The North Platte seller of the seductive sizzles who patterns after this idea will sell more sodawater than he otherwise would—it has a tendency to increase the consumption.

—Chas. McDonald has wisely concluded to put the city water into his Spruce street business property. The latter is approaching year in at hand, in North Platte when necessary conveniences must be furnished in order to rent to an advantage.

—W. E. Snelling was an Omaha visitor the latter part of last week. It is said he is in search of a new business location. It is stated that Mr. Snelling has completed arrangements to go into business in Omaha, and after disposing of his stock will move to that city.

—J. F. Schmalzried has in his possession a small leatherette satchel that is said to have been carried by one of the pioneers through the thirty years from 1818 to 1848. It is in a fair state of preservation considering the usage it doubtless received and its great age.

—One of the most pleasing novelties with Gorton's minstrels, is "The March of the White Hussars." The costumes are simply elegant, and are made of white satin trimmed with gold. With intricate marches and entrancing music it is truly a novelty of magnificent splendor.

—Arch. Howard celebrated the twenty-third anniversary of his birth-day last Wednesday. There is not much remarkable in this item, other than that he was born in North Platte in the house now occupied by David Jones on West Front street. This is true that we are occasional, but he is not a native of this city. He is a son of a pioneer, and his father was one of the first settlers in this city.

—DeWitt Cooke, an artist of exceptional grace and skill in expert juggling with Indian clubs, is one of the strong features with Gorton's minstrels. Mr. Cooke does some of the most intricate work imaginable with one, two or three clubs, and never makes an error. Nor does he ever fail to win the heartiest approbation from the audience.

—W. B. Conklin has been spending the past week in Chicago, and we understand he has decided to locate in that city. Since the foregoing was put in type Mr. Conklin has decided to locate in the Garden city. North Platte social business is being done by the same club as was the removal of this estimable family from her midst, and the hundreds of friends will heartily wish that their future home may be both pleasant and healthful.

—The old man of THE TRIBUNE is of the opinion that job printing during the month of August will not be very rushing. Now the office has the material, stock and workmen capable of turning out a job second to nothing by any office in the city. Now we would like to have our business men put up a job on him, in his absence, by rushing in their orders for this class of work so that his books will show better feelings than for the month of July. Roll in your orders.

—Died—In this city yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, Hector Marti. The deceased was in the twenty-ninth year of his age. He was born in Switzerland and leaves a wife, three small children, one brother, mother and several sisters to mourn his demise. The deceased was a citizen of this place for several years, and by his pleasant manners and obliging disposition made hosts of friends in all classes of life. He was a respected member of the Red Men's fraternities, and the city fire department, and he will be jointly buried to-morrow afternoon, at two o'clock from the residence of W. S. Peniston. All friends of the family and members of the several orders are requested to be present.

Mrs. Chas. of Nebraska City, a sister of Mrs. Chas. Burke, who has been visiting the latter here for some time past returned to her home last Saturday. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. Burke.

James P. Self, and daughter, a brother-in-law of Geo. T. Snelling, is visiting the family of the latter this week. He is at present sheriff at Jacksonville, Ill., and is en route to the Knights Templar convalesce at Denver. Judge Snelling has seen him for twenty-four years until his recent visit.

Believing that five years and a half of steady and hard work without recreation is a waste of time to a short vacation, the editor of THE TRIBUNE, in company with his family and Mrs. Randall, left yesterday morning for a visit with relatives in Pennsylvania. Mr. Bare will be absent about one month and the ladies will prolong their visit several weeks after his return.

Chas. E. Osgood returned the middle of last week from his extended eastern visit and appears to have heartily enjoyed his trip. He reports crops in poor condition from Nebraska east to and through Ohio, and that politics have not warmed up to any appreciable extent; about the only subject of inquiry in this direction being as to what will become of the third party movement in the west.

BASE BALL. The game of ball at Cozad Thursday between the Dawson county aggregation and the North Plattes resulted in a victory for the former by a score of eight to nothing. Daly being the only North Platte man who reached third base. There is no question as to the ability of the members of the Cozad team as ball players, and they can outplay the North Platte boys at all points.

But the game played in this city Sunday by the same clubs was different, for the home team put up the best game of the season. The one white stocking worn by Norton and the rabbit's foot carried by Daly undoubtedly inspired the entire and they played ball instead of "boss." It was exciting from start to finish, but the North Plattes proved victors by a score of eight to six. Norton's work in the box was exceptionally effective, in one inning striking out three of the four men who faced him. Daly played his usually stiff game, and with the exception of one or two wild throws to the bases, was faultless behind the bat. The basemen and fielders are also entitled to mention for their work. A future game between the two clubs will certainly prove an attraction.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES. Two young men from Moody's school will hold meetings in North Platte Aug. 4th to 7th, at 4 p. m. There will be a Bible class to which every person is invited.

ANOTHER STATESMAN OUT OF A JOB.

The city Solons met in regular session Monday night and all were present with the exception of J. F. Schmalzried.

After the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting the usual order of business was conducted.

A receipt for the rental money of the electric fire alarm system was read, and from the grand jury a report on a payment on the machine; ordered filed. Copies of druggists' registers containing names of persons to whom liquors have been sold for the past six months were submitted. On motion they were referred to the judiciary committee.

The committee on sidewalk previously petitioned for asked for further time in which to report.

On motion the city clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for digging a ditch for drainage purposes west of town, according to the estimates made by the city engineer.

It was moved and adopted that the City order of right of way for a sidewalk be accepted.

The committee on procuring the right of way for the proposed road to the cemetery asked for further time in which to report.

Complaint was made that a barbed wire fence belonging to F. N. Dick, in the Third ward was too close to the sidewalk, to the injury of ladies' dresses and danger of individuals. Chief of Police ordered to look after this matter, and also the obstructing of streets by implement dealers.

A number of crossings were reported as being in poor condition.

The matter of stone crossings was discussed and the committee on sidewalks was instructed to inquire into the cost of constructing the same.

It was reported that the sum of $420.00 was unused in the water fund, and on motion an order for that amount in favor of the Waterworks Co. was drawn on the city treasury.

Bill of Field & Boal for lumber for city and coal for horse houses furnished in 1891 was referred to the committee on bills.

Bill of P. H. McEvoy for $120.00 for killing dogs was read and an order was drawn for that amount on the dog fund.

Bills for official salaries for first quarter were read and approved.

Recommended that Locust street be graded from railroad tracks to Von Graeg's store, that portions of Pine, Willow and Fourth streets be also graded.

The next business transacted turned the animals loose and will occasion more discussion than anything done at the meeting.

The name of Jesse Osterhout was presented for the position of night policeman. This was for the third time rejected and the mayor gave notice that on the morrow he would suspend P. H. McEvoy and appoint Mr. Osterhout as a special policeman.

Dillard wanted to know if he had any charges to offer against the deposed policeman, to which his honor vetoed the observation that it was his prerogative; to which Dillard orally objected that it was a prerogative of the council to refuse to allow a policeman's salary.

The alderman from the Second ward then prefaced his motion by saying that he knew he might be working an injustice to the city, but that he would move that for the present the city dispense with a night policeman. This was promptly adopted.

Whether Mayor Warner has acted wisely in thus causing the suspension of the best night watching man the city has ever had is not within Sheriff Baker's time will determine and the people judge; that he has erred, whether intentionally or unintentionally, the writer has not the least doubt, and the future will demonstrate the accuracy of this statement.

The national elections occur on November 3, this year—the first Tuesday after the first Monday. And the electors of the country will have a busy time voting too. There are to be elected on that day in the various states 441 representatives, 30 congressmen, 30 senators, 30 sets of state officials, 30 legislatures that are to elect United States senators, 350 representatives, with some odd state officials in Ohio and Iowa, a chief justice of the court of appeals in New York and a chief judge of the supreme court of Nevada. And there are just as many candidates to be beaten as there are to be elected too. Yes, November 3 will be a lively day in this country, and the newspaper offices on that Tuesday night will have the busiest racket of all—Hub.

The New York Herald says: One big strike drives more American money into bonds and securities than all the trans-Atlantic tourists take to Europe in a year. This very money might otherwise have gone into industries and increased wages of skilled workmen by creating competition in the labor market. When two or more employers are bidding for the same man that man makes his own terms. Strikes are costly.

ALMOST $250,000 is the sum Great Britain is said to have spent upon her navy this year. Here is a painful proof for economist Holman and other "reformers" who are opposed to the upbuilding of an American navy.

Wesley T. Wilcox and family left on Tuesday morning for a visit to Oakland, Iowa. The former will return to Lincoln in time to hear Gov. McKinley tell what he knows about the tariff question.

Frank Sullivan returned to Omaha the first part of the week to re-enter business college for the purpose of taking a course in stenography.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Lincoln county republican convention was one of the old-fashioned, scholastic sort that has been in vogue in this county for several years past.

In spite of the fact that this is an unusually busy time with the farmers on account of the lateness of the season, yet the attendance from the county precincts was good.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman French and the object of the meeting stated. He offered in explanation of the short notice given that for a long time it was thought the date of the county convention would be changed from August 4th to one more agreeable to the majority of the delegates; but this was impossible.

On motion of T. C. Patterson Judge Jas. M. Ray was nominated and elected temporary chairman.

On motion of Thos. Stimson, Chas. E. Osgood was elected temporary secretary.

On motion Messrs. Stimson, Clayton and Jordan was appointed a committee on credentials.

On motion of R. F. Forrest a committee of five was appointed a committee on resolutions. The following constituted said committee: Forrest, Patterson, Hayden, Coker and Al Davis.

On motion a brief recess was taken to allow the committees on credentials and resolutions time to prepare their reports.

The following precincts were reported by the committee as being represented by the delegates named:

Antelope precinct, T. C. Elder; Baker, Jas. H. Baker; Birdwood, John Coker; Blaine, Jerry Brittingham; Cottonwood, Chas. Simpson; Deer Creek; J. W. Richards; Dickens, J. B. Clayton; Hall, A. B.
